BRITISH SHIP PLOT KNOWN TO U. S. BOARD

BOSTON AMERICAN
LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND
VOL. 19—No. 215 Registered U. S. Patent Office BOSTON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1922 Copyright, 1922, by H. S. Newspaper Pub. Co 3 CENTS; WORTH IT

COMPLETE STOCKS NIGHT

"Hammer Slayer" Gets Ten Years to Life

MRS. CLARA PHILLIPS
Sentenced to from ten years to life in California prison for slaying Alberta Meadows with a hammer. (Photo by International News Reel.)

Los Angeles, Nov. 27 (by International News Service).—Mrs. Clara Phillips, convicted of the "hammer murder" of Alberta Meadows, was today sentenced to from ten years to life imprisonment in San Quentin prison.

Sentence was passed by President Superior Judge McCormick, who sat on the bench for Judge Houser, who is ill.

Mrs. Phillips accepted the sentence and answered the customary questions asked by the judge, with the same unruffled appearance she has maintained since her arrest and throughout the trial. She was represented by Public Defender Robert Scott, who appealed for Defence Attorney Bert Herrington, who also is confined to his home by illness.

Scott submitted a request for a new trial which was denied.

Mrs. Phillips was convicted ten days ago of having slain Mrs. Meadows, a comely young widow, whom she accused of keeping company with her husband. The victim was lured to a lonely spot in Montecito Drive and there beaten to death with a claw-hammer, while a third woman, Mrs. Peggy Caffee, who had been invited to go outing with the others, looked on, horrified and unable to interfere, she testified at the trial.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

BRIDE AND FATHER KILLED BY GAS

Marlboro, Nov. 27.—George Patterson returned home for dinner today to find his bride of a year, Alice, and her sixty-year-old father, George Christensen, fatally overcome on the kitchen floor by illuminating gas from the cook stove.

Medical Examiner R. M. Hunter of Hudson concluded, after examination of a pan of potatoes on the stove, that the water had boiled over in the pan and extinguished the gas flame underneath. This permitted a flow of gas which overcame the bride and her father.

When Patterson arrived at his home, No. 8 Chandler street, his father-in-law was dead. His wife was barely breathing. Dr. George F. Davis was on the scene soon, but Mrs. Patterson expired while the physician was attempting to resuscitate her.

Mrs. Patterson was thirty-two years old and came here a year ago from the Western part of the State with her father and husband. This was shortly after her marriage. Patterson obtained work in a local shoe factory.

WOULDN'T THIS LI'L CLASSIFIED PAGE AD. MAKE YOUR SWEET TOOTH TINGLE?

SALESLADIES WANTED
For high grade ready-to-wear store. Steady work. Good salary. Apply in person, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Miss Jones, 1 Washington st.

IT SPELLS MORE THAN CANDY—IT SPELLS OPPORTUNITY. ONE OF MANY SUCH SPELLS CAST BY THAT PAGE EVERY DAY. READ IT REGULARLY.

SPEND MONEY SAVINGLY

Thrift is the careful planning and wise spending of your earnings. It does away with waste. It is efficiency and progress.

Do you save something out of each week's earnings?

Lots of people do and they encourage those about them to do the same.

If you will open a savings account on or before your money will go on interest that day.

DECEMBER ONE

Remember—interest is the salary your savings earn.

Resources $14,000,000

Liberty Trust Company
100 Washington Street, Boston
Cor. Court Street
Member Federal Reserve System

COAKLEY AT PONZI TRIAL

U. S. WAREHOUSE IN R. I. LOOTED OF LIQUOR

WALSH ASKS BAN BY HARDING ON KLAN

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Harding should issue a proclamation against the alleged "outlawry" of the Ku Klux Klan, if investigations by some government agency of the charges made against that organization are found to be true, Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts said today in an open letter to Attorney-General Daugherty.

Senator Walsh cited as precedent for Presidential action against the Ku Klux Klan the proclamation issued against its predecessor by President Grant in the '70s. Senator Walsh demanded that all the machinery of the Federal government be set in motion at once to determine whether the Ku Klux Klan is guilty of "unspeakable crimes" it has been accused of.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

HOLDUP MEN SEIZE $2,000 IN DICE GAME

Twenty gamblers kneeled in the dirt in a wood patch off Forest street, Waltham, and wagered on the roll of the dice. Excitement was high, for there was more than $400 in the centre and the shooter had a "hot hand."

So no one paid any particular attention to five dapper youths who idled up until one with a rasping voice suddenly shouted "Hands up."

One, a smiling youth of scarcely twenty, clutched the crumpled bills lying on the ground.

Two others chatting pleasantly turned out the pockets of the gamesters, collecting, in all, somewhere in the vicinity of $2,000.

PENNSYLVANIA TAX ON COAL UPHELD

Washington, Nov. 27.—The Pennsylvania law imposing a tax on anthracite was declared constitutional today by the Supreme Court, in a case brought by Roland C. Heisler against the Thomas Colliery Company and certain State officers of Pennsylvania.

Massachusetts and other eastern States joined in the fight against the Pennsylvania coal tax. Attorney-General J. Weston Allen personally appeared before the U. S. Supreme Court for this State.

DODGED DRAFT, 182 CAN'T BE CITIZENS

Judge Morton in the United States District Court today denied final citizenship papers to 182 applicants, in the majority of cases the papers were denied because applicants had claimed exemption in the draft.

Last Monday 179 applications were denied citizenship mainly for the same reason.

COAL EXPORTS UP; HIT 2,134,424 TONS

Washington, Nov. 27.—The coal exporting business of the United States continued in October to show rapid recovery from the effects of the strike.

Figures compiled today by the Department of Commerce gave total coal exports for October as 2,134,424 tons, roughly 1,000,000 tons increase over September.

The October exports were made up of 404,999 tons of anthracite and 1,729,425 tons of bituminous.

BALKS AT RED VOW; THROWN INTO CREEK

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Police today sought armed men who tried to force William Wolf, of this city, to sign a Bolshevist pledge, and failing, tossed him into Onondaga Creek. Wolf was pulled from the creek by people who heard his cries.

"Christmas Gift Suggestions" Colors will open to you when these columns appear in the American's Classified Section. Keep an eye for them.

ADMITS BRITISH SHIP PLOT

U. S. Official Tells of Campaign by the English to Ruin Our Trade

By Associated Press.

Milwaukee, Nov 27.—British and other foreign shipping interests and journals are engaged in a studied campaign of misrepresentation and propaganda to defeat the American Ship Subsidy bill, Edward C. Plummer, commissioner of the United States Shipping Board, declared in a speech prepared for delivery today before the Middle West Merchant Marine and Foreign Trade Conference.

Alarmed at the possibility that American ships will take from them some 43 per cent. of American exports which are now carried in foreign ships, the foreign shipping interests are using every possible means to discourage the upbuilding of the merchant marine in this country, Mr. Plummer said.

DISCRIMINATION SEEN.

"They've been feeding their cattle in our pasture so long that they've come to think they own the land," he declared, "so when we start to put in some stock of our own they proceed to charge us with about everything from trespass to manslaughter."

Every sort of discrimination has been practiced against American ships in foreign trade, Mr. Plummer said, but when Americans propose to do a little discriminating in behalf of their own vessels British interests charge the United States is trying to create a monopoly.

When giant American corporations, like the Bethlehem company and the Texas company, each of them financially stronger than any European steamship concern and both of them shipbuilders as well as ship owners, find it necessary to close their own shipyards and have their own cargoes carried by foreign vessels, what is the answer?" Mr. Plummer asked.

RIDICULES CLAIMS.

"When such as they find, as they did, that they can charter foreign vessels for less money than it takes merely to operate their own steamships under the American flag, what is the sense of setting up the claim—as opponents of American shipping do—that American ships without government aid can compete with foreign ships in carrying the commerce of the United States?

"It cannot be done. Every practical shipping man knows that it can't be done; every man who has intelligently studied the problem knows

Continued on Page 18, Column 1.

Sobs in Court

MRS. CHARLES PONZI.
Wife of ex-money wizard, who broke down in Court today at trial

WIFE OF PONZI BREAKS DOWN ON STAND

Mrs. Charles Ponzi, leaving the witness stand in tears and Ponzi himself taking the stand as a witness in his own behalf, were high spots at today's session of the trial of the "Wizard" and his five alleged agents.

Ponzi began a story of his life to the jury. When he gave his ver-

Continued on Page 3, Column 4.

BANK STATEMENT.

N. Y. bank clearings	$385,000,000
N. Y. bank balances	65,000,000
Boston bank clearings	43,000,000
Boston bank balances	21,000,000
N. Y. F. R. Bank, credit	85,000,000

GEM LOOT IN THREE THEFTS

House, Store and Club Are Visited by Robbers; Loss Is at Least $10,000.

Three jewel robberies were reported today to police in Greater Boston.

Gems and art treasures worth an unknown amount, but well in excess of $10,000, were stolen.

Robbers ransacked the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell C. Tenney, No. 523 Massachusetts avenue, Lexington, and carried away a jewel casket containing many valuable stones. They also secured silk dresses.

Yegg men, crude workers, opened the safe of Henken Brothers, jewelry manufacturers at No. 393 Washington street, third floor, and took jewelry of various kinds valued at $6,000.

A sneak thief crept into the room of Pell W. Foster, Jr., at the Engineers' Country Club, Saugus, and stole diamond shirt studs, gold chain and diamond cuff links. Foster is treasurer of the Foster Marine Boiler Corporation. Last Friday an attempt was made to rob the newsstand at the club, but the thief was caught.

Servants at the Tenney home found a door ajar and later a pile of art treasures and valuables the burglars left behind.

No one knows how much the loot is worth, as Mr. and Mrs. Tenney are away. The Tenney home is the famous Munroe mansion, built in 1729. It faces the scene of the Battle of Lexington.

Lying near the safe, which was tipped on its back in the Henken office, the police found two four-foot crowbars, pinch bars, jimmies and breast drills. Those carried finger prints, so the police figure the job was the work of amateur crackmen.

EX-AGENTS INVOLVED IN STEAL

Prohibition Director Admits Hundreds of Cases Have Been Carted Away

Providence, Nov. 27.—Harry G. Sheldon, acting prohibition director of Rhode Island, this afternoon admitted the "feared half of the liquor seized in the State" since the Volstead Act became effective had been stolen from the government warehouse, Merrill and Federal streets.

An incomplete survey disclosed that hundreds, perhaps thousands, of cases of liquor had been carted away and that on one occasion alone two truck loads of wines and whiskeys had disappeared.

Former agents and men widely known are alleged to be involved.

Discovery of the larcenies came when Director Sheldon started to return to Edward Descy of Woonsocket a large stock of liquor which Judge Arthur Brown had ruled had been illegally seized in June, 1920.

The court specified there should be given back forty gallons of brandy, 125 cases of whiskey, thirty cases of other liquors and three barrels of old wine.

Sheldon started to the warehouse and lined up the cases bearing Descy's name. One was opened. It was almost empty. Further check found many cases missing. Said Mr. Sheldon this afternoon after despondent search for three days: "He'll be lucky if he gets even half back."

John J. Rosenthal, attorney for Descy, threatened to immediately go before Judge Brown if his client did

Continued on Page 2, Column 3.

COAKLEY SPECTATOR AT PONZI TRIAL

Daniel H. Coakley, disbarred attorney, was a spectator today at the trial of Charles Ponzi. Coakley is expected to be a witness later.

FIND WOMAN UNCONSCIOUS FROM GAS

Mrs. Alice Taylor was found unconscious in her room, Suite 11, 56 Batavia street, today, by Mrs Clarissa Spear, with whom she lived. A gas tube was disconnected and the jet turned wide open.

BOWIE RESULTS

1—Glabelle 34.20, Jig Step 11.30, Zeus Lassie 16.20
2—Cum Sah 6.30, Eltahe 2.70, Fissie 4.20
3—King Solomon Seal 4.80, Felside 3.80, Lady Myra 8

5 FREE STATERS SLAIN, MANY REPUBLICANS HURT IN IRISH BATTLE

COMMANDER OF IRREGULARS IN KERRY IS CAPTURED

London, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—"Free State troops are searching for Eamon de Valera, and if he is arrested and found to be armed he probably will share the same fate as Erskine Childers, who was executed last Friday," said a Dublin dispatch to the Evening News this afternoon.

Dublin, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—Five Free State soldiers were killed in a violent battle with Republican irregulars at New Port today.

The irregulars' casualties were said to be heavy. There were a few minor outbreaks in Dublin over the week-end.

Commandant Murphy, leader of the Republican irregulars in County Kerry, has been captured by Free State troops.

Republican adherents are trying to stir sympathy by asserting Erskine Childers wished to become a Catholic before execution, and that the Free State officials refused him permission to receive a visit from a priest.

They are also predicting the early release of Mary MacSwiney, who is hunger-striking at Mountjoy Prison.

A sister of the late Michael Collins, former chief of the Free State government, headed one petition to the government for the release of the hunger striker.

At the jail it was announced that Miss MacSwiney's condition was "unchanged." She is now in the twenty-third day of her hunger strike.

Mary suffered frequent fainting spells today. Her sister Annie, in the eleventh day of her hunger strike at the gates of the jail, was very weak.

WIDOW UNRESENTFUL.

Universal Service's correspondent called today upon Mrs. Childers. She was calm, though seemingly somewhat dazed by the tragic event. She spoke with quiet enthusiasm about her husband's work, but showed no trace of resentment or bitterness against his executioners.

It was mentioned that a revolver had been found on her husband at the time of his arrest, and that it had been reported that the weapon had been presented to him to help defend the Irish Republic by Mick Collins. At this Mrs. Childers said:

"Poor Mick. I was so sorry for him."

Mrs. Childers said that when she saw her husband recently he declared that he would be happy to die.

FACED DEATH BRAVELY.

It is learned that Childers faced death bravely. The early morning time set for the execution was dark and he asked that they wait until daylight before firing the volley. The request was granted, and it was some minutes after 8 o'clock instead of the official hour of seven when he was shot.

In the interval he chatted with the guards and others, and wrote several autographs. He shook hands with the firing squad before his eyes were bandaged.

Before he was taken out for execution Childers said to the Very Rev. J. H. Walter, Dean of Kildare:

"I am at peace with all the world bear no grude against anyone, and trust that no one bears any against me."

Father Dominic Transferred to U. S.

Dublin, Nov. 27. (By the Associated Press).—Transfer to the United States of Fr. Dominic, spiritual adviser of Terence MacSwiney at the time of the latter's death, was decided upon at the triennial election of the Franciscan Order here a fortnight ago, and has no political significance, according to a statement issued today by the Franciscan priory.

It was added that the American houses of the order were under the jurisdiction of the Irish province, priests of which could be sent to the United States.

Father Dominic is bound for New York on board the White Star liner Adriatic.

Irish Free State to Seek Loan

Washington, Nov. 27.—Continued unrest in Ireland has seriously interfered with the collection of the Free State government's revenue and it is probable, according to dispatches to the Department of Commerce, that the Free State will shortly enter the money market as a borrower on its own credit.

The advices were that the revenue collected could not exceed 27,000,000 pounds, which the government's informant stimated would be sufficient if the taxes were fully paid, but a deficit of about 14,000,000 pounds is predicted, owing to internal conditions.

Second Reading for Irish Free State Bill

London, Nov. 27 (By the Associated Press).—Prime Minister Bonar Law moved the second reading of the Irish Free State constitution bill in the House of Commons today, and pointed to the need for speedy action, since the provisional government in Dublin will be automatically dissolved unless the bill is passed by December 6.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

VANDERBILT GIVES RADCLIFFE $15,000

Harold S. Vanderbilt of New York has contributed $15,000 to the Radcliffe College Endowment Fund, it was announced today. The total amount raised to date is $22,036.

Had to Kill Childers, Says Cosgrave; "Murder," Declares Miss Foley

Dublin, Nov. 27.—Execution of Erskine Childers was defended today by William T. Cosgrave, head of the Free State government, as symbolic of the Free State's determination to treat all men alike—rich and poor. Childers came of wealthy and prominent family.

Wm. T. Cosgrave

"Personally, I regret the government had to take such action against Childers," said President Cosgrave. "But he was no more in the eys of the law than other men we have executed for identically the same offence.

"Under our constitution every man is equal to his fellow. If we had allowed Childers his freedom there would have been a public outcry; a cry to know why poor men were executed and rich men were allowed their freedom. There cannot and will not be any such comparisons in the Irish Free State."

Miss Monica Foley, widely-known Irish sympathizer, said:

"The murder of Mr. Childers is an indictment against the present government of Ireland. It is deplorable that one of his ability and brains should be lost to the world which needs men of his type."

Miss Foley

John F. Harrigan, State President of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, said:

"It is, indeed, pathetic, that in the bloodthirst for vengeance against men and women who refuse to bow to the yoke of English tyranny the life of Erskine Childers has been taken.

"I know that in condemning this brutal execution of Erskine Childers I voice the true heart of American freemen, who, love heroic sacrifice for freedom, and I am convinced that this despicable and cowardly execution will cause such reaction that the Irish Republic will speedily emerge victorious from the conflict."

BIG THEFT OF U. S. LIQUOR

Continued from First Page

not get "every drop" of his liquor. Agent Sheidon will petition the judge to make a settlement.

"How much liquor is missing," the agent was asked.

"No one knows. I fear more than half is gone. I am checking now."

"How much do you figure the whiskey is worth?"

"I have no idea. The amount will be enormous because I fear thousands of cases are missing. I know hundreds are gone."

Investigators from Washington are conducting a probe that carries back through the enforcement administrations of Miles Sweeney, first appointed, and Edward J. Dunn, removed a short while ago.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

CLEMENCEAU PLEASED AT CURLEY'S SPEECH

Mayor Curley today received the following message from Colonel E. M. House: "It will please you to know that M. Clemenceau was delighted with his reception in Boston, and he was particularly pleased with what you said in your welcoming speech.

"I thought you would like to know how he feels and of his appreciation."

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

MRS. PONZI IN TEARS ON STAND

Continued from First Page

sions of his imprisonments in Canada and this country he was warned by Special Assistant Attorney-General William Flaherty, the prosecutor, who said:

"I am wondering if the witness understands the scope his testimony gives the Commonwealth in cross-examination. All this is incompetent, but I don't wish to take any advantage."

WIFE IS OVERCOME.

Ponzi bowed acknowledgment to the prosecutor, but kept on.

Mrs. Ponzi, recalled to the stand today by her husband in his dual capacity as co-defendant, was pale and nervous. Ponzi undertook to question relative to a conversation which Sheriff Hannaks at East Cambridge, but this line was excluded.

Then Mrs. Ponzi began to cry. Ponzi hastily exonerated his wife from further testimony, strede over to the witness stand and assisted her to a chair.

Then Ponzi went on the stand. He put his hands in back in the rear pockets of his trousers in jaunty fashion. Swaying a little forward and back he began his own story of his life in clear, calm tone.

He said that, because of circumstances of which I know nothing," he was arrested for a crime in Canada, convicted to three years, but was paroled in twenty months. "I am not going to say whether I was guilty or not guilty," he declared.

RELIEVED SCHEME LEGAL.

He decided to return to this country. An Italian banker asked him to direct five Italians who could not speak English. At the U. S. border, Ponzi said, an immigration inspector asked whether the five Italians were with him. He replied: "In a way they are and in a way they are not. I am simply taking them through." He was arrested at the border.

It was here that Mr. Flaherty gave his warning. Ponzi then went on that the district attorney advised him to plead guilty and pay a $50 fine, but he was fined $500 and sent to Atlanta for two years.

After that, Ponzi said, he worked in an Alabama coal mine, where he gave 600 square inches of his own skin to save the arm of a hospital nurse in a skin-grafting operation.

Coming down to his Boston investment business, Ponzi said:

"I didn't stop to think of the ethics of it. I knew it was legal."

Ponzi told how he planned to go to Italy in May, 1920, to get his mother. He said he was prevented from so doing because of the "rush of money into my office," so he sent for her and brought her over.

"If I did pay $50,000 for the house, it was not extraordinary, because I had a million," he said.

INVITED FULL INQUIRY.

"On July 26, 1920," continued Ponzi, "I went to the office of Daniel J. Gallagher, United States district attorney. Mr. Gallagher said: 'I understand the papers demand an investigation.' I told him I was willing that he should investigate. In conjunction with District Attorney Pelletier and Attorney-General Allen, Pelletier said 'Yes' and Mr. Allen said 'No.' He did not want to cooperate. What his reasons were I do not know.

"In Mr. Gallagher's office were several postoffice inspectors who had been trying to get me for weeks. I was nervous. It was evident that Allen was after me strongly. I gave some explanations that may have been exaggerated, as at none of the interviews was I under oath."

BRITAIN BACKS U. S. 'OPEN DOOR' DEMAND

Paris, Nov. 27 (By the Associated Press).—Preparation of a separate treaty between Turkey and the United States is under consideration at Lausanne, says a dispatch to the Temps. The correspondent suggests this was the subject of yesterday's long conversation between Richard Washburn Child and Ismet Pasha.

Lausanne, Nov. 27 (By the Associated Press).—Lord Curson, the British Foreign Secretary, today authorized an official statement to the press that England supports the American "open door" policy in Turkey, and regards the San Remo agreement for division of the Mosul Oil District as null and void.

The Russian delegation sent a communication to the president of the Near East conference today demanding admission of the Russian representatives for the discussion of all questions on the agenda so that a durable peace might be signed.

Turk Promises First Oil Rights to U. S.

Lusanne, Nov. 27 (By the Associated Press).—The Mosul oil fields are a part of Turkey proper, and when the time comes to make oil concessions to foreigners in that rich district Americans will get the first chance, Dr. Riza Nur Bey, one of the Turkish plenipotentiaries at the conference here, declared to the correspondent today.

"We are reading a great deal these days about secret agreements outside the conference concerning Mosul, all of which proceeds from the theory that Mosul is British," the Turkish delegate said.

"The contrary is true. Mosul has been ruled by the Ottoman dynasty for exactly 1,100 years, and we intend to assert vigorously our claim to sovereignty over Mosul when the territorial question is discussed in the conference.

"British troops occupied this territory after the Armistice, not before, and it is not a part of Mesopotamia.

"We need American capital in Turkey and prefer to deal with Americans because they work their concessions on a strictly business basis, without dealing in the politics of their government by mixing in politics and following a policy of 'economic penetration' harmful to the Turkish State.

"Let Americans keep their hands off Internal Turkish politics and they will be favored by us."

Riza Nur was distressed over what he termed American inability to understand the bonds of friendly and constructive aims of the new Turkey.

"We are trying to modernize Turkey," he said, "and we want America's assistance. We believe in your disinterestedness."

Turkish delegates today prepared the way for Turkey's fight for abandonment of the special extra territorial privileges enjoyed by foreigners, by distributing copies of the famous "national pact."

Article VI. insists Turkey's complete independence is necessary for the country's national development and that every judicial and financial restriction imposed from without will be opposed.

Adrianople "Bone Dry" as Kemalists Enter

Adrianople, Nov. 27 (By the Associated Press).—The establishment of absolute prohibition was the first care of the Turks upon their entry into this city.

The measure, promulgated soon after the arrival of General Tahir Bey, the new Governor, impressed the population rather disagreeably, but all liquor had disappeared from the shops and restaurants shortly before the Kemalists came.

A vast crowd of veiled Turkish women thronged out of the city to greet the Kemalists, shouting "Long Live Kemal."

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE LOSE FAME

New York, Nov. 27.—Corned beef and cabbage today has lost its honors as the national dish. It lost by a neck to chicken, in the voting taken at the Hotel Exposition. Turkey gobbled up second place, pork and beans getting third.

WRECKED SAFE THAT YIELDED $6,000 LOOT

SCENES OF WASHINGTON STREET ROBBERY

Cracksmen who invaded the jewelry shop of Henken Brothers, No. 293 Washington street, ripped open the safe and escaped with $6,000 in diamonds, rings and other property. Police believe the job was done by amateurs.

WIFE, BROTHER AND HUSBAND IN KNIFE ROW

"A man is being murdered on the fifth floor at No. 1818 Washington street," screamed a woman's voice over the telephone to Police Station No. 5, East Dedham street, South End.

Patrolmen John Mulloy and Charles McCluskey, who responded in the patrol wagon, found Santa Loccia, of Harrison avenue on the fifth floor of the house bleeding from wounds in his face and head.

Mrs. Santa Sgallara

The patrolmen ran down to the fourth floor and broke open a door. Behind the door stood Anthony Sgallara, forty years old. A loaded revolver was in his hands.

On the floor in front of him was his wife, Camilla, five years his junior. There was an ugly bruise on her temple.

The police grabbed Sgallara, but as they did so he sank to the floor. Blood began to flow from his side. An inspection revealed three stab wounds.

Anthony Sgallara

Sgallara and his wife were taken to City Hospital. Nurses found a knife hidden in the dress of Mrs. Sgallara.

The couple were taken to the police station after their discharge at the hospital. The charge was assault with a dangerous weapon in both cases. Each denied the charge, however.

SICK EMPLOYES' BILL VETOED BY CURLEY

Mayor Curley today vetoed the order of the City Council, requesting him to petition for legislation which would enable the city to pay the wages of all employes for thirty days in case of absence on account of sickness.

According to the Mayor, the city employes at present, enjoy two weeks vacation with pay, have Saturday afternoon and all holidays off and also a pension of about 40 per cent. of their yearly pay.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

STATE PRISON AWAITS ESCAPED "TRUSTY"

Mesbed R. Abdullah, alias "Mike" George, the Serbian who escaped from Charlestown State Prison last April, only a few days before completing a sentence, will be brought back Wednesday from Yonkers, N. Y., where he was caught.

Abdullah, who was a "trusty," must now complete a former sentence of four years which he was serving when paroled in 1918. He was serving a later sentence of two and a half years for breaking and entering when he fled after a tussle with a guard while loading a freight car.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

DELAY START ON BRIDGE IN ALLSTON

Work on the new bridge across the tracks of the Boston & Albany Railroad, Cambridge street, Allston, will not be started before February, 1923, Mayor Curley announced today. The delay is caused by the failure of the Bethlehem and Carnegie Steel Companies to get cars to bring the steel to Boston.

PASTOR QUITS TO GIVE HIS FLOCK CHANCE

Rev. Charles H. Day of the Baptist Church of Watertown tendered his resignation to his parishioners through Rev. George Horr of Newton Theological School. Dr. Day, who has been in the parish seventeen years, asked that his resignation take effect on Feb. 28. He gave as his reason that "it was about time his parishioners heard a new voice and saw a new face." The deacons refused to accept his resignation.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

ELIMINATE SUICIDE IN MURDER MYSTERY

Concord, N. H., Nov. 27—Examination of articles taken from the cabin of Earl Hibbard of Orford, who committed suicide a few days after the killing of Arthur and Charles Davis, there, has revealed no traces of blood, State Chemist Charles D. Howard announced today. This finding virtually eliminates the possibility that Hibbard had any hand in the Davis murders, it was said.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

ORDERS BOOZE PROBE AT ARMY-NAVY GAME

Washington, Nov. 27.—Despite a denial by James E. Jones, acting Federal prohibition director, that there were violations of the Volstead Act during the Army-Navy football game at Philadelphia on Saturday, Secretary of the Navy Denby today ordered an investigation to find the source of the liquor said to have been consumed in large quantities.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

SCIDMORE, CONSUL AT YOKOHAMA, DIES

Tokio, Nov. 27 (By the Associated Press).—George H. Scidmore, consul general of the United States at Yokohama, died there today.

He suffered a slight attack of apoplexy during the visit of the Prince of Wales to Yokohama. Since then his health has been precarious. He was born at Dubuque, Iowa, in 1854.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

HARDING URGES NEAR EAST DAY ON SUNDAY

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Harding today appealed to the Governors of all States and the Mayors of municipalities to set aside and observe next Sunday as Near East Emergency Day.

—Give How to Christmas Basket Fund—

TRAIN KILLS FOUR IN ONE FAMILY

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 27.—Percy Crosby, his wife and two children were killed here this afternoon when a railroad train demolished their automobile at a crossing.

Telegraph Briefs

Toronto.—Representative Cooper of Youngstown, Ohio, a member of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, declares "that organized workers of the United States will never hoist the beer keg as their emblem."

Chicago.—Eugene V. Debs in first public speech since leaving Atlanta Penitentiary says he would choose to be in jail with self-respect than to be free and gagged.

Lockport, N. Y.—Two persons may die from the effects of escaping coal gas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Conley, both sixty years old.

arden City, N. Y.—In accordance with War Department plans to make this the centre for army polo, construction work was begun today on three playing fields at Mitchel Field.

Middleport, O.—A slide of rock from a mountain, containing several thousand tons, demolished the coal tipple, power plants and shops of the Clifton Coal Company at Clifton, W. Va. The damage is estimated at $50,000.

Filene's Automatic Bargain BASEMENT

Choose EARLY where the automatic plan helps choose wisely—TUESDAY

women's satin, velours or serge dresses could you buy the materials for $5?

Brown satin with silk braid $5

SOME LAST SEASON DRESSES in lot.

36 styles—attractive trimmings, gold colors, wool embroidery, braid, hand embroidery, etc.—sizes 16 to 48 in lot.

$5

FIRST LOW prices or the automatic plan forces prices down—

½ off after 12 selling days, ½ off after 18 selling days, ¼ off after 24 selling days, goods given away after 30 selling days.

HUNDREDS OF OTHER LOTS—NO MAIL ORDERS

Keep That Cold Away

You need not "catch" a cold if you keep your bowels regulated and your intestinal tract free from accumulating poisons.

EX-LAX

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

The Sweet Chocolate Laxative

makes your liver and bowels act as nature intended they should. A dainty chocolate confection and laxative combined.

10c, 25c and 50c. Druggists everywhere

GILCHRIST CO

TUESDAY

MERCHANTS TRADING STAMP

MERCHANTS TRADING STAMP

Double Legal Stamps

This means a 5% Discount on every dollar you spend here, in addition to the savings which our Low Prices offer.

GILCHRIST CO

THE WEATHER

Boston and Vicinity: Snow or rain tonight and Tuesday; not much change in temperature; fresh east and northeast winds. Sun rises at 6:46; sets at 4:42.

Moon sets at 12 midnight.

High tide at 3:09 a. m.; 3:30 p. m.

Temperature: Maximum, 50 at 4 p. m. Minimum, 34 at 7 a. m.; average 39.

Light all vehicles at 4:40 p. m.

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

BOSTON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1922

COMPLETE STOCKS NIGHT

TIERNAN TRIES TO UNTIE SECOND LOVE KNOT

Today

Money—Watch Mussolini

Balfour Believes in God

Old Faith is a Comfort

Prefers Death to Prison

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright, 1922, Star Company.)

THE ITALIAN Parliament, tired of debts, of worries, interior and exterior, makes Mussolini dictator of all Italy from now to the end of 1923. A man who always says "step aside and watch ME do it," appeals to a weary people.

AMERICANS THAT think the intelligence represented by money should control government should watch Mussolini. He will make experiments that our plutocracy would like to make. We may learn much from him—perhaps how to avoid mistakes.

Mussolini's stand against government ownership will interest us, especially as Mussolini is a reformed Socialist leader. He says:

"We are done with government railways, government employment agencies, government insurance. We leave to the state its police powers, to protect honest citizens from robbers and criminals; we leave it the control of the schools, to train our coming generations; we leave it the army, to protect the territories of the fatherland inviolate; and we leave it the control of foreign policy."

SINCE HE said that, Mussolini has made himself Italy's foreign policy, and has talked wisely to America and Russia. A firm hand inside and good friends outside is his plan.

The world will watch him carefully, especially that part of the world hating anything labelled "radicalism."

However, Mussolini is not all perfect, according to our reactionaries. He compels farmers and manufacturers to hire more workmen, to supply employment. When he finds an industrialist with a big bank balance, he tells him, "Take that money from the bank and put men to work." He accepts no excuse, such as "I can make more lending my money at interest than using it to hire labor."

THE WORLD is trying many experiments, in Italy, Russia, Ireland, Turkey, and even here, where certain Senators, led by Capper, actually presume to put railroad dividends below the welfare of farmers and other workers.

When Mussolini's government comes to an end—which it will, and quite probably before the end of 1923, the world will have learned something about REACTIONARY revolution, just as it has learned about RADICAL revolution from Russia. Who ever tries to make the world over, according to a plan patented by himself, finds trouble in the end. Human government grows slowly, with gradual changes. It does not go upstairs, three steps at a time, for long.

LORD BALFOUR drops politics occasionally to lecture on religion or science. He says it is preposterous and false philosophy to believe in a purely naturalistic origin of the universe.

Morality, religion, beauty and the highest achievements of the intellect, he says truly and tritely, can not be explained by mere evolution. Voltaire put it more concisely. "If there had been no God it would have been necessary to invent one."

THE trouble is that when you begin EXPLAINING cosmic things, no theory helps you. No "fortuitous concourse of atoms" could possibly explain the smile of a mother contemplating a

Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

Where Watchful Eyes Find Focus

The "Lost and Found" Ads in The Boston American are faithfully followed by those who unfortunately lose and those who fortunately find. If you are the loser, do not fail to employ one of those swift, silent messengers. It's the surest method of insuring an early return.

It is important not to waste a moment after you have discovered your loss. Write a description of the missing article immediately, telling as nearly as you can where it might have been found. Then leave the ad with or

Telephone It to The

Boston American

Main 5100

MOVES TO DIVORCE WIFE NO. 2

Berated by First Spouse After Marrying Second, They Are Now Reconciled

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 27. (By International News Service).—Professor John P. Tiernan today was to begin action in South Bend that he hopes will unrangle the legal web entangling himself and his two "wives."

He will first attempt to annul his marriage of Saturday to Mrs. Blanche Brimmer of Iowa. Possibly by tonight he will be possessed of only one wife, Mrs. Augusta Tiernan, whose sensational paternity charges against Harry Poulin, South Bend haberdasher first brought the amazing domestic tangle before the public.

His second wife was left in Chicago by the professor, who told her to clear up the legality of her marriage to him. Tiernan having learned that she was in doubt as to the face of her second husband. The professor "came home."

Mrs. Augusta Tiernan, his first wife, and central figure in the Poulin paternity case, awaited him at the station. She passed the platform in a manner that might be compared to a tigress. When the train had stopped and her husband had alighted she wheeled on him. For ten minutes she poured out a torrent of abuse.

Tiernan, his sternness melted, looked on dazed. His eyes were feverish. Throughout the tirade he remained mute and forlorn. He offered no excuses but begged only to be taken back.

Mrs. Tiernan's fury spent, the two took a taxicab and returned to the Tiernan home.

Later they announced that they had become completely reconciled.

Amazing Tangles in Life of Tiernan's Second Wife

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Blanche Hawn Rash Brimmer, second wife of John P. Tiernan, possesses a marital status at least as tangled as that of her husband for a day.

When she was sixteen years old, eight years ago, she eloped with Floyd L. Nash, Marshalltown banker, from the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Hawn, then of Ardale, Iowa.

Four days after receiving a notice that Rash had sued for divorce she said, she married Arthur H. Brimmer at Oskaloosa, Iowa, only to learn still later that Rash had not obtained a final decree when she married Brimmer.

Nothing was done about the matter, she said, but she and Brimmer came to Chicago where she became a check girl in a Chinese restaurant. While here she learned Brimmer then was being sued for divorce by an earlier wife, whereupon she returned home, but rejoined Brimmer later at Kansas City, Mo. He disappeared there, she said, and his brother informed her Brimmer was dead.

Replying to a question regarding still another romance, Mrs. Brimmer said she had not married the man named, but that she met him in Mason City, Iowa, gone to Clear Lake, Iowa, and from there to his home in Uniontown, Pa., where his mother told her he was married and the father of a child. The man's mother paid her way back home, Mrs. Brimmer said.

Shortly thereafter she became interested in the Tiernan-Poulin paternity case and began the penciled correspondence with Professor Tiernan, which led to their meeting here last Thursday night, their first sight of each other with two attempts to be married in Illinoine before their successful effort at Crown Point, Ind.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

GETS DEATH SENTENCE SLAYER BOWS HEAD

New York, Nov. 27.—Ray Pendleton Smith, part Indian and convicted slayer of his wife Rose, bowed his head, but said nothing today when sentenced to die in Sing Sing's electric chair. He remained calm. The court refused to defer sentence on legality grounds.

How a Cornfed Iowa Beauty Lured Prof. Tiernan Into Making a Fool of Himself

Reams of Letters Written to the Man Who Married Her and Fled

Chicago, Nov. 27.—The world must want to know how a cornfed beauty in an Iowa village, with no tools but the stub of a led pencil, managed by mail to charm a college professor into making a fool of himself.

The letters of Mrs. Blanche Hawn Rash Brimmer to Professor John P. Tiernan, who came from Notre Dame to Chicago and married her, only to flee his bargain within the round of the clock, illuminate the subject distinctly.

Not the losing his first wife gave him at the station in South Bend when he returned to her, nor the petting with which she crowned it, held half the passion nor a fraction of the tenderness expressed by Blanche in her long-distance wooing.

The professor was won—quite impermanently, to be sure, but won nevertheless—by a line of letters that if bound would bulk the size of Webster's Unabridged. She wrote two or three a day, and all were long. Somes ran into thousands of words.

Ah, those words. How she could hang them together. Religion and rough stuff, advice to stick by his family and red hot allurements to quit them poured upon the poor pedagogue in an appalling torrent. Better men than Tiernan might have fallen for this:

"I have plenty. Money has no attraction whatever. I just want to love my man until it hurts."

Used a — For Hell

Still she was a girl who wouldn't write out hell. She used a dash. In the same letter, however, she would insist that she was the distant professor's chattel to come and get "body and soul."

She told him she had been him once, three years ago, from a car window—that he had been pointed out to her as "the famous Professor Tiernan," and that from that time she had loved him superlatively. Never in the miles of correspondence did she explain why she hadn't spilled the boiling honey of her penciled passion upon his troubled head, until the paternity of one of his wife's children became a question in court.

Incidentally the letters of Blanche bring a boon to that portion of humanity that has to have novelty to live. Why need the tit-for-tatters and the cartoon boys continue to ring changes on "sheik" and "cave man," when a Sears-Roebucking siren in a town with one store provides them with this.

Her First Letter

When Blanche started the whole thing, on October 29, she addressed John almost formally.

"Dear friend," she began, and informed him among other things that: "I have had two opportunities to go into lyceum work as I play the harp and sing—or rather bluff folks into thinking I can do both."

On November 6, after having received a reply from the professor she addressed him: "Dear Man O'Mine." The plot was getting warm.

"I am a very passionate person," she informed him.

But in the next paragraph she got down to cold business, thus:

"Young man, you are thinking wholly of yourself. Suppose you succeed in winning my love. And then something happens and you go back to your wife. What of I and my empty life? Did you think of that? I'd not be selfish. For if you found you could live with her, I'd wish you joy and happiness. But just the same I'd suffer."

Judges might be found who would say it wasn't quite fair for Blanche to write in her next letter:

Professor "Fell"

"I am 5 feet 5 inches tall, dark wavy hair, very blue eyes and a medium complexion. I weigh 118 pounds, have small feet and hands. I guess that's all, only I love golf, music, tennis, etc. Rest of all. I care for a wonderful man in the East that's worth risking 'character' for."

This sort of thing evidently got a rise out of the professor, for he answered it. In return he was called "Dear man o' my dreams," and was told she would be glad if he became reconciled with his wife and "again embarked on the sea of matrimony, even if it's in a patched canoe."

Explaining why she chose—at that moment—to hold him as a dream lover, she wrote: "I'd be afraid to love you as a reality. For then I'd be as all true women are. I'd begin to long for you and your arms, to be caressed and to caress you. Oh, I'm so truly feminine when it comes to love."

It may not have made a bit of difference to the professor when he decided to come to Chicago and marry the yet unseen girl, but this passage from a letter she wrote November 8 might have prompted the big Iowa idea:

"Grandpa left 640 acres of Iowa land, well improved, having running water, furnaces heat and also lights (electric). Then two good properties in Marshalltown. This is estimated at $240,000. What am I going to do with it when I get it? Arthur and I married in 1916 and my life has been —— since, for he always wanted my money and we couldn't get it until I was twenty-eight. I think he cared for me, only for that. His folks died three years ago and left him well fixed. Of course, I got that when he died."

Man's Needed Nuisance

Rambling along in the letter Blanche may or may have not hit a nail or something or other on the head when she penciled:

"I guess I miss waiting on a man, for they are a sort of a needed nuisance. They are always forgetting something or losing it, and I guess that's what I miss in keeping house. I might be some one's housekeeper if I didn't value my reputation."

On November 8 she wrote him: "Dear Man o' My Dreams, such you are and going to remain. I have fully decided to treat this whole thing as a dream. If I can do any good, I'll be oh so glad, and I believe it will do me worlds of good to help bear another's sorrows, as I am so alone in the world and nothing to do but wait for the time to pass. I am going to write to you just as if you were my really and truly Prince Charming and always think of you as just a dream; then if some day you and Augusta's wounds heal and you can again embark on the sea of matrimony, I'll be glad even if it's in a patched canoe. Perhaps it will be the better for the patches, because I know myself so well, John, that I'm afraid to love you as a reality, for then I'd be as all true women are. I'd begin to long for you and your arms, to be caressed and to caress you.

"Afraid to Have You."

"Oh, I'm so truly feminine when it comes to love. Daddy used to say he surely pitied the man I fell in love with, but would feel more sorry if he left me, for I'm just like my mother and Dad says she was the most wonderful lover in the world and that's why he never married again. He is afraid it wouldn't be the same. So my dear, I'm afraid to love you, for if I did I'd demand all of you, with no one else having any claim. I'd want you to love and take care of me and there are a heap of other things that go with the man I'll love. So let's close that chapter and each care for the other just as if it was a dream. Is it a bargain?

"We would need never to meet either and I'll write you just as if I loved you in reality, when it will only be dreams of you I love. Be good, but I know you will be, but most of all be careful as the eyes of the world are focussed on all of your movements, and think twice before you leap, and remember always regardless of the world and its gossip, I love you, and have for eight year and will be true as steel always till you release me from my promise to remain true.

"I wish with all my heart we might meet and spend Christmas together in Chicago. I have lots of

Photo by International News Reel

MRS. TIERNAN AND THE BABY

This is the youngster whose parentage was disputed in court. Mrs. Tiernan, the baby's mother, claimed Harry Poulin, and not her teacher husband, is the father of the child. She lost the case. Mrs. Tiernan is holding the youngster.

Religion and Rough Stuff Are Mixed in Epistles That He Finally Fell For friends there and money is no great object with me. I have plenty, but am not a millionaire, but I'd love to have you meet me, if possible. Now, please, dear, forget that hideous past. I too suffered, as you did but I refused to live with him, for if he did not love me before he committed crime and brought his crime home, then certainly he would never love me afterward, but just indulge again in first attractive person came along.

Friendly Advice

But, thank God, he died before we were divorced, and all has blown over. So it will be with you. If you do not love her, forget it, don't let a fickle woman ruin your career and life. Throw it off as a wet coat and think of your future and the ladder you are climbing round by round.

"Think of your two children, but, John, dear, be a man and never take them by force from their mother. God gave them to her and you, but she suffered for them and they may help hold her steady. Please, dear, for my sake, promise you'll never do that.

"Well, my love, I must close as you are already tired of reading this, but always you are and will be my 'Saka Wawin,' so be careful. I trust and have faith in our wonderful, wonderful man.

"Yours always."

Again on November 8 she wrote:

"I have a very serious case of blues. My pal, Dr. Roeder, got into trouble, and I had such faith in him and his goodness. (Are you all alike?) He has asked me the all-important question dozens of times, but I can't marry without love, not if he were made of gold. I have plenty. Money has no attraction whatever. I just want to love my man till it hurts.

Giving a Left

"Well, Dr. Roeder went with a kid, nineteen years old. Now she is to be a mother, and he refused to marry her because she had gone with another man. Yesterday morning when that young man was here I took him to task and asked if she were not the father of her unborn child. He said he guessed he was, but wasn't sure.

"I surely did talk to him, and finally he said he had no funds to marry her, as he already owes me for office instruments and chairs. I told him if he would marry her at once, I'd furnish the home of four rooms out of the rent of the farm for this year. It's going to make me a little hard up, but I'll be giving a babe and its daddy and a fallen girl a lift. Please don't think less of me, John. I can't help doing those things. Thank God I can say with clean heart I never had a man touch me without the right. I have never lost my birthright.

"I am now supporting one of my husband's illegitimate children. She is a very dear child, but always think of the awful days and nights of misery I suffered conquering my hate for she and mother, but I overcame it. It is only right she should have some of the father's estate.

"John, when I write to you it makes me feel queer. While I do care for you, I hate to write to a married man. I guess my conscience hurts me. But I'll try it a while longer. Now please write. I want to hear from you too. If I write daily, you can write at least three times a week. I surely wish you were closer. I can talk more interesting than I can write, but till I see you, don't forget I have faith in you and know you'll do the right thing at the right time and you have all the love of a clean woman in the hollow of your hand to crush or let live, for I love you and seem day I'll tell you where I fell for you, then you'll remember, too.

"God keep my man safe and well always."

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

DEAD IN BOOZE PARTY

Woman Dies After South Boston Affair; Husband Is Made Seriously Ill

One dead, one dying is the toll of a home-made hootch party in South Boston.

The dead person, discovered today, is Mrs. Lizzie Carlston, forty-five, of No. 276 West Fourth street. Her husband, Carence, fifty, is on the danger list at the City Hospital, unable to give an account of what happened.

The police are searching for a woman guest of the Carlstons, who came to their flat shortly before noon Sunday morning, and who was seen to leave at 3 o'clock this morning.

HAD PLANNED PARTY.

It was thought at first that Mrs. Carlston had come to her death as the result of fumes from a gas stove which was burning in the bedroom, where the woman and her husband, both fully dressed, were found early today. No windows were open and it was thought that all the oxygen had been burned.

It was known in advance that the Carlstons were planning a party.

Mrs. Josephine Tuttilolk, who lives on the second floor of the three-story building, told of having had a conversation with Mrs. Carlston Saturday night.

"She was intoxicated at the time. She told me she was going to have a party on Sunday, and sort of apologized in advance for any noise that she might make, Mrs. Tuttilolk said. "The Carlstons frequently had parties, and some of them were very noisy, so I wasn't surprised at the strange request not to mind the noise."

Shortly before noon the next day the woman caller of the Carlstons appeared. She is described as being a woman of about forty-five years of age, tall, dressed in dark clothing and a picture hat. She carried a parcel.

At 6 o'clock Mrs. Evelyn Kover, the landlady, called on the Carlstons. She knocked at the door. There was no response. She let herself in with a pass key.

Mrs. Carlston and her husband were on the bed. She was dead. He was unconscious.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

SENATORS EJECT NEGRO "HECKLER"

Washington, Nov. 27.—The Senate was plunged into a turmoil this afternoon, when a negro in the galleries attempted to heckle Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, of Nebraska, during a renewal of his attack on the alleged use of "black troops" on the Rhine by the French.

The heckler was ejected after Senator Heflin of Alabama insisted upon his removal over the protests of Senators Curtis of Kansas and Reed of Pennsylvania, who said he had merely acted from "ignorance" of the rules.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

NAMES OF 150 GIRLS IN SLAIN MAN'S BOOK

Chicago, Nov. 28.—"The love angle" in the mysterious slaying of Joseph (Handsome Joe) Ianus, wealthy automobile dealer, came to the front again today when police announced the discovery among his personal effects of a book containing the names and addresses of 150 women. Detectives interviewed some of the women.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

PROTEST ON BUTLER FOR SUPREME COURT

Washington, Nov. 27.—Protests against the appointment of Pierce Butler, St. Paul lawyer, to the United States Supreme Court caused the Senate Judiciary Committee to hold up its report on the nomination today.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

EX-SENATE PRESIDENT A. S. PINKERTON DIES

Alfred S. Pinkerton of Worcester, a former president of the Massachusetts Senate and Past Grand Sire of the Odd Fellows of the World, died today at Forest Hills Hospital. He was sixty-seven years old.

HYLAN IN WAR ON KU KLUX

New York Mayor Opens Drive to Stamp Out Society as "Menace to Nation"

By Cosmopolitan News Service.

New York, Nov. 27.—Mayor Hylan picked up the gauge of battle flung down by the cohorts of the Ku Klux Klan, the moment he resumed his official duties today upon his return from his vacation in Chicago and French Lick Springs.

"The Ku Klux Klan is an enemy and a conspiracy against law and order. I won't have it in New York."

Defiant in the face of police, Federal officials and ministerial and rabinical opposition, leaders of the Klan insisted they would conduct their biggest membership drive here in the next two weeks. The Rev. Dr. Oscar Haywood, organizer of the Klan, expects to meet Kligrapp Kleagle Major E. D. Smith of Buffalo and the Rev. Dr. Sam Campbell to "sow the seed" for the Klan in this city.

Jewish leaders are entering the fight on the Klan with great vigor.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

HARDING TO ASK HELP FOR FARMERS

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Harding's message to the regular session of Congress, which opens a week from today, will be devoted chiefly to discussion of three critical domestic problems—agricultural relief, the transportation problem and enforcement of prohibition laws—it was learned today.

Those who have discussed with Mr. Harding the framework of his message predict it will be the "most progressive" presentation Mr. Harding has delivered to the Congress. "Regular" Republicans have no intention of allowing Senator La Follette's personally-conducted progressive conference, which meets here soon, to run away with the progressive thought of the country.

57

Just right!

Just the thing for emergencies. And just as good for regular every-day meals. Always appetizing, always wholesome, always convenient, always economical. Prepared in the Heinz spotless kitchens, after the recipe of a famous Italian chef.

HEINZ Spaghetti

Ready cooked, ready to serve

EARTH TREMORS FELT IN FOUR STATES

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—Considerable property damage was caused by earth tremors of moderate intensity in Eastern Missouri, Southern Illinois, Western Indiana and Northwestern Kentucky last night.

The tremors shook buildings and homes, toppled chimneys from residences, broke windows, knocked chinaware from shelves and frightened residents in part of four States, the reports said.

Evansville, Ind., and Mattoon, East St. Louis, Benton, Clinton and Eldorado, Ill., and points in the northwestern part of Kentucky reported feeling the tremors about 9:30 o'clock. The tremors also were noticeable in St. Louis.

—the How to Christmas Basket Fund—

BOATS CRASH, 31 DEAD, IN ARGENTINE RIVER

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Nov. 27. (By the Associated Press.)—Thirty-four lives were lost in a collision today between a launch and a ferry boat in the Parana River, near Zarate, northwest of Buenos Aires.

SEES 'NATION OF HYPOCRITES' IN DRY REGIME

Philadelphia, Nov. 27.—"Either we ought to enforce the prohibition law or we ought to stop talking about enforcement and come out openly against it," declared Senator David A. Reed of Pennsylvania today.

"Most politicans," he said, "dodge on the question of enforcement as long as they can; then they declare themselves in favor of strict adherence to the law. But they do not back up that statement by action. That is hypocrisy, and there is no other word for it.

"Men talk sanctimoniously of prohibition and then wink at open violations of the law. Nobody thinks of attempting real enforcement. The support given the enforcement attempt is not in good faith, and everybody knows it.

"We ought to be as manly about this matter as we are in sporting and business matters. We ought to quit being hypocritical and get a little fair play into our attitude on prohibition.

"I do not want to be misunderstood. I am not seeking to take the lead of any faction for or against prohibition. I believe I can be of more value in other work. But I do think we ought to quit being hypocrites."

Public Robbed of $250,000,000 in Coal Annually

New York, Nov. 27.—"Eighty per cent. of the nation's poor are robbed of hundreds of thousands of dollars annually through short weight."

This resolution, adopted by the directors and executive committee of the National Association of Retail Coal Merchants, estimates the robbery at $250,000,000 annually.

The resolution says some dealers "deliver 1,500 pounds, instead of a ton. If coal is $16 a ton, the customer is robbed of $4."

2 COUNCILLORS TO FACE PROBE TOMORROW

City Councilmen David J. Brickley and William J. Welsh, accused in the Finance Commission's graft probe, will take the stand in their own behalf tomorrow, when the hearing will be resumed.

Both men, through their attorneys, have assured the commission they will be present. They declared they have nothing to conceal, that they did not accept any graft and will prove it before the board.

Chairman Sullivan today declared that in all probability the evidence will be complete tomorrow and a finding made Wednesday. Whether Councillors Moriarty and Donoghue will be called will depend on developments of the case tomorrow.

—the How to Christmas Basket Fund—

100 COLLEGE PRIESTS DRIVEN OUT BY FIRE

New York, Nov. 27.—Fire early today destroyed the radio rooms and chemical laboratory at St. John's College, Brooklyn. One hundred priests were driven from quarters by the flames. The damage was estimated at $100,000.

JAILED "DOPE KING" FIGURES IN WARD CASE

New York, Nov. 27.—Information has come to the Federal authorities that Charles H. Rogers, who started last week for the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta to serve a year and a day for the sale of narcotics, is the mysterious "Rogers, alias Charley Ross," who figured in the Ward case.

"Rogers" or "Ross" was named by Walter S. Ward as chief of the blackmail ring whose extortions led to the killing of the penniless executive, Clarence Peters, last Spring.

Rogers was one of the drug peddlers arrested in the raid by Federal Director Oyler's squad upon the Hotel Longacre on September 7 last.

Searching inquiry into the master drug peddler's career by Oyler's men has disclosed:

That Rogers supplied many leading figures in New York social and theatrical life, with drugs, frequently as "Jack Ross," a name often mentioned in the Ward case.

That he has operated with "Dapper Dan" Collins, "two-gun" man and regarded as one of the most desperate blackmailers in the country.

That he once was bookmaker on race tracks, in a position to make the acquaintance of Walter S. Ward, and observed the young baiting company millionaire both on the track and in the circles which Ward frequented in the city at night.

In addition, recent reports received from narcotic agents who have investigated Rogers' associates in various parts of the country, support the belief that the man, whose number is 7,717 in the New York Rogues Gallery, knew Walter Ward.

—the How to Christmas Basket Fund—

ASSAILANT SHIELDED BY MAN HE STABBED

Stabbed in the hand and jaw after a row at Springfield and Washington streets, South End, Jack Harvey, thirty-three years old, of No. 238 West Canton street, shielded his assailant and refused to divulge his name to the police of East Dedham Street station.

Harvey walked into the City Hospital with John Murphy of No. 23 School street, Dorchester. The latter denied being a participant in the fight. Harvey was treated for lacerations of the left hand and jaw and was found to be suffering from alcoholism.

Harvey is a taxi driver and it is believed that the fight resulted from a dispute over a fare.

—the How to Christmas Basket Fund—

Bail Wife Who Shot Cop

Katherine J. Mealy, who shot her husband, Frank, ex-Boston policeman, today waived examination in Brookline court and was released in bail of $1,000 for the grand jury. Mrs. Mealy shot her husband at her place of employment, No. 124 Babcock street, Brookline, when he came to see her.

Radio Program

7 A. M.—"Before Breakfast Setups," Mr. Arthur E. Batt of Caines College of Physical Culture.
7:7:20—Toning-up exercises for business men. 7:20-7:40—Weight-reducing exercises. 7:40-8—Weight-increasing exercises. A short talk follows the work out.
9:30—Musical program.
10:30—Official forecast U. S. Weather Bureau (485 meters).
11:30—Music.
1:30 P. M.—Boston Farmers' Produce Market Report. Agriograms (485 meters). U. S. official weather forecast.
3:00—1. Mid-afternoon news broadcast, furnished by Boston American. 2. Musical program.
6:00—Market report, U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Brighton Livestock Market, Fruits and Vegetables Market, Dairy and Produce Market, Chicago Livestock Market (485 meters).
6:15—1. Boston police reports. 2. Late news flashes, early sport news, Boston American. 3. World market survey, U. S. Department of Commerce.
6:45—"The Work of a Leaf," Fred Dayton Lambert, A. M., Phd., professor of botany, Tufts College, sixty-eighth Tufts College radio lecture.

WNAC, BOSTON

1:55 A. M.—Time Signals from Arlington.
4:00 P. M.—Dance Music, Orchestra.
4:30—Selections on Pianola. Dance Music, Orchestra; Selections on Victrola.

WJZ, NEWARK

5:45 P. M.—Resume of sporting events.
6:00.—Business and Industrial Conditions.
7:30.—Stories.
8:30.—"Forecasting Business Conditions."
9:45.—Recital by Hilda Goodwin, soprano.
9:15—"Money and Other Commodities."
9:30.—The 540th Mayor Hylan's Concert by the Police Band. City of New York. Philip Mercolsheimer, City Chamberlain, will give a short talk.
Program: "Queen of Sheba;" "Wine, Woman and Song;" "Hungarish Dances Nos. 5 and 6." Soprano solos by Core Chase of the Metropolitan Opera, Walter Kiesewetter at the piano; "Tallbo," "Farewell," and "Winds of the South." Baritone solo by George Bimerlein, patrolman.

KDKA, EAST PITTSBURG.

7:00 P. M.—News. Business Conditions. Radio articles.
7:30.—Bedtime Story.
8:00.—Addresses by business men.
8:30.—Concert by KDKA Symphony Orchestra, with soloists.

R. H. White Co.

Mail Orders Filled—Boston 8 — Telephone Orders Filled—Beach 3100

Tuesday and Wednesday

Satin Hats $3.75

Smart styles, trimmed with pins, ornaments, fur, metallic effects. Black, brown and other desirable colors.

Second Floor, North

Tuesday and Wednesday

Men's Brushed Wool Mufflers, $1.25

Camel hair color, brown, gray and heather mixtures.

Street Floor

Tuesday and Wednesday

Women's Velveteen Dresses $12.50

The dress illustrated is a straight-line style, trimmed with ribbon and novelty buttons, tie belt.

Other styles with flat silk braid or novelty colored braid, fancy vests and colored facings.

"Ready-Made" Dress Dept., Second Floor

Tuesday and Wednesday

Men's Beacon Blanket Bathrobes, $5.95

Made lounging robe style, cord trimmed.

Men's Clothing, Second Floor, Mezzanine

Tuesday and Wednesday

Silk Jersey Top Petticoats, $2.65

Jersey top, with taffeta flounce. The favored changeable colors.

Second Floor

Tuesday and Wednesday

Boys' Black Rubber Coats With Double Back $2.59

Sizes 4 to 18 years.

Double back with ventilation holes. The ventilation prevents the dampness caused by perspiration, which often makes boys think the coat has wet through.

Air holes under sleeves for ventilation.

Our guarantee: A new coat for one that cracks, peels or wets through.

Boys' Heavy Black Rubber Hats 59c

All sizes, Sou'wester style, strapped and cemented. Guaranteed just like the coat.

Boys' Own Store, Second Floor

Tuesday and Wednesday

Women's Colored Linen Handkerchiefs

Box of 3 75c

Embroidered corners, ¼-inch hemstitched hems.

Men's Japanese Silk Crepe Handkerchiefs, 25c

Colored borders.

Street Floor

Tuesday and Wednesday

Heavy Terry Toweling

5 yards for $1.00

20 inches wide, double thread bleached Turkish bath toweling.

Hemmed Cotton Flannel Diapers

6 for $1.00

27x27 inches, durable, absorbent, heavy sanitary quality.

Fancy Cotton Outing Flannel

8 yards for $1.00

27 inches wide, light or dark colorings.

Hemmed Bath Towels

6 for $1.00

Bleached bath towels with blue borders, very absorbent.

Hemstitched Pillow Cases

4 for $1.00

Splendid fine quality, 42x36 inches.

Hemmed Table Cloths

$1.00 each

Size 72x63 inches, made from heavy bleached mercerized damask.

Third Floor, South

Tuesday and Wednesday

Hand Crochet Lace Edges 95c yd.

1½ to 2 inches wide.

Street Floor

Tuesday and Wednesday

Hot Water Bottles $1.39

1-qt. size. All rubber. Guaranteed one year.

Walnut Room, Street Floor

Tuesday and Wednesday

Alarm Clocks 85c

Bell on top. Long alarm. Nickel plated case.

Walnut Room, Street Floor

R. H. WHITE CO.

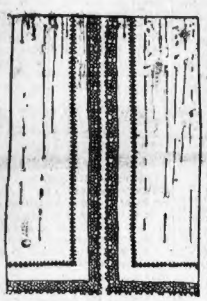
All Charge Purchases During November Will Be Entered on Bill Rendered January 1st

Jordan Marsh Company
Great Basement Store

Our Great Basement Store Is Now in Complete Readiness to Fill Your Christmas Needs.

Good value demonstrations in new winter home furnishings

At Prices You Are Sure to Appreciate



Attractive, Durable, Hand-Drawn

Etamine Curtains, 2.50

As illustrated on the left, with dainty lace borders and one row of neat hand-drawn work.

Irish Point Lace Curtains, with dainty border patterns..... 3.98

Ruffled Crossbar Curtains, full narrow ruffle, deep flounce and tiebacks..... 1.25

Marquisette Curtains, Dutch style, with neat lace edge..... 1.49

Ruffled Marquisette Curtains, hemstitched band and tiebacks..... 98c

Curtain Muslin, 36 inches wide, choice of dots and figures. Yard..... 29c

Figured Cretonnes, full line of designs and colors. Yard..... 19c

Tapestry Couch Covers, full width; Oriental design..... 6.95

Drapery Damask, 50-inch, reversible; brown, green and blue..... 2.50

Overdrape Madras, in a full line of colors. Yard..... 59c

Armure Portieres, reversible; variety of plain colors. Pair..... 3.98

Excellent value in Bleached Linen

Dinner Cloths

size 2x2½ yards to seat 8 people 7.50

22-Inch Napkins, to match above cloth. Dozen..... 6.75

Mercerized Damask Table Cloths, (cotton) hemmed ready for use:
Size 2x2 yards..... 2.50
Size 2x2½ yards..... 2.98

22-Inch Hemmed Napkins, to match above cloths. Dozen.... 3.00

Mercerized Table Damask (cotton), heavy quality; good design. Yard..... 85c

21-Inch Napkins, to match above damask. Dozen..... 2.50

Mercerized Cotton Table Cloths, 2 yds. long. In three good designs. 2.25

2000 Bleached

Sheets

at this very moderate price

1.19

Made with centre seam. Mill size 84x90 inches.

Bleached Sheets

Seconds of a well known make, in these four good sizes.

Size 63x99..... 1.39
Size 81x90..... 1.49
Size 81x99..... 1.59
Size 90x99..... 1.79

Bleached Pillow Cases, good quality, size 42x36 inches. Each..... 25c

Royal Wilton SEAMLESS

Rugs 59.50

Size 9x12 feet

With a heavy, closely woven pile, choice variety of designs and colors.

Royal Axminster Rugs, seamless; deep heavy pile. In Oriental and allover designs.
Size 9x12..... 58.50
Size 8.3x10.6... 54.50

Wilton Velvet Rugs, seamless; excellent designs and colors in soft tone effects.
Size 9x12..... 42.50
Size 8.3x10.6... 37.50

White, Wool and Cotton

Blankets 4.50 pr.

Fine quality, warm blankets, with pink and blue borders. Size 66x80 inches.

White Blankets

Heavy quality Twilled Bed Blankets, extra size with pink or blue borders. Pair, 3.45

Bed Comfortables

Stitched Comfortables, white cotton filled, in medium colorings. Size 72x80 in., 2.75

CAN'T KEEP SANE LOCKED UP, DR. KLINE SAYS

Dr. George M. Kline, State Commissioner of Mental Diseases, declared in an address before the Women's Auxiliary of the Massachusetts Civil Service Reform Association today that it is impossible for any sane person to be kept in an institution for the insane in this State by the collusion of doctors and relatives of the patients.

This was the only veiled reference Dr. Kline made to the famous Dorothy Gordon case. He made the assertion in answer to a question from the floor. Discussing this phase he said:

"Theoretically, it is possible a sane person might be committed to one of our institutions, but it is impossible that he or she could stay there more than a few days. We would soon discover, through observation of the patient, any such attempt at false commitment.

"There is nothing to the popular idea that a sane person would become insane by constant association with mental defectives," Dr. Kline said.

He admitted a patient with an incipient type of mental disease might become worse through such an association, but said care is taken in the grading of patients that such persons do not come in contact with one another.

Dr. Kline said prohibition has done little to curtail the number of insane cases due to excessive use of intoxicants.

"Before prohibition," he continued, "the cases of insanity in this State caused by liquor averaged 12 per cent. of all cases. Shortly after the enactment of the Volstead Act the percentage was cut down to three per cent. Since then it has gradually climbed until this year it is averaging nine per cent.

"These cases for the most part, he said, were among persons who did not drink before the prohibition era.

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

N. Y. BUILDING LOCKOUT WILL AFFECT 125,000

New York, Nov. 27.—The Mason Builders' Association today issued a lockout order to its 125 members, ordering them to pay off all bricklayers employed by them at 5 o'clock tomorrow as a protest against the bricklayers' refusal to work with independent laborers.

The lockout, officials agreed, would affect about 60,000 workers in the building trades in the metropolitan district immediately and would render idle 65,00 more within a month.

The lockout was caused, Mr. Norman said, by the interference of union men with non-union workers. The Bricklayers' Union, he declared, recently authorized sporadic strikes in cases where workers not affiliated with the Central Union were employed. The employers took action, he said, when the union men refused to abandon the calling of these strikes.

About one billion dollars in construction work in the metropolitan area may be tied up by the lockout, officials estimated.

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

URGES OBSERVANCE OF EDUCATION WEEK

Governor Cox today issued a proclamation urging the people of the State to observe the week of December 3 as American Education Week in concert with plans of the American Legion, the National Education Association and the National Bureau of Education of the Department of the Interior.

"We need that further education which makes us more sincere and more responsible citizens," said Governor Cox. "We need to learn again that kindness to dumb animals is a high trait of human character. We need to understand more plainly that labor is honorable, and produces the big things of life."

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

ACCUSE BOSTON MAN OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Pittsfield, Nov. 27.—Joseph G. Normandin, alias Norman Lee of Lewiston, Me., and Edward W. Cunningham, alias Cutler of Boston, were arraigned here today. It is charged that they hired an automobile at Saratoga Springs from John Tveges and when one mile from that place struck him unconscious. The men bound him, it is charged, and upon reaching Stephentown, N. Y., left him in an outhouse. The men were caught in a garage here. The police say the prisoners admitted the robbery.

SCHOOLS BEST IN BIG CITIES, SAYS SMITH

"I am convinced Boston has the best educational system of any of the great cities of the country," Dr. Payson Smith, State Commissioner of Education, said today. The three important developments of the year in Massachusetts education, he said, are the establishment of physical education and the extension of school nursing and continuation schools. About 80,000 children are now enrolled in the continuation schools, 8,000 of them in Boston

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

AUTHORIZE RETIRING OF JUSTICE PITNEY

Washington, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—The Senate today authorized the retirement of Associate Justice Mahlon Pitney of the United States Supreme Court, within two months because of illness. A bill granting the retirement was passed unanimously by the Senate and sent to the House for final action. Pitney is under the retirement age of seventy years.

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

LA FOLLETTE THINKS THIRD PARTY NEAR

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 27.—Senator La Follette was quoted today by George W. P. Hunt, Governor-elect of Arizona, as having told him he would just as soon see both the Republican and Democratic parties swamped. The Senator, he said, declared the people had spoken twice to the majority parties and if they had to speak again it would be to welcome a third party.

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

BRITISH PLAN WORK FOR JOBLESS ARMY

London, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—In the face of growing unrest on the part of England's 1,300,000 unemployed, Premier Bonar Law's government moved today in the direction of a solution. The Cabinet committee appointed to study the question met to consider plans for a national works, such as roadways and public building construction to reduce the unemployment among unskilled workers.

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

BRITISH TO GET KRUPP INTERESTS

London, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—Leslie Urquhart, on behalf of a British Syndicate, is arranging to take over many concessions held by the German Krupp interests throughout the world. Urquhart is head of the British Asiatic Syndicate, whose concessions for rich rights in Russia were recently rejected by the Council of the Moscow Government.

—Use How to Christmas Basket Fund—

TODAY

Continued from Page 3.

newly born baby. But nothing ELSE can explain it.

"Explaining" is fruitless work. If you explain the universe by stating the existence of a creative God, how will you explain the creation of that God? It is like the earth resting on the shoulders of Atlas, he on a turtle. On what did the turtle stand?

Finite minds cannot deal successfully with infinite questions, that is all there is of that. The ancient "I believe it, because it is impossible," is the simplest way out, if you MUST have a way.

GOOD, OLD-FASHIONED faith is a great comfort—so puzzling about that.

W. A. Mackenzie of Smackover, Arkansas, was poor, owning a little "worthless land," then oil was struck, and in three months Mackenzie became a rich oil operator.

Two kinds of churches were well known to him, Baptist and Methodist. He was not sure which was the church of the Ruler of this Universe, so he built one of each. "I think a man ought to show his appreciation to the author of his blessedness," says Mackenzie, and Baptist or Methodist, he is on the safe side.

That's much simpler than fussing over monism, thelism, evolution, or accidental mixing of atoms through infinite space and time. Mr. Mackenzie will be buried in his own church yard, Baptist or Methodist, and so far as he will ever know with perfect insurance.

IN SING Sing's death house, where Airic Westling awaits the electric shock that will shoot him into the next world, to follow the man he murdered, everybody wonders. Westling refuses to ask for commutation, or postponement, saying "I would rather die now than spend 20 years in the prison yard, and my mother agrees with me."

In all the prison's history, that has never happened. Every man clings to the last chance of life.

YET A man might do a great deal with 20 years in prison —20 years to think, 20 years of concentration. If nothing better offered, it would be worth while to invite new experiments by doctors.

In Europe, in honor of the gland transplanting discoveries, men are asking "Would you live your life and youth over, again?" To that every sensible man's answer is, "No. Thank Heaven I have got through life so far, and youth especially, with even moderate success. No risking it all over again."

But what is left of life every man should accept and use with fortitude and good intention. Of the old man it is always true, as Cous says, "Every day, in every way, I am getting better and better." For every day, we are getting nearer to freedom, nearer to release from responsibility, nearer to a receipt in full for our duties and all our troubles.

HUNDREDS OF millions in stock dividends are pouring out. One company issue 45 millions, another 30 millions, another 100 millions. They hurry because they expect that the people will have brains enough to stop such tax evasion, in spite of a court decision upholding it. It is a compliment to public intelligence, not justified by any recent happening.

This is the interesting thing about the new hundreds of millions of stock. In a little while it will be "vested rights," solid property, and whoever questions the payment of at least 5 per cent. on all that mass of fresh made stock will be simply "an anarchist," enemy to law and order "trying to stir up class hatred."

HERE in America, watch the birth and growth of a "coalition" party in the Senate. There are powerful radical elements in that upper house. La Follette leads one party, Capper another. Borah and Hiram Johnson represent still other kinds of radical thought. It is predicted that these elements in the Republican party will destroy the Republican majority that the Grand Old Party counted on for "putting things over."

But watch Old Guard Democrats rally to the Old Guard Republicans. Observe the friends of railroads, organized finance and corporations generally, get together to defend what is "safe and sane." The Republicans may have only a small majority in the Senate. But MONEY has a majority as big as anybody could wish, and will know how to use it.

The Good of Fruit

Raisins furnish mineral salts and a rare content of food-iron to enrich the blood.

Add raisins, therefore, to your puddings, cakes, pies, rolls, bread, salads, etc., not merely to make them more attractive but to get the good of this delicious fruit.

Sun-Maid Raisins should cost you no more than the following prices:

Seeded (in 15 oz. blue pkgs.) 20c
Seedless (in 15 oz. red pkgs.) 15c
Seeded or Seedless (12 oz. pkg.) 12c

Ask dealers for

Sun-Maid Raisins

Had Your Iron Today?

LAST WEEK! MORGAN'S QUARTER-MILLION DOLLAR SALE A DRIVE FOR 10,000 NEW CREDIT CUSTOMERS

POSITIVE SAVINGS OF 1/2 PAY ON YOUR OWN EASY TERMS

FOR THANKSGIVING—THIS FINE EIGHT-PIECE DINING ROOM SUITE OF GENUINE WALNUT, ITALIAN PERIOD

The lowest price for years for this unusually fine suite. The selected walnut is beautifully figured with an Italian Florentine finish, giving added richness—including Buffet, 60 inches long, fitted with beautifully finished interiors, most improved large silver drawer, German silver trim; server, china Table and six Chairs; complete complete. $275 value. In this sale for $169 $8.50 Weekly

$169

We Will Give Away Absolutely Free For This Week

A complete artistic 9x12ft the extraordinary specials we have gathered together for this great sale—SMASHING THE DAY LIGHT OUT OF PRICES—is not a record for value-giving, slashing style and heft we fix terrific cuts throughout our entire store and in room

TAKE YOUR CHOICE ON YOUR OWN EASY CREDIT TERMS

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

THIS 4-PIECE FUMED OAK DEN SET 29.75

Consists of Rocker, Arm Chair, Side Chair, Book End Library Table with Book Shelves, solid oak Jacobean finish upholstered seats. Actual value $48. This sale 29.75. 1.00 Weekly.

Just in Time For Thanksgiving
ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF THESE FINE LIMOGES

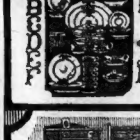
Dinner Sets
MARKED WITH YOUR OWN INITIAL

Another carload of these fine Dinner Sets made expressly for us by the Limoges China Co. The dainty decorations are old rose and blue with gold reminders. Your own initial painted into the design as shown in the picture. A full 50-piece set, enough for the average family. $37.50 value. In this sale 12.95

MODIFIED ITALIAN DINING ROOM SUITE, BEAUTIFUL FLORENTINE FINISH—10 PIECES COMPLETE FOR $198

One of the most remarkable bargains of the sale. 10 pieces consist, including a massive sideboard, 66-inch buffet, an extension table, armless chair, serving cabinet, arm chair and 5 side chairs. The china upholstered in a choice of fine coverings. The beautiful Florentine finish makes this fine dining room suite beautiful beyond description. The modified Florentine design is one of the most fashionable and popular styles around today. The workmanship is superb, each and every piece splendidly carved, adding that a great amazing sale. 10 pieces complete, $198.

$198 $8.50 Weekly



THIS COMPLETE BEDROOM OUTFIT—

Bed, Bureau, Chiffonier—For..... $58.50

The lowest price on record for a Bedroom outfit of this dependable quality. Full-size bed, good sized bureau and chiffonier, well made and finished in American walnut, the three pieces complete in this sale for $58.50.

$1.50 Weekly

Dining Room Outfit
6 PIECES COMPLETE

A remarkable value for this sale. Buffet, with mirror; Extension Table and four Chairs. An attractive Colonial design in oak. The six pieces complete for..... $47

Massive 2-In. Post Brass Bed with Spring and Our Famous "Slumberland" Mattress

This $65 outfit is the biggest bargain we have ever offered. Guaranteed all cotton felt mattress. Can be had in all sizes. $1.00 Weekly..... $34.50

Davenport, Overstuffed—Arm Chair—Rocker—Three Pieces

Spring construction throughout. A distinctly high-class suite in every particular, upholstered in genuine verdure tapestry, spring seat, spring edge and spring back. See this suite, $1.50 Weekly. $69

HERE'S PROOF THAT MORGAN'S PRICES ALWAYS ARE LOWEST—THIS 3-PIECE SUITE FOR LESS THAN THE QUALITY—Three roller pieces, made to our own strict specifications. This suite is a rich two-tone combination; plates of several rare figured veneers, richly carved panels, arms and backs, exceptionally beautiful; the kind of overstuffed furniture we can conscientiously guarantee. Formerly $100 and more. $47

COMPLETE 4 ROOM "SUPERB" OUTFIT

EXACTLY AS SHOWN, KITCHEN INCLUDED BUT NOT SHOWN $265 $3.50 weekly

86.50

FREE
For This Handsome Set of DISHES Absolutely FREE
Complete Chamber Suite—Each piece every piece exactly as shown. Sold separately for.....
89.00
Queen Anne Period Dining Room Suite—Consisting of 9 pieces, as illustrated. Sold separately if desired.....
79.50

OTHERS $89 UP TO $2000

Rooms Sold Separately

Ask Our Courteous Salesmen to Show You Our Complete 4-Room "Victory" Outfit for $189 and Our 4-Room "Honeymoon" Outfit for $398

A 4-PIECE COMPLETE BEDROOM OUTFIT, GENUINE WALNUT, $300 VALUE $3.00 Weekly $195

Offered at this price seems almost impossible. Each and every piece is exactly as shown and guaranteed in every respect. The extra large full Vanity Case will surely be the big feature of the bed in the very latest full bow-end model, as will the 4 great pleasure, the large roomy Chiffonette and Dresser; the entire set complete, to genuine walnut, will make a beautiful chamber.

THREE-PIECE PARLOR SUITES, A FACTORY CLEARANCE

A factory clearance of not and mahogany Parlor Suites, various woods and upholstered in silk velvets, silk tapestries and other fine fabrics. About 100 suites in the lot. $32.50

LARGE ARM ROCKER

11.50

Solid comfort for the man of the house or anyone. Upholstered in fine imitation Spanish leather with spring seat—large and comfortable.

KITCHEN RANGE

A value that speaks for itself, at just the time you want a good kitchen range. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. $47

"OAK" PARLOR STOVE $6.75

Here's proof again that Morgan's prices are the lowest always. A good looking Parlor Stove—and a great heater. Be sure to see them. Now is the time to buy in this sale—about half price at $6.75.

REDUCED PRICES

On our Warehouse Stock of Mattresses

For This Big Week

The greatest bargains of the year. Practically all sizes in the collection, and a great variety of fine tickings. Imperial rolled edge—upward from

9.75

WISE TO COME EARLY FOR THIS GREAT BARGAIN

THIS FINE DINING ROOM SUITE OF GENUINE MAHOGANY

An extremely well-liked dining room outfit, consisting of extension table, buffet and four chairs—a handsome Queen Anne design, beautifully made of genuine mahogany. $1.50 Weekly..... $89

We Make Free Delivery Anywhere

We Allow R. R. Fares Both Ways

Real Service

When you read Morgan's advertisements you need not take the offerings "with a grain of salt." This great business has been built on honorable dealings and truthful advertising. Every illustration has been drawn from the article itself and can be relied upon. The prices stated are the prices at which the goods will be sold. The descriptions are conservative and accurate. You will find it a real pleasure to make your selections here.

NO CHARGE FOR INTEREST OR INSURANCE

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD AT

MORGAN'S

757-759 WASHINGTON ST.

NEAR HOLLIS ST.—BOSTON'S HOME OF HOME OUTFITS

Your Own Terms

We have no hard, fast, stipulated rules or regulations—we arrange terms to suit each individual customer. There is no set specific amount or percentage required for your first down payment, nor your weekly or monthly terms. This we leave entirely to your discretion. No red tape to go through. Just a word of mouth agreement between two honest people, positively no charge whatsoever for interest.

No Charge for Interest or Insurance

We Store Your Purchases Free Until WANTED

HUB MAN ATTENDS TROY CONFERENCE

Mayor Flemming of Troy, N. Y., has called a conference in that city tomorrow of leading business and transportation men in northern New York, to discuss the proposed plan for an extension of the Troy terminal to the Erie Canal. This plan was projected by Frank S. Davis, manager of the Maritime Association of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, who will attend the conference.

Richer

The Lipton Improved Process of Double Roasting extracts all the richness, flavor and food value from the cocoa bean. You get the most of Cocoa Taste, Cocoa Quality and Cocoa enjoyment in

LIPTON'S INSTANT COCOA

CLOSE RUSSIAN MINE RUN BY HAYWOOD

Riga, Nov. 27. (By the Associated Press).—One of the coal mines in the Nadejdi region of the Donetz River basin, operated by the syndicate under William D. Haywood, has been closed, according to Economic Life. About sixty persons from America are in the Nadejdi colony, but they are not in want, so far as is known.

Haywood's other colony, in the Kusnetzki district of the Urals, is reported to be in urgent need of assistance, and the Soviet authorities are considering means of giving aid. This colony includes about 180 persons from the United States, many of whom are ill and without substantial food. The cold weather has already set in, and there is said to be much suffering.

The Kusnetzki colony is several hundred miles from the nearest feeding station of the American Relief Administration and, consequently, has received no aid from that organization. Haywood himself is in Moscow.

Use Box to Christmas Basket Fund

POLICE HEAD OFFERS HIS JOB TO PASTOR

Ossining, Nov. 27.—Police Commissioner W. H. Jackson has invited the Rev. Henry Grattan Dockrell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, to take his job. In a letter to the minister he stated that the bootleggers have the upperhand.

"I own up to being beaten," he said. "As far as I am concerned you can have the job. Every court in the land seems to be throwing a protecting arm about the saloonkeeper."

He offered to provide a police escort for the Rev. Mr. Dockrell on an inspection trip of the places where liquor is sold.

Pussy in Peril as Milady Demands New Fur Coat

Paris, Nov. 27. — Every woman is crying for a new coat and furriers are more than busy transforming lowly beasts into gorgeous mantles. Even old Puss is in peril for his fur is fine and soft and it is more than likely he will stray into some fine lady's hands.

Madame Tabary is showing handsome gazelle cloaks and jackets both in natural gray and dark brown glossy effects called "gazelle lustre." She also combines brown shaved lamb with tagouin and sea lion in natural toning of gray to black.

Chinchilla is worn on the streets by day much more than last season when it was reserved for evening. But it is not always honest chinchilla. Russian marmotte under the name of marmellozhelin has been dyed to look so much like chinchilla that only connoisseurs can tell the difference.

DON'T CARE WHO I OFFEND, SAYS "TIGER"

By the Associated Press.

Aboard Clemenceau's private car, enroute to Chicago, Nov. 27.—Deep in a campaign for France that has brought attacks on the Senate floor and criticism from the British government, Georges Clemenceau, Tiger of France, today declared he would speak his piece in his own way, no matter whom he offended.

He has received dozens of telegrams from friends and well-wishers of France, urging him to tone down his remarks, so that they will not offend any portion of the nation he came to win.

"I did not come here to be expedient," Clemenceau declared. "I came to tell the truth. I did not come to say pleasing things, but to say the things that would be of value, in my judgment, to help preserve the peace of the world.

"I have never been a compromiser. Now that I have one foot in the grave, least of all will I make a sacrifice to be expedient."

Clemenceau has had personal suggestions from men of importance as to how he should conduct his self-imposed task of seeking American co-operation in settling old world differences.

Clemenceau is considering changes in his itinerary. One place he is considering adding is the mining town of Clemenceau, Arizona.

Betty Alden Picks C. E. Cotting as One of Six Eligible Bachelors

Mrs. Marland Hobbs (Edith Newlin), together with her sister-in-law, Miss Rebekah Hobbs, has charge of procuring the young girls who will serve as ushers at the Boardwalk Theatre at the Atlantic City Boardwalk Exposition.

MRS. MARLAND HOBBS

By BETTY ALDEN.

CHARLES E. COTTING.

Who are the six eligible bachelors of Boston society? What about Charlie Cotting; doesn't he answer at least one-sixth of this query? There are many who seem to think he does.

Mr. Cotting is a Harvard '11 man and belongs to all "the" clubs, as every nice bachelor should. They include the Somerset, the Tennis and Racquet, the Country, the Essex County, the Exchange and Eastern Yacht Club. Sailing, by the way, is one of his pet particular hobbies, and he is frequently seen along the shores at Manchester where he and his mother, Mrs. Charles E. Cotting, have a Summer place.

Besides sailing, Charlie Cotting has another hobby—that's farming, which, it seems, interests not a few of the smart set's unattached contingent. He has a farm in Berlin, Mass., which he is quite proud of and likes to have people see. Charlie Cotting is tall, with light hair and blue eyes, as well as a very pleasant smile. In fact, he is rather known for his geniality—which, of course, makes him all the "eligibler," as so many bachelors are haughty and cold, to say nothing at all of being woman-haters.

During the war Mr. Cotting served in the Aero Squadron, first in Texas and later in Mississippi, being promoted to captain before the close of the war.

Throughout the week one name will be added each day to the list of Boston's half-dozen most eligible bachelors, until on Saturday the list will be completed.

ONE of the most prominent buds of the year will be presented a week from today. She is Miss Elizabeth Thorndike, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alden A. Thorndike, are giving a tea-dance for her Monday afternoon at the Hotel Somerset.

Miss Thorndike is a very vivacious girl with a quick, bright smile. She is slim and fairly tall, with dark brown hair and deep blue eyes. I recall that she was of the jolly group of young people who were winners in the competition dance held at the dansant given about a fortnight ago in aid of the Women's Municipal League at the Copley-Plaza. On this occasion Miss Thorndike, whose partner I believe was Dawson Howell, wore a smart gown of black tricolette, the shoulders merging into a berha of cream-color lace.

The Alden Thorndikes always spend a portion of the Autumn at Hot Springs, Va., and while the family were down there this year Elizabeth whiled away not a little of her time on the tennis courts there. Later in the season, I understand, Mr. and Mrs. Thorndike are giving a ball for their daughter.

THE first debutante who will join the ranks of the Married Maidens, as the Social Register terms them, is Miss Suzette Courtney, whose marriage to John T. J. Clunie takes place next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Arlington Street Church.

Sally Cabot, another bud of the season, is to be maid of honor, the bridesmaids' group being made up of the Misses Harriet Jones, Mary Joslin, Mabel Holden, Mary Hall, Mildred Hill, Helen Clark, Mary Foss, Elizabeth Cole, Anita Bowditch and Clara Barnes.

Miss Courtney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Courtney of Bay State road and the groom, whose home is in San Francisco, is the son of Mrs. Thomas J. Clunie and the late General Clunie.

MRS. C. GARDNER BOYER of South...ore is to spend the Winter at No. 7 Exeter street. Mrs. Boyer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Gardner of Beacon street.

Betty Alden

Use Box to Christmas Basket Fund

NEGRO PHYSICIAN GIVEN FIVE YEARS

Worcester, Nov. 27.—Dr. Horace G. Mackerrow, a negro physician, was sentenced to from four to five years in State Prison today, with one day solitary confinement, for assault on Mrs. Lee Shee, wife of a wealthy Chinese restaurant owner. The assault was committed when Mrs. Shee went to the physician for treatment.

Use Box to Christmas Basket Fund

$9,000,000 FOR BAY STATE'S HIGHWAYS

The total expenditures of the State for highway construction this year will exceed $9,000,000, according to a statement by the State Department of Public Works today. All the work of the year will have been completed within two weeks.

The biggest job of the year was the rebuilding of seventeen miles of the Newburyport turnpike in Danvers, Topsfield, Ipswich, Rowley and Newburyport, at a cost of $320,000.

About 200 miles of roadway has been constructed or rebuilt. About thirty-two miles was of cement construction, the best known, about seventy-eight miles of bituminous macadam with ash asphalt and sixty-two miles of gravel.

The State appropriated $6,320,500, received $1,922,000 from the national government and $1,500,000 from counties and towns.

Use Box to Christmas Basket Fund

SPG

The Gift for a Man—
A FINE WATCH
Combining Dependability—Value—Style

A very smart watch, extra thin, decagon shape with engraved border in green gold; 25-year filled case. The movement is 17-jewel, adjusted and fully guaranteed $48

A LIMITED QUANTITY ONLY OF
THE FAMOUS
WALTHAM
Colonial Series at Reduced Prices

Waltham Colonial Series Gold Filled
25-year grade
Royal, was $70.00; now.....$50.00

Waltham Colonial Series 14 Karat
Thinner model without inside cap
15-jewel, was $60.00; now.....$40.00
17-jewel, was $65.00; now.....$45.00
Royal, was $85.00; now.....$60.00

Waltham Colonial Series 14 Karat
With Inside Cap
15-jewel, was $75.00; now.....$50.00
Royal, was $100.00; now.....$75.00

The highest standard of American watch-making: Waltham Colonial A, special extra thin model. The case of 14 k. gold, with border of carved 18k. white gold. The dial platinum finished with raised numerals of 14k. gold $225

Waltham, $35
17-jewel, 25-year green gold-filled case, richly engraved border and fancy bow, cubist dial ornamented with special engine turning. The last word in an up-to-date watch and special at.....$35

Men's Military Watches
Specializing in the Waltham military watch, including every model from the 15-jewel in nickel case, special at $20, to the Waltham Maximus—the highest grade military watch made in America—cased in extra heavy 14k. gold, cushion shape; illustrated above at $100

Waltham, $25
Illustrated is the popular 12-size, thin model, 15-jewel, with 20-year gold filled jointed case, new design etched silvered dial of unusual elegance — also plain dial. The new lower price $25.
Other Waltham Watches for men, $20 to $300
For women, $18 to $350

HAMILTON WATCHES, $32 to $200

The largest and finest stock of these famous watches in New England, including the many new designs with carved borders and decorated dials recently brought out by the Hamilton Company.

These new watches will be of great interest to those seeking a watch which incorporates the most of style and elegance with the long established Hamilton reputation for "railroad accuracy."

Every Watch Tested and Fully Guaranteed

Smith Patterson Co.
Summer St.—at Arch & Chauncy Sts.
DIAMOND MERCHANTS & JEWELERS

The most celebrated gardens of India and Ceylon give their best teas to Tetley's Orange Pekoe. It is the perfect blend.

TETLEY'S
Makes good TEA a certainty

T. D. Whitney Company
Linen Specialists Since 1796

Don't wait too long before Christmas Shopping
Somebody is going to get the best

Absolutely New!

Originated by us and sold exclusively by us in Boston

Colored Huck-a-Back Towels

Of "Old Bleach" manufacture they are guaranteed fast color—an unusual Christmas Gift and with embroidery above the hemstitched hems they may be made as elaborate as desired.

18x30 in pink and blue $1.25 each | 15x24 in pink, blue, lavender and gold, at, $1.15 (Guest Size) each | 15x24 in pink and blue $1.00 each (Guest Size)

We have the colored Huck-a-back by the yard same as the above mentioned towels are made from, with which to express your own handiwork, 15 inches wide at $1.00 a yard and 18 inches wide at $1.25 a yard.

Handkerchiefs

Give the right handkerchief to the right person and you have touched a personal note. Among the many we might mention:

Women's Pure Irish Linen Handkerchiefs, 1-16-inch hems, suitable for tatting edges, 25c to 50c each

Men's Fine Quality Corded and plain linen hemstitched handkerchiefs, at, each, $1.00

It's a Real Gift

When You Give a Brittany Lace Piece: A six-inch doiley at 75c, be it even a piece as small as this shows its value. Then there are Oblongs and Ovals, $1.50 to $6.50 each.

Chair Backs, $4.50 to $6.50 Boudoir Pillows, $15.00 to $22.00

Scarfs and Luncheon Sets

T. D. Whitney Company
EVERYTHING IN LINENS
37-39 Temple Place—Boston 10—25-31 West Street

GIRL ESCAPING THREE ROBBERS, HIT BY 4TH

Cleveland, Nov. 27.—Held up twice within a few minutes, knocked down and robbed by a fourth thug while running away from three others, was the experience from which Miss Lillian Sheets, eighteen, in recovering, She was suffering from severe bruises about the head.

WETHERN'S of Boston

Copy of Reboux Model in Satin—Black, Brown and Navy. 5.98

Many other styles of

SATIN HATS

exclusive with us

3.98 to 4.98 each

A Reminder

CHRISTMAS RIBBONS

Many Ribbon Novelties, Fancy Tie Ribbons, Etc., All ready for early shoppers

Artificial

Decorative Flowers

Wonderfully natural

Asters, Carnations, Chrysanthemums, Nasturtiums, Rose Buds, Asparagus Ferns

21c each and up—

TEMPLE PLACE Thru to WEST ST.

PHENOMENAL BOY SOPRANO AT SYMPHONY

There appeared at Symphony Hall under the auspices of the Roosevelt Newsboys' Association, Robert Murray, "phenomenal boy soprano" and Carmela Ippolito, violinist.

Miss Ippolito has been heard in and around Boston enough not to require more than passing comment. She is a violinist whose playing is interesting because it shows plenty of good hard work in the past and all the earmarks of a musician who is sincere and honest. One rather imagines that she will by heard more of later. Her tone is broad and good, and her technic bu it on a solid foundation.

As for Robert Murray—his voice is phenomenal, there is no doubt about that. The range in itself is remarkable and his tones are fearfully and wonderfully high. As to quality of tone, that is a matter of difference of opinion.

One can only wonder on hearing a concert like this, why a boy of his early years is given the same things to sing before the public that such artists as Tetrazini sang in their prime. It is putting far too much on the boy to expect him to sing with any degree of success such songs as the florid aria from "Mignon," and the "Bell Song," from "Lakme." Capability does not meet the demand in such cases.

Emil Polak played for Robert Murray, and Jesus M. Sanroma for Miss Ippolito.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

COX OPENS SCHOOL FOR FEEBLE MINDED

The Belchertown State School for feeble-minded children was opened by proclamation of Governor Cox today.

About 900 boys, transferred from Waverley and Wrentham schools, are already at Belchertown, with a complete corps of tutors, nurses and attendants, under Superintendent George E. McPherson, formerly assistant at Medfield.

The present accomodations are for 250 boys, but within six weeks will be increased to house 250 girls. Ultimately the school will accommodate 1,500.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

LAWRENCE MAN IS DEAD OF AUTO HURTS

Lawrence, Nov. 27.—S. H. Ikbourry Haddad, twenty-five, of Elm street, died today of injuries received in an auto collision at Methuen. Three other men were seriously injured. John Abraham of Woodland avenue, Dorchester, received a sprained right shoulder and multiple injuries.

To Marry Actor

MRS. INA C. UNTERMEYER

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Ina C. Untermyer, millionaire divorcee and Elliott Dexter, film star will be married this week.

Confirmation of rumors which have long flooded Hollywood, came from Dexter himself.

Mrs. Untermyer won her final decree of divorce ten days ago from Alvin Untermyer, attorney, of New York.

MOVIE WORLD NEWS AND COMMENT

Who would recognize in the kindly-faced Lyn Harding the stern and pompous monarch King Henry VIII. of the Cosmopolitan film "When Knighthood Was in Flower?"

Mr. Harding in real life has little resemblance to the temperamental tyrant who would have sacrificed his sister, Mary Tudor, to doddering old King Louis XII. of France just to gratify his love of power and money. Only the humorous twinkle of the brown eyes bears resemblance to the bluff king of the silver sheet who nightly holds audiences in a spell at the Park Theatre in his dramatic scenes with Marion Davies, who has won a tremendous success in the role of Princess Mary Tudor.

The man who gives such a life-like impersonation of King Henry says that he was brought up to be a preacher, but disappointed the parental expectations and took to the stage instead. He was for nine years with Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree and is known as one of England's foremost actors.

When Eugene Walter, author of Frances Starr's first big Broadway success, "The Easiest Way," wrote his new play, "The Flapper," he fully intended having it appear on the stage. But George Terwilliger, director for Pyramid Pictures, Inc., chanced to read this engrossing story of the up-to-the-second American girl of today, and recognized in it intriguing screen material. After a conference with Mr. Walter, Pyramid purchased the screen rights of his story, re-titling it "What Fools Men Are," and it went into production immediately with Faire Binney as the flapper.

This marks the second time in the history of motion pictures that a story has gone from screen to stage, instead of from stage to screen. Back in 1916, Hector Turnbull wrote a story for Paramount, entitled "The Cheat," co-starring Sessue Hayakawa and Fannie Ward, which later appeared on the stage with the title, "I. O. U."

Frederick Santley, brother of Joseph Santley and who himself has been featured in many of Broadway's biggest successes, has returned to the silent drama after an absence of more than ten years. He has begun work on "The Go Getter," a Cosmopolitan picturization of a Peter B. Kyne story, featuring Seena Owen and T. Roy Barnes. Santley has not appeared before the camera since 1911, when he was starred in the old Kalem Company. He made his stage debut at the age of two years, when he was set adrift on "prop" in a play called "In a Sea of Ice."

In "The Go-Getter," Santley will portray the role of Jack the Aviator, for which part he is particularly qualified, having served a year and a half with the U. S. Naval Air Service, during which time he was assigned to the Bahamas.

CRUCIAL TEST IN HALL MURDER TESTIMONY

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—The grand jury investigating the murders on September 14 of Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall and his "wonder heart" choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, today heard the most important testimony Deputy Attorney General Wilbur A. Mott has to offer.

Upon the session begun today depends whether or not a woman and two men are to be indicted in the murders. The final evidence of motive that could have actuated the murderer or murderers was presented.

Mrs. Jane Gibson, "the pig woman," Mott's star witness, is yet to be called. Indictments, if there are to be any are expected by Wednesday.

Mrs. Anna K. Bearman, a cousin of Mrs. Hall's and a member of the church, was the first witness called. She was questioned for a few minutes and was followed by Ralph Gerstine, a vestryman prominently mentioned in the case.

Gerstine, reports have conclusively held and visited Mrs. Hall on the afternoon of September 14 with another woman and had turned over a small package, believed by the officials to have been the passionate love letters found strewn over the dead bodies of the pair, was what he was questioned on, it is understood.

Gerstine was questioned for more than an hour and was followed by Mrs. Michael McCabe, who heard the shots fired on the night of the murder.

Louise Geist, considered by the State as an important witness, was next called into the Grand Jury room. Miss Geist was questioned for an hour, after which the jurors recessed for lunch.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

RECITAL SHOWS HEIFETZ IN FINE FORM

For the second time within the last few weeks, Jascha Heifetz gave a recital in Symphony Hall before a large and very enthusiastic audience.

The program, which opened with the Brahms Sonata in A major, proceeded to a group that was of unusual interest. It consisted of several bits, including the famous "Prelude" from the sixth Sonata by J. S. Bach. This group was played by Mr. Heifetz without accompaniment and gave his hearers much pleasure for, after all, there is more joy in beautiful violin playing if unaccompanied.

The remainder of the afternoon was given over to a miscellaneous collection which ranged from Paganini to Glazounov. There was more depth of feeling in the "Berceuse Melancolique" by Tchaikowsky than anything else that the artist undertook. Probably the most delightful of this group was the "Saharella" by Wieniawski. This latter fairly sparkled, reminding one of sunlight on snow.

As usual, Mr. Samuel Chotzinoff accompanied Mr. Heifetz. The accompaniments were just the same sort that Mr. Chotzinoff always gives—as nearly perfect as it is possible to play accompaniments and that is saying a great deal more than can be said for most of the people who are doing it these days.

All in all the concert was very successful. Mr. Heifetz was in splendid mood and fine fettle.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

GERMANS STAND PAT ON DEMAND FOR LOAN

Berlin, Nov. 27 (By International News Service Radio).—The new Cuno government dispatched a note to Paris today notifying the reparations commission Germany will "stand pat" upon the note of November 13, which outlines a loan of 500,000,000 marks and a four-year moratorium, to stabilize the mark.

Girl at Castle Says She's the Wife of Prince of Wales

London, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—A well-dressed, unknown young woman was taken in charge by the police at Windsor Castle today while suffering from the hallucination she was the wife of the Prince of Wales.

The young woman demanded admittance to the Castle. She exclaimed:

"I am the wife of the Prince; I have called to occupy the State apartment."

The police were called. The girl will be examined as to her sanity.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

LISTENERS-IN ASKED TO AID VETS' FUND

One of the first benefit radio concerts recorded was the broadcast of last night's Symphony Hall concert. Listeners-in to this concert were asked to donate to a fund for disabled veterans, of which Major-General Clarence R. Edwards is treasurer. This was the suggestion of Louis Newman of Lorne street, Dorchester, president of the Roosevelt Newsboys' Association, under whose auspices the concert was held. The concert, which included Robert Murray, the boy whose voice is said to reach higher than Galli Curci's, and Carmilla Ippolita, the violinist, was broadcast from the Shepard Stores radio station by means of special wire to Symphony Hall.

FEMALE GLAND OPERATIONS HERE FAIL

San Francisco, Nov. 27.—The first operation in female gland grafting was performed on two women inmates of the San Quentin penitentiary three years ago, Dr. L. S. Stanley, resident physician at the prison, said today, discussing reports from Paris on the same subject.

The experiments at San Quentin are shown less satisfactory results has those performed on men, Dr. Stanley said.

"The interstitial gland has been transplanted into women by numerous surgeons throughout the United States," said Dr. Stanley. "The lands used are usually those of female sheep or swine. The result in the two cases here were almost negative."

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

Prices realized on Swift & Company's offer of rescued beef in Boston for week ending Saturday, Nov. 25, in shipments sold out, ranged from 4.50 cents to 11.50 cents per pound and averaged 11.21 cents per pound.—Adv.

"SALADA" TEA

Pure – Fragrant – Economical

"A Delicious Teas, Scientifically Preserved"

BLACK (Orange Pekoe Blend) MIXED or GREEN

— JUST TRY IT —

For a Friend in Need

Friends are always in need. In need of some little thing which for one reason or another they do not wish to buy for themselves. It is the noticing of such needs and remembering them at Christmas time which makes gifts from some people seem almost inspired.

Many people are tired of their old monograms. One of the new illuminated monograms engraved on a generous supply of one of the English papers will fill an ungratified desire.

In some homes there is a table in a dark corner which could be delightfully brightened with a piece of colored glass.

Most men affect to despise gold or silver personal trinkets. They are afraid of being made fun of if they openly show a liking for a gold knife, a silver cigarette case, or an amber cigar holder. If such a thing is a gift, they can happily use it as an alibi for their enjoyment.

No woman who loves beads ever had too many strings. Earrings are lengthening along with the skirts.

A little time spent in visiting our different departments will do much to lessen the problems on your Christmas list.

Shreve, Crump and Low Company

Founded in 1800

Gold, Silver and Jewelry—Makers of Original Gifts

147 Tremont Street Boston, Massachusetts

© 1922, S., C. & L. Co.

THANKSGIVING

THIS Season of thanksgiving we rejoice in three generations of progress and achievement. With the sincere belief that prosperity and content will always result from our policy of highest efficiency,

We Recommend

Steinway & Sons

Steinert Jewett Woodbury Curtis Pianos

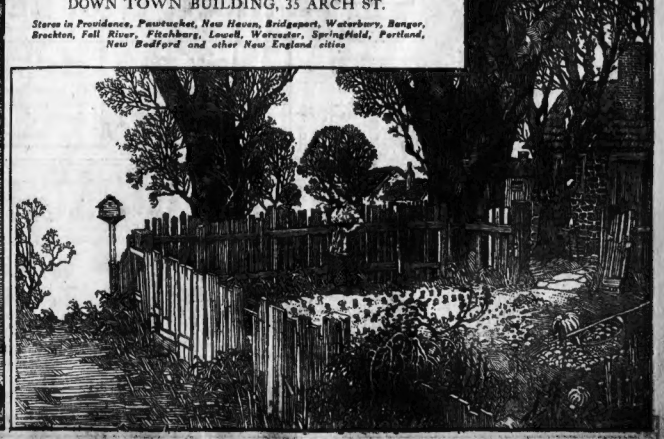
Victrolas and Victor Records

M. STEINERT & SONS

Steinert Hall, 162 Boylston St.

DOWN TOWN BUILDING, 35 ARCH ST.

Stores in Providence, Pawtucket, New Haven, Bridgeport, Waterbury, Bangor, Brockton, Fall River, Fitchburg, Lowell, Worcester, Springfield, Portland, New Bedford and other New England cities



Your Neighbor can tell you—"it pays to insist on U.S. Spring-Step Rubber Heels"

SIX months ago, you, too, probably took it for granted that all rubber heels are pretty much alike.

Thousands of others felt the same way about it.

That was before they wore their first pair of U. S. Spring-Step Rubber Heels—and got their first practical experience of rubber heel quality.

• • •

Think of it this way.

Besides the shoes you own now—you will buy and wear dozens of pairs more.

Dozens more pairs of rubber heels. Certainly if there is a better rubber heel it will pay you to specify it every time your repairman puts rubber heels on for you.

Especially when they cost you no more.

• • •

The interest of the United States Rubber Company goes far beyond selling you a single pair of U. S. Spring-Steps.

This Company feels that it can give you a quality and service in U. S. Spring-Steps far beyond anything you have ever known.

It is doing so for thousands and thousands all over New England, as the repairmen will tell you.

The U. S. Spring-Step Rubber Heel is the result of putting the greatest staff of rubber technicians in the country at work on the problem of producing a better heel.

They were given all the time they needed to do it. They were not dead-weighted by any question of "how much will it cost to manufacture."

U. S. Spring-Step is the scientific rubber heel. Yet you pay no more for U. S. Spring-Steps than for ordinary hit-or-miss rubber heels.

U. S. Spring-Step Rubber Heels are made by the world's oldest and largest rubber organization. The only rubber company in the country growing its own rubber in any considerable quantity.

The products of this Company go all over the world. Whether it is rubber footwear, power belting, garden hose or rubber heels, the United States Rubber Company has a reputation to maintain for the highest quality standards in rubber products.

They benefit by all the resources of the United States Rubber Company, and its 80 years' experience.

This Identifying Trade-mark is found only on the genuine

"U.S." SPRING-STEP
RUBBER HEELS
United States Rubber Company

MAKERS OF U. S. ROYAL CORD TIRES

Amusements

AT 2:15 AND 8:15 — TWO GALA SHOWS DAILY

ONE MORE WEEK — THEN GOODBYE!

The Mystery Drama That Has Thrilled, Amused and Enchanted Myriads of Happy Playgoers

D. W. GRIFFITH'S Wonder Play

ONE EXCITING NIGHT

MOST THRILLING CHAPTERS FROM THE BOOK OF LIFE

An Even Century of Performances Ends Engagement Sat., Dec. 2

"Twould be a real regret to miss "the biggest dramatic situations on Boston stage or screen"

TREMONT TEMPLE

Seats Selling for 12 Last Times, inc. Thanksgiving Holiday. Popular Prices: Matinees ..... 25c to $1 Evenings ..... 50c to $1

BOSTON PREMIER TONIGHT at 8:15

Selwyn Theatre

ELMER CLIFTON'S

DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS

THE ROMANCE OF AMERICA'S GOLDEN WHALING INDUSTRY

Musical Settings by HENRY F. GILBERT

Who Will Also Direct the Orchestra

Scenario by John L. S. Poll

SHUBERT-BOSTON OPERA HOUSE

TWO WEEKS BEGINNING DEC. 4

RUSSIAN GRAND OPERA

EACH MEMBER FORMER PRINCIPAL OF LEADING OPERA HOUSES OF RUSSIA

3rd Week

Mon. Eve. BORIS GODUNOFF ..... Mussorgsky
Tues. PIQUE DAME ..... Tchaikowsky
Wed. Mat. ED NOW
Wed. Eve. LA JOIVE ..... Halevy
Thurs. SNEGOUROTCHKA ..... Rimsky-Korsakoff
Fri. CZAR'S BRIDE ..... Rimsky-Korsakoff
Sat. Mat. BORIS GODUNOFF ..... Mussorgsky
Sat. Eve. EUGEN ONEGIN ..... Tchaikowsky

2nd Week

Mon. CHRISTMAS EVE ..... Tchaikowsky
Tues. FAUST ..... Gounod
Wed. Mat. SNEGOUROTCHKA ..... Rimsky-Korsakoff
Wed. Eve. HAZIFVE ..... Tchaikowsky
Thurs. PIQUE DAME ..... Tchaikowsky
Fri. A NIGHT OF LOVE ..... Valentini
Sat. Mat. LA JOIVE ..... Halevy
Sat. Eve. A NIGHT OF LOVE ..... Valentini

SINGLE TICKET SALE WED., NOV. 29
$3.00, $2.50, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00 (plus tax)
WED. MATS.—POP. PRICES

SHUBERT-MAJESTIC

Tel. Beach 4320 Beach, Little Bldg. At Box Office Prices

EVES. at 8 MATS. DAILY at 2

SHUBERT VAUDEVILLE

THE NEW YORK WINTER GARDEN

Presents Its Celebrated Cosmos Revue

"The WHIRL of NEW YORK"

A Spectacular Scenic Production

Roy Cummings, Rye, Florence Schubert, Kane & Gross, Jack Keller, Purcella Bros., Jean Teddings, Gene Doyle, Clarence Harvey, Viola Valrohn.

HOLLIS Last 9 Times Pop. Mat. Wed.

2 MATS., WED., THURS. & SAT.

SAM H. HARRIS Presents

RICHARD BENNETT in a THEATRE GUILD PRODUCTION

HE WHO GETS SLAPPED

NEXT MON.—Seats Thurs.

H. B. WARNER

in the Thriller of Thrillers

BULL DOG DRUMMOND

LOEWS ORPHEUM

CONTINUOUS—9:15 A.M. TO 10:30 P.M.

A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

"THE FACE IN THE FOG"

with LIONEL BARRYMORE

and SEENA OWEN

Vandoville with "Greenwich Villagers", Beatrice Wayne Tour, Jim & Betty Hall, Thos. F. Dunn and Others. Late Comedy and Weekly.

LOEWS STATE

CONTINUOUS 9:15 A.M. TO 11:30 P.M.

Mats 25c to 30c, After 5 P.M. 35c & 50c (plus tax)

A WM. DE MILLE-PARAMOUNT PRODUCTION

WALLACE REID

IN "CLARENCE"

A BOOTH TARKINGTON STORY Also Showing

VIOLA DANA

in "LOVE IN THE DARK"

Late Comedy and Pictorial Events

ARLINGTON

TONITE ALL WEEK

HARVEY'S MINSTRELS

Mats. Wed., Thurs., Sat.

WILBUR THEATRE

"THE BAT" SOUL SATISFYING BLEND OF MYSTERY AND COMEDY. SHOUT IN MAIL ORDERS AND MAKE US FEEL GOOD. 2 MATS. THIS WEEK: WED., THURS., SAT. DANDY SEATS AT BOX OFFICE.

THE BAT

GAYETY BURLESQUE VAUDEVILLE 2:00 & 8:00

WONDER SHOW BILLY FOSTER FRANK HANCOURT

GORDON'S OLYMPIA RODOLPH VALENTINO

In "THE THING BASAR" 5 BIG VAUDEVILLE ACTS

GLOBE THEATRE "More to Be Pitied Than Scorned" VIOLA DANA in "$5.00 Baby." Price, Week, 10c, 20c, 30c

Continuous 10:30 A. M. to 10:30 P. M.

THE FACE IN THE FOG

by Jack Boyle

with Lionel Barrymore,

Seena Owen,

Lowell Sherman, Louis Wolheim, Mary McLaren, George Nash

Directed by Alan Crosland

ANOTHER COSMOPOLITAN HIT

The most vivid, thrilling exciting mystery melodrama ever filmed

"We are not going to tell you a thing about the story. It's too good to tamper with," says Harriette Underhill in N. Y. Tribune

All this week at the Loew's Orpheum Theatre

SHUBERT

Eve. at 8:10 Mat. Wed., Thurs. & Sat. at 2:10

Tonight—Harvard Football Night

Pop. Mat. Wed., 50c to $2 LAST 5 Holiday Mat., Thurs., Thanksgiving Day

EDDIE CANTOR

In Make It Snappy

NEXT WEEK—SEATS NOW

ARTHUR HAMMERSTEIN'S MOST PHENOMENAL PRODUCTION

FRANK TINNEY

IN A MUSICAL COMEDY

DAFFY DILL

GEORGIA O'RAMEY

AND A GREAT CAST

PLYMOUTH

Tel. Beach 4520 Beach, also Little Bldg. At Box Office Prices

EVES. 8:15 MATS. THURS. & SAT. 2:15

LAST 8 TIMES

PAULINE LORD

In Eugene O'Neill's Master Play

"ANNA CHRISTIE"

UNALTERED ORIGINAL CAST

GEO. MARION and FRANK SHANNON

NEXT WEEK—SEATS NOW

Guthrie McClintic Presents The Season's Smartest Comedy

THE DOVER ROAD

By A. A. Milne, author of "Mr. Pim Passes By"

with CHARLES CHERRY

AND THE ORIGINAL N. Y. CAST

Opening night seats also on sale Boston Blvd. Atlantic City Board Walk, Beshstein Bldg., Dec. 1, 2 & 4. Part proceeds benefit Boston Blvd.

B. F. KEITH'S

Week of Nov. 27 at 2 & 8. Tel. Beach 1234

Special Engagement! The Noted

FANNIE BRICE

Late Star of Ziegfeld Follies

Extra Feature MR. HYMACK The Eagle Man

LORRAINE & MINTO SANTOS & HAYES MAZIE LENEITE Travers & Douglas Miller & Capmans Yamaki & Co. and IRVING FISHER

Thanksgiving Mat. 2 O'Clock Next Week—ELSIE JANIS

MODERN & BEACON

SAME PROGRAM AT BOTH THEATRES

The GREATEST OF ADVENTURE DRAMAS

The KENTUCKY DERBY

A MELODRAMATIC TRIUMPH

FLORENCE VIDOR in Dusk to Dawn

TREMONT THEATRE

Evgs. at 8:15 POP. 82 Mat. Wed.

3 MATS., WED., THURS. & SAT.

SAM H. HARRIS Presents

WALLACE EDDINGER and MARY NASH

in CAPTAIN APPLEJACK

with the ORIGINAL N.Y. CO. & PRODUCTION

A Gala Occasion OPENING of GORDONS CAPITOL THEATRE

COMMONWEALTH AVE. NEAR HARVARD ST.

MONDAY EVE. DEC. 4

RESERVED SEATS NOW FOR OPENING WEEK PERFORMANCES

Shubert-Boston OPERA HOUSE

ONE WEEK ONLY Beginning TONIGHT

Evgs. at 8:15 Mats. Wed. & Sat. at 2:15

CECILE SOREL

COMEDIE FRANCAISE, PARIS

including A. LAMBERT and L. RAVET TORNIER "LA VOLEUSE" Mon. Eve., Thurs. Mat. and Sat. Eve., "CAMILLE", Wed. Eve. and Thurs. Eve., "LA MARCHANDE D'AMOUR" Friday Eve., "LE DEMI-MONDE", Sat. Mat., "LE DUEL". Seats 25c, $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3, $4, $5. Seats at theatre box office & Little Bldg.

COLONIAL Evgs. at 8:15 Mats. Wed. & Thurs. & Sat.

Mats. Wed. & Thanksgiving

GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS

1922

EDDIE PAUL WHITEMAN'S ORCHESTRA RARE COLLECTION OF NEW BEAUTIES

No Seats Over $2

BOWDOIN SQ. THEATRE

Continuous from 10:30

D. W. GRIFFITH'S "ORPHANS OF THE STORM" with LILLIAN and DOROTHY GISH. JOHN GILBERT in "CALVERT'S VALLEY." 3 vaudeville acts. NEXT WEEK—JOHN BARRYMORE in "SHERLOCK HOLMES"—also BESSIE LOVE and GARETH HUGHES in "FORGET-ME-NOT."

WALDRON'S CASINO

Sam Howe's Pictures—Cont. 12:30 to 10:30

FRANKLIN PARK THEATRE

Here Nine Nights and Ten Shows in "The COWBOY AND THE LADY." Vaudeville—"The Warren Kids, Peggy Vinsant, Linscott, Hill's Comedy Circus.

BOSTON THEATRE Continuous

TOM MIX IN ARABIA, Weaver & Palmer, Cedar & Lusby, Hunting & Francis, Sophie Kennedy, Frank Wilson, LEE KIDS COMEDY

Gordon's Gaiety Betty Compson & Bert Lytell in "TO HAVE AND TO HOLD" OTHER FEATURES FREE AUTO PARKING

Howard KRAZY KIDS BURLESQUE with JOHNNY WEBER, tenor, and pictures. Something doing. 2 Shows Daily 2:15 & 8:15

Gordon's Olympia HOPE HAMPTON "THE LIGHT IN THE DARK" 5 BIG VAUDEVILLE ACTS FREE AUTO PARKING

LANCASTER THEATRE

MILTON SILLS, WANDA HAWLEY "Burning Sands" SPECIAL CAST "The Song of Life"

Gordon's Grand MARY CARR in "SILVER WINGS" Bobby Vernon in "Perfect 36 Gloves." Cont. 1:30 to 10:30. Free Auto Parking

ADVERTISE YOUR WANTS IN THE BOSTON AMERICAN

ANY LITTLE GIRL—ANYWHERE IN BOSTON—MAY HAVE ONE OF THESE GREAT, BIG, BEAUTIFUL 20-INCH BABY BETTY DOLLS

HOW TO GET THIS DOLL

Just get ten responsible people, relatives, neighbors or friends, to promise to have the Boston American delivered to their homes for six months at the regular carrier rate of 18 cents per week. These orders must be from people who live in Boston or immediate suburbs and who are not getting the Boston American delivered to them by carrier at present. Ask any relative, neighbor or friend to sign the coupon printed below; then mail it or bring it to the Boston American as directed, together with your application blank. We will send you at once the subscription for me so that you can get the other nine orders necessary.

20-INCH MA-MA DOLL ABSOLUTELY FREE

SHE WALKS TALKS SLEEPS ---An Ideal Christmas Gift---that any little girl would love most to have for her own.

COME IN AND SEE THEM FOR YOURSELF. THEY COST BETWEEN $6 and $7 IN ANY STORE

IMPORTANT: Fill in and mail, or bring, the TWO Coupons (to the right) to the Boston American TODAY!

NO WAITING! NO RED TAPE! NO MONEY TO PAY OR COLLECT!

APPLICATION BLANK

Please enter my name as a contestant for a doll. Attached you will find first subscription. Please send me the subscription blanks at once so that I can get the other nine.

Name .....

Street .....

District .....

FIRST SUBSCRIPTION

Boston American,
80 Summer St., Boston (8), Mass.

Please enter my subscription for the Boston American to be delivered at address below for a period of six months and for which I agree to pay the regular carrier 18 cents a week. I am not getting the Boston American delivered to me at present.

Name .....

Street ..... Apt. .....

District .....

FOOTBALL FANS GIVE BIG BOOST TO CHRISTMAS BASKET FUND

PRETTY VOLUNTEERS MAKE COLLECTION AT GAME

The largest sum given to the Boston American Basket Fund this season, to provide free dinners for needy families, was contributed by football enthusiasts who attended the Boston College-Georgetown game at Braves Field Saturday afternoon.

The collection made at the game, through the courtesy of the management, totalled $411.39. This large sum was collected by scores of attractive young women who volunteered their services for the occasion. Several young men also assisted.

The smiles of these comely young women greeted the football fans at the intermission in the middle of the game when players were taking a much needed rest. The collection followed a brief announcement as to its purpose. Contributions ranging from 5 cents to $5 were made to the collectors. It was evident from the spirit shown by the spectators that they were anxious to help feed every needy child in Greater Boston on Christmas Day.

GIRLS VOLUNTEER.

Girls from Burdett College, the comptometer school of Felt & Tarrant Manufacturing Company, John Hancock Insurance Company and from various departments of the Boston American aided in making the collection.

Among the volunteer workers who assisted in making the collection a success were: Margaret L. Coughlin, Catherine V. Spellman, Evelyn Raftery, Eileen Raftery, Helena O'Connell, Florence McCarthy, Agnes Doherty, Catherine Doherty, Mary C. Smith, Mary Walsh, Mary O'Connell, Winifred McLaughlin, Catherine Cullinan, Mary Cusick, Mary Leahy, Grace Delahunt, Mary Moran, Mary Simourian, Anna Creedon, Peggy Player and Marion Marshall.

Other volunteer workers were: Catherine Curry, Ruth Carey, Mrs. S. M. Solomon, Ruth Goodman, Lillian Harris, Mrs. Margaret McCarthy, Lorna Adams, Beatrice Merry, Annis West, Ruth Hich, Mrs. Orrie D Williams, Mrs. Flora Roff, Jeanette Beaton, Mary Bonnar, Catherine Barry, Elizabeth Delaney, Anna George, Mary F. Harrington, Kathleen Kennealy, Anna Mahler, Margot Pats, Mary Phinn, Anna Shurfield, Evelyn White, Katharine V. Callahan, Ona M. Morrison, Anne T. Callanan, Margaret White, Doris Black and Helen Heslowsky.

The girls were conveyed to Braves Field by an automobile loaned by the George Grow Tire Company.

ENDORSED BY CONRAD.

The work done by the Christmas Fund has been endorsed by Rev. Dr. A. Z. Conrad, popular pastor of the Park Street Church. Dr. Conrad, in endorsing the fund said: "I commend with great heartiness your Christmas Basket Fund which assisted so many individuals last year who are in need."

Stanley Miller of Hotel Buckminster turned over to the fund a check of $1 which he won in the American's "Nifty" Contest. In sending this contribution he wrote: "I received the check and am returning it with the wish that you turn it over to the American Christmas Fund and should I be lucky enough to win any more money that way in the future, please turn it over to that worthy cause."

The pupils of the Helen M. Whitten School of Dancing of Waltham will conduct an entertainment and dancing party on Tuesday evening, December 12, in aid of the fund. This is the second time that Mrs. Whitten's pupils will have assisted in feeding the needy at Christmas through the medium of the American's Fund. Tickets will be sold at the low price of 35 cents each, and it is expected that several hundred persons will attend the party, which will be held in the Whitten Studio in the Parke-Snow Building, Waltham.

Following an announcement by D. Lasker president of the Seneca Club of Boston, a collection totalling $7.41 was made in behalf of the American's Fund at a dance held under the auspices of that organization.

FROM LABOR UNION.

One of the first labor unions to contribute was the International Hod Carriers' Union. D. D'Alessandro, president. This organization sent $50.

Edward A. Haskell of No. 826 Elm street, Braintree, sent $10 to the fund. Mr. Haskell is an annual contributor.

Many business houses are contributing to the Fund, one of the latest being Wathern's of No. 21 Temple Place, Boston.

Felix Vorenberg, in sending in his contribution, wrote: "May I add my mite as in former years to your Christmas Fund, which, in my mind, stands predominantly in the foreground of all good Christmas activities.

"If the people of Greater Boston could only realize how much good this Fund will do, the response would be perfectly amazing. The community is to be congratulated upon your willingness to help such a good cause. May your efforts be crowned with greater success every year."

Henry E. Russell, of the insurance firm of O'Brien, Russell & Co., in sending in his annual contribution, wrote: "Enclosed you will please find my check for $25.00 for the Boston American Christmas Basket Fund, which I send you with great pleasure. It is a good cause and you handle it well."

Contributions received follow:

Boston American	$1,000.00
Balance from last year with int.	302.72
Mayor James M. Curley	100.00
Doris McCollum	5.00
Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gordon	10.00
Mrs. John L. Gardner	13.00
Brookline Service Club	10.00
Annual contributor	1.00
J. M. Acoer	25.00
John F. Tierney, M. D.	5.00
Wm. A. C. Reis	10.00
"C"	1.00
Grace Foster Bailey	5.00
Wilmot R. Evans	10.00
Boston News Bureau (C. W. Barron)	25.00
Wm. Cardinal O'Connell	50.00
James H. Baldwin	5.00
M. J. Burke	10.00
Margaret F. Greenough	5.00
Harry Dutee	10.00
John M. Daly	5.00
Mrs. T. E. Emmett	5.00
Fred Fisher Ames	5.00
A. Friend	1.00
Thomas O. McInnesy	5.00
James J. Phalin	100.00
Ruth Gardner	5.00
Stanley Miller	1.00
Evelyn Morse	5.00
"Nifty"	5.00
Katherine Y. Hill	5.00
Richard D. Graham	10.00
Louis S. Levi Co.	10.00
F. J. McCabe	10.00
Samuel L. Powers	10.00
"An Hayes	5.00
Rev. John W. McMahon	20.00
David Jacobs	5.00
A Quincy Friend	1.00
Gustavo Praino, M. D.	5.00
W. Hatch	1.00
N. C. McDonald Co.	15.00
C. Moses & Co.	10.00
W. E. K. Brookline	10.00
W. E. Russell	5.00
Peter G. Hey	5.00
International Mod Carriers Building & Common Laborers' Union	50.00
Wm. H. Barrett	5.00
"Mary"	5.00
United Silk Mills	5.00
C. H. Wathern Co.	5.00
John L. O'Connell	5.00
A Nazo Friend	5.00
A Maine Friend	5.00
Ellis Peterboro	25.00
Samuel Ex'ely	10.00
Patterson & Burton	50.00
Collected at Seneca Club Dance	7.41
Total	$2,711.13

Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

MAN CLAIMS RIGHT TO WHIP CHILDREN

John Dow, who formerly lived in Raleigh, North Carolina, and now resides near Beacon Hill, was questioned by the Prevention of Cruelty to Animal Society officials when it was learned that he used a strap and a cat-o-nine-tails with which to whip his children. Mr. Dow told the men that in the South "we believe that children belong to those that rear them."

Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

BATTLE OIL BLAZE ON ALEWIFE BROOK

Motorists driving along the Fellsway were startled to see flames blaze up from Alewife Brook. The stream burned merrily and clouds of smoke wafted upwards. For an hour or more the fire continued and then subsided as quickly as it started. Firemen think a motor boat owner threw so many cans of oil and gasoline overboard as they hauled out for the Winter that the surface became coated and some one carelessly threw a match into the stream.

Donor to Fund

DORIS R. McCALLUM

HENSHAW AUTO CONCERN HAS ANNIVERSARY

About twenty-five years ago the automobile was a novelty. Today one person in ten throughout the United States has one. Few people stop to realize that the men who now represent one of the largest industries in the United States possessed remarkable courage to embark upon what at that time was considered a precarious business venture. Yet to the fact that there were such men the industry owes its remarkable development.

Twenty-eight years ago, when motor vehicles had just begun to reach the practical stage in Europe, C. S. Henshaw of Boston recognized the probable wide acceptance of the new mode of travel and joined the New York Tire Co., which manufactured one of the first pneumatic tires. Shortly afterwards he was retained himself with the De Dion Bouton Co., builder of the famous French motor of that name.

The high priced car for a long time held his attention, but he realized that the motor car must be brought within the reach of a large number of people. Eight years ago the Dodge Brothers of Detroit started to manufacture a low-priced car under their own name, and C. S. Henshaw became the Boston dealer for Dodge Brothers.

The wisdom of Mr. Henshaw in allying himself with Dodge Brothers in 1914 is evident as he prepares to hold his annual observance of that anniversary. Eight years ago the first Dodge came to Boston and was given a rousing reception by the people and a formal welcome by Mayor Curley. Since that time approximately 25,000 of these cars have been delivered in Massachusetts. The factory is now rapidly nearing its 800,000th car.

The eighth anniversary of the Henshaw organization will be observed today and tomorrow at the Commonwealth Avenue salesroom, and on these days arrangements have been made for an exhibition that will include every model produced by the factory. The newest types, the all-steel sedan and the business coupe, will be featured, likewise the French design standard sedan, limousine, touring and roadster type and taxicab, and of the business car, the panel, screen side and stake body models. In connection with the display of new cars, some specially finished and equipped, moreover, there will be a separate exhibition of an unusually complete assortment of used cars in the resale division. All departments will be open these two evenings until 9 o'clock.

On the occasion of his anniversary, Mr. Henshaw always receives visits from other pioneers in the business.

Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

NAVAL OFFICER FINDS CAUSE OF GRAVITATION

San Francisco, Nov. 27.—Claim to discovery of the cause of gravitation—something that Sir Isaac Newton, discoverer of the law of gravitation could not find—was made by an American naval officer, Captain T. J. J. See, government astronomer at the Mare Island Navy Yard, near here, in a lecture before the California Academy of Sciences.

Discovery by Captain See of the cause of magnetism which also was claimed in the lecture, led to the finding of a definite connection between magnetism and gravity; he said, both due to invisible ether waves traveling across the heavenly spaces with the speed of light.

Captain See demonstrated during his address that a small magnet, when suspended by a thread near a larger one, is pulled bodily toward the nearest pole of the larger magnet. Yet, he showed, that when the nearer pole has the greater power the remoter pole of the large magnet actually pulls back on the opposite end of a magnetic needle suspended by a thread about its centre. The result is to make the lines of force of motion lines, stretched like taut ropes.

Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

Santiago, Chile.—President Alessandri has received a telegram from Juneau announcing the arrival of the cruiser Cleveland. The Cleveland has landed 600 boxes of supplies for earthquake sufferers.

Death Rate Highest in Massachusetts, U. S. Report Shows

Washington Nov. 27.—Figures for practically all States within the death registration area of the country, as announced today by the Census Bureau, reflect the decrease in death rate for the total area in 1921 as compared with the preceding year.

Of the adjusted rates, figured on the differences in the sex and age distribution of the population in the various States, Montana showed the lowest, 8.8 per 1,000 population, and Massachusetts the highest, 13.4.

For cities of 100,000 or more population the lowest adjusted rate, 9.3, was reported from Akron, O., while a rate of 19 for Memphis, Tenn., was the highest.

CONVICT DIES AS HE WISHED, IN PRISON

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 27.—Dan Murphy died as he wished, in the Carolina Penitentiary, where for twenty-five years he had been a prisoner. Sentenced for the murder in 1897 of the Treasurer of Orangeburg County, Dan was offered a pardon, but he said he was "too far behind the times. He died protesting his innocence.

1 DEAD, 2 HURT, AS AUTO RUNS INTO TROLLEY

Providence, R. I., Nov. 27.—One man was instantly killed and two others injured when the automobile in which they were riding swerved into the path of a trolley car in Slatersville, a few miles north of here.

The dead man is Peter Contois, thirty-three years old, Harrisville war veteran. The accident occurred when the electric, bound from Woonsocket to Pascoag, rounded a corner before the Slatersville garage.

The machine in which Contois was riding turned into the tracks to avoid another automobile traveling in the opposite direction, and its car swung around, crashing into the car. Neither of the other two men was seriously hurt.

FIND 10 BODIES, 70 MISSING, IN SHIP DISASTER

Barcelona, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—Many lives were lost in the capsizing of an excursion steamer off the Spanish coast early today.

Ten bodies were recovered in a few hours by relief vessels, but seventy others were missing. There were eighty passengers on the steamer.

TOO LATE

Death only a matter of short time. Don't wait until pains and aches become incurable diseases. Avoid painful consequences by taking

LATHROP'S GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES

The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles—the National Remedy of Holland since 1696. Guaranteed. Three sizes, all druggists. Look for the name Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitation

HEAD COLDS

Melt Vicks in a spoon and inhale the medicated vapors. Apply frequently up the nostrils. Use freely before going to bed.

VICKS VAPORUB

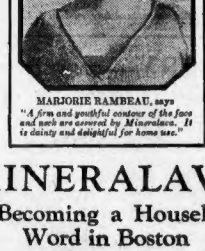
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

We Offer

One Tube Free to Every Home

Simply mail the coupon. It will bring you a 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent to try.

For your sake and your family's sake, make this delightful test. Show them the quick results. It will mean in your home a new era in teeth cleaning.



MARJORIE RAMBEAU, says

"A firm and youthful contour of the face and neck are covered by Mineralava. It is dainty and delightful for home use."

MINERALAVA

Is Becoming a Household Word in Boston

MINERALAVA preserves beauty; it creates Beauty.

It is a Natural Clay with an affinity for the ills that affect the human skin. It cures sallowness, wrinkles, blackheads, enlarged pores, and oily skin. Its use leaves the skin new born and beautiful.

Hundreds of thousands of women in American homes have voluntarily testified that MINERALAVA has brought happiness and beauty to their homes. Noted beauties of the stage and screen give MINERALAVA their unqualified endorsement.

In exclusive beauty parlors they used to charge $15 for a single MINERALAVA treatment. Today you can get our $2.00 bottle from any dependable Drug or Department store in Boston. Each bottle contains eighteen full treatments for home use, or a trifle more than ten cents a treatment.

We also sell a Trial Tube at 50 cents. We know if you try it once you will never be without it. With the $2.00 bottle goes our absolute money-back guarantee if you are not satisfied. You take no risk.

A MINERALAVA SKIN NEVER AGES

Mineralava BEAUTY CLAY

Positively Guaranteed

PARIS VIVAUDOU NEW YORK Distributor

WHAT FUN IT IS TO BE HUNGRY!

YOU can't be well and hearty unless you are properly nourished—you can't be strong unless your appetite is good.

For a keen appetite, good digestion, rich red blood, and the "punch" and "pep" that goes with perfect health, You need Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Take Gude's for a short time and note the big difference in the way you look, act and feel.

Your druggist has it—liquid or tablets, as you prefer.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

Tonic and Blood Enricher

Beauty Contested!

You are always confident that your beauty has been developed to the highest degree possible after using Gouraud's Oriental Cream

15c. for Trial Size

Ferd. T. Hopkins & Son New York

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

Stop Rheumatic Pain

50-Year Old Prescription—A-3551 Gives Quick Relief

A constitutional treatment for rheumatism and gout. Dissolves calcareous deposits and relieves swollen joints. At your druggist's or sent by mail for $1.00. Ritner & Amend, 3rd Ave. & 18th St., New York.

Girls! Girls!! Clear Your Skin With Cuticura

Soap to cleanse, Ointment to prevent, Talcum to perfume. Everywhere. Sample each free by Cuticura, Malden, Mass.

Irresistible Eyes

are those which are Bright and Sparkling. Keep Your Eyes young and beautiful through the daily use of Murine. It has stood the test of time. At All Druggists

MURINE For Your EYES

Even the Orient

Now brushes teeth this new way

All the world over, millions of women are brushing teeth in a new way. Women of some fifty nations, almost from pole to pole. Even veiled women, whose pretty teeth don't show. Even women to whom the tooth brush is new.

Men and children too. All because a new way has been found to whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. And dentists everywhere are urging its adoption.

In this enlightened country, every home should find out what this method means.

It combats the film

This new method combats film on teeth—that viscous film you feel. That is the cause of most tooth troubles and most dingy teeth.

Film clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. No ordinary tooth paste effectively combats it. Food stains, etc., discolor it, then it forms cloudy coats. Tartar is based on film. That's why glistening teeth were seen less often than today.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Thus, night and day, these film-coats threatened teeth. Tooth troubles were constantly increasing. Hardly one person in fifty escaped.

Now a new dental era

Dental science has now found two ways to fight that film. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, without any harmful scouring.

Able authorities have proved these ways efficient. Now, all the world over, careful people are adopting them, largely by dental advice.

A new-type tooth paste has been created, based on modern research. It brings five effects now regarded essential. It avoids some old mistakes. Those two great film combatants are embodied in it. The name of that tooth paste is Pepsodent.

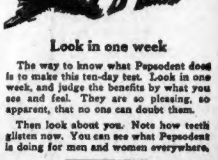
That tooth paste is bringing a new dental era, by every day combating the great enemies of teeth.

Starch and acids too

Pepsodent also multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits on teeth which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay.

Old-time tooth pastes, based on soap and chalk, reduced these tooth protecting agents. Pepsodent, with every use, gives them manifold effect. It also polishes teeth so film less easily adheres. Those are other reasons why well-advised people are discarding the old for the new.



Look in one week

The way to know what Pepsodent does is to make this ten-day test. Look in one week, and judge the benefits by what you see and feel. They are so pleasing, so apparent, that no one can doubt them.

Then look about you. Note how teeth glisten now. You can see what Pepsodent is doing for men and women everywhere.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

The test will be a revelation to you. It will point the way to life-long benefits, both for you and yours. This is important to you. Cut out the coupon now.

PAT. OFF. Pepsodent REG. U.S.

The New-Day Dentifrice

A new-type tooth paste, based on modern research, to meet five new requirements. Now advised by leading dentists the world over. All druggists supply the large tubes.

Ten-Day Tube Free

THE PEPSODENT COMPANY
Dept. F-26, 1104 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.
Mail 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent to

Only one tube to a family.

EXPOSURE OF BRITISH PLOT ASSURES PASSAGE OF SHIP SUBSIDY

HOUSE TO SPEED MEASURE TO VOTE WEDNESDAY

Continued from First Page

that it can't be done, and therefore, every man who opposed government aid to American shipping is opposed to American ships. He wants foreign corporations to do our work. He may not realize it, but that is the fact just the same.'

Ship Plot Astounds Members of Congress

Washington, Nov. 27.—Exposure of England's well-financed drive against the ship subsidy bill, as published in the Washington Times-Herald, created a profound sensation in congressional and official circles.

All agree that the series of articles in the Hearst newspapers will be a tremendous factor in bringing about the passage of the bill. Friends of the measure declared that until the publication of affidavits which link the British government up with opposition to the subsidy had been published, many opponents of the measure ridiculed the charge of British interest.

BACKS UP HARDING.

The exposure, proving the President's charge that other nations are in complete accord in their opposition to the bill, takes it from the realm of propaganda into the field of certainty, leaders declare, and will make it difficult for Americans to fight the measure.

The subsidy bill comes up again in the House today with everything cleared out of the way to speed it along to a vote Wednesday.

House Leader Mondell and Representative Edmonds, chairman of the Merchant Marine Committee, have the engineering of the measure well in hand. Both of them assured the President that it would pass without any nullifying clauses being tacked on through amendment.

SENATORS COMMENT.

Senator Frelinhuysen, New Jersey, in comment on the British role in the subsidy fight said:

"I am not surprised. Opponents of this measure are doing just what Great Britain wish them to do. It is not what the British want, however, but what we want that counts and we will get it."

Senator Willis of Ohio said: "The allegations illustrate just what I have contended and what everybody must recognize, those opposing the ship subsidy bill are doing things which our chief competitors and enemies in the commercial world most desire to have done."

Representative Britten of Illinois said: "A member of the British Parliament asserted from the floor of Parliament that propaganda by the British government in the United States must cease or there would be serious trouble. He indicated that a considerable amount of money was being spent for that propaganda."

Ambassador Geddes Denies Strike Plot

Washington, Nov. 27.—Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador, and other officials of the British Embassy made vigorous efforts to deny the damaging revelations made by the Washington Herald of the plot of British interests against the ship subsidy bill.

The ambassador made a hurried visit to Secretary of State Hughes at the latter's home and made formal denial that embassy attaches had sought to influence American public opinion on the merchant marine question.

A formal statement of denial was issued at the embassy, following the visit of Ambassador Geddes to Secretary Hughes.

MR. GLASER UNKNOWN.

Despite the ambassador's denial and the statement issued at the embassy, it is generally recognized in Washington that British and other foreign shipping interests, with the tacit or active support of their governments, have been conducting an energetic campaign against the enactment of the ship subsidy bill.

Officials of the State Department, while apparently taking no cognizance of the campaign, are aware of its existence. These officials also do not doubt that Great Britain utilized its trade restrictions during the World War to take business from American shippers and turn it over to British interests.

The statement issued in behalf of the embassy, which also will be communicated in substance to the State Department, follows:

"The attention of the British embassy has been called to articles printed in today's issue of certain organs of the Hearst press, which seek to convey the impression that the British government is carrying on a propaganda for the purpose of influencing the decision of the American Congress and people with regard to the American Merchant Marine.

"The embassy denies emphatically that there is any truth in this allegation.

MAKE FORMAL DENIAL.

"Amongst the articles printed by the Washington Times-Herald there is included what purports to be an affidavit said to have been made by a certain Matthew Quay Glaser, described as vice-editor and vice-president of a publication called the Masonic Review, who appears to claim that an offer was made to him on behalf of the British embassy involving the publication of a series of paid articles against the passage of the ship subsidy measure.

"It is not true that any such offer was ever made on behalf of the British embassy or with the knowledge of any British government official. No member of the British embassy staff has any acquaintance whatever with the individual describing himself as Matthew Quay Glaser.

STRANGERS IN EMBASSY.

"On Friday morning last, about nine o'clock, two men appeared in the neighborhood of the embassy, loitered about for a considerable length of time and finally entered, claiming that they were acquainted with Mr. Lawrence, the vice consul attached to the embassy.

"Mr. Lawrence had never seen these men before and so informed them. He never at any time made to either of these men any offer whatever or had any conversation with either of them on the shipping measures or any other matter.

"The measures taken by the Allied and associated governments for the control and conservation of tonnage in the late war, which are also referred to in the press articles, were adopted in the general interest and their details were arranged largely on the initiative of the United States government itself."

Eliminate Ship Sales Without Competition

Washington, Nov. 27.—Without a record vote the House today eliminated from the administration shipping bill a section which would have permitted the Shipping Board to sell any vessels of the government merchant fleet without advertising or competitive bidding.

China's Ex-Ruler to Wed Princess He Never Saw

Peking, Nov. 27 (By the Associated Press). — Hsuan Tung, seventeen, deposed boy Emperor of China, will be married next Friday, according to the customs of the old Manchu dynasty, to a Chinese Princess one year his junior, upon whose face he never has gazed.

His only information about his future wife, gleaned from newspapers and through the aid of tutors, is that she rides a bicycle, studies English and sews.

His first glimpse of her, the Princess Kuo Chin-Si, daughter of Prince Kuo Chin-Si, will come when she is unveiled during the ceremony which starts at 4 o'clock Friday morning.

SAVE LIVES IN MANCHESTER, N. H., FIRE

Manchester, N. H., Nov. 27.—Women and children, forced to flee in scant attire, were carried from a burning lodging house on Birch street today by police while firemen battled the blaze severely hampered by a freezing temperature. Barefoot children were picked up wandering on icy pavements and restored to their parents.

Officials who checked up the residents of the building declared all were accounted for. The seat of the fire was in a ground floor restaurant and the damage was not large.

Praises the Hearst Papers' Expose of Ship Plot

By Cosmopolitan News Service.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 27.—The Hearst papers are to be congratulated on the expose of British and other foreign effort to stifle the American merchant marine said Malcolm Stewart, chairman of the Middle West merchant marine and foreign trade conference being held here today.

"The fact that the Hearst papers, champions of the people, have done this," he said, "should be evidence of its soundness. The American people should assert themselves and unite in realizing the importance of an American merchant marine."

DIPLOMAT RUM SHIP IS NEAR PORT

Washington, Nov. 27.—The British steamship Maine is plowing through the Atlantic today for Baltimore. Her cargo is booze.

She will not stop outside the three-mile limit to send off her cargo in small boats, nor wait for secret shore signals, or anything like that. The Maine is going to sail right into Baltimore harbor, file her manifest and warn prohibition agents to interfere at their peril.

The Maine is bringing a cargo of Christmas liquor to the embassies and legations of Washington. It is valued at many thousands of dollars and includes wines from France, Italy and the Rhineland; ales from England, Scotch from Glasgow, cordials, gins and everything.

CABLE NOTES

Tokio—The police have arrested a youth they charge with planning an attempt on the life of ex-Premier Takahashi, at Utsunomiya, according to the Hochi Shimbun.

Paris (By A. P.) — A "National Wheat Week" has been organized by the government for January 23-28 to free France from dependence upon foreign grain for bread and develop the colonies by encouraging them to help grow breadstuffs.

——Go One to Christmas Basket Fund——

SALEM BANKS FIND BOGUS $5 BILLS

Salem, Nov. 27.—Police are search-

BUSINESS NOTICE

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children

IN USE FOR OVER 30 YEARS

Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

ing for a counterfeiter working in this locality. Five counterfeit $5 bills were discovered today at local banks. The bill is printed on a shiny paper and the threads appear to have been drawn by hand. It is thought the counterfeiters are working out of Boston.

——Go One to Christmas Basket Fund——

MERCHANTS CO-OPERATIVE BANK

51 Cornhill, Boston

Assets Over $11,000,000.00
Reserve Fund $366,000.00

SAVE Systematically Safely Securely Easily 6% Last Dividends Rate of Shares withdrawn within 5 years of issue receive 50% of profits credited.

DEC. SHARES ON SALE
Shares May Now Be Purchased in Any Series

Uric Acid?

TRY THE WILLIAMS TREATMENT
85 Cent Bottle (32 Doses)
FREE

Just because you start the day worried and tired, stiff legs and arms and muscles, an aching head, burning and bearing down pains in the back—worn out before the day begins—do not think you have to stay in that condition.

If troubled with uric acid, joint pains, sore muscles, rheumatic pains, aching back or kidney trouble caused by body made acidity:

If you suffer from bladder weakness, with burning, scalding pains or if you are in and out of bed half a dozen times a night, you will appreciate the real comfort and strength this treatment should give.

We want to prove The Williams Treatment gets results in Rheumatism, Kidney irritation, Bladder weakness and all ailments caused by excessive uric acid, no matter how chronic or stubb rn.

If you send the coupon with your name and address we will give you an $1 cent bottle of Anuric Tablets absolutely free. Help by postage. Send coupon today to The Williams Co., Dept. Y-1233, P. O. Building, East Hampton, Conn. Send at once and we will mail you by parcel post one regular $5 cent bottle all charges prepaid. Only one free bottle will be sent to the same person, address, or family.

a millionaire will pick up a penny everybody should save

UNITED PROFIT-SHARING COUPONS

You can get many beautiful and useful articles in exchange for these U. P. S. coupons which come with:

Wrigley's Gum	Economy Matches
Classic Soap	Rainbow Candy
Arrow Borax Soap	Pilser Brand Malt Syrup
Wool Soap	Barker's Animal & Poultry Foods & Remedies
Sunbrite Cleanser	Hi-Brow Ginger Ale
Pride Washing Powder	New Hampshire Table Syrup
Danish Pride Milk	United Cigar Stores
Wheeling Matches
Uneeda Matches

Coupons from all the above can be COMBINED to get the premium you want

Come and see the beautiful display at the Premium Station located at

38 Court St., Boston

and learn the great values given thrifty folks who save their coupons.

Do not trade or sell U. P. S. coupons. If you trade United Profit-Sharing Coupons for coupons or trading stamps of other concerns, you are the loser. Brokers and others offer to make exchange only for profit to themselves. Redeem U. P. S. coupons at Premium Stations and get greatest value for yourself in high grade merchandise.

Write for free illustrated catalogue of premiums to

UNITED PROFIT-SHARING CORPORATION
Redemption Agent 44 W. 18th Street, New York City

Advertisement

To Avoid Rough, Coarse, Chapped, Over-Red Skin
Use Pure Mercolized Wax

Most skins require constant grooming if this cause is to keep them from becoming unduly sallow, muddy, rough or harsh, or if such condition has developed, to overcome it. In this case it is particularly inadvisable to keep piling on cosmetics which clog the pores and make the complexion worse than ever.

It's a let more sensible to use ordinary Mercolized Wax, which literally absorbs a spotted complexion. Apply the wax, like cold cream, before retiring. Next morning in washing it off, you'll wash away fine, floor-like particles of the unsightly cuticle. Repeat for a week or more and you'll have an entirely new skin—clear white, spotless beauty as a child's. Directions for using and full particulars in every package of Mercolized Wax, procurable at any druggist's.

Jordan Marsh Company

All Charge Purchases During November Will Be Entered on Bill Rendered Jan. 1.

for early Christmas gift seekers

Undergarments of silk or cotton

—of enchanting pastel colors or of snowy whiteness

Philippine Night-Gowns 2.50

(as pictured at left)

Square, V-neck and round neck styles, made full size and good length. Beautifully embroidery in dainty patterns.

Several other dainty Philippine Night-Gowns, 2.95 and 3.95

Philippine Envelope Chemises, 2.50

Of nainsook with hand scalloping and hand embroidery in several dainty patterns. Made with built-up shoulders—full sizes.

A variety of other dainty Philippine Envelope Chemises, 2.95 and 3.95

Crepe de Chine Envelope Chemises, 2.95

(pictured at right)

Bodice style in tailored models with rows of hemstitching and lace medallions — and lace-trimmed models with Val. insertion, edging and medallions. Colors are light blue, flesh and sunset.

A most attractive assortment of Silk Envelope Chemises, 3.95 to 20.00

Crepe de Chine and Radio Silk Night-Gowns, 2.95

Bodice style with wide strap shoulders and V-neck style. Both tailored models with hemstitching and dainty lace trimmed models. Colors are: Flesh, orchid, sunset and white.

Numerous other Silk Night-Gowns in dainty models, 3.95 to 50.00

Cotton Night-Gowns with lace and embroidery trimming, 1.95

Made of good weight material, with kimono sleeves, round and square neck styles. Trimmed with embroidery or Val. insertion, edging and medallions.

An extensive assortment of Trimmed Cotton Night-Gowns, 69c to 4.95

Glove Silk Underthings—always so well liked because of the soft texture and satisfactory wearing qualities of the material.

Glove Silk Bodices—1.95 (as pictured)

Made in bodice style with ribbon shoulder straps of standard weight pink silk. Full size and good length.

Glove Silk Knickers to match vest—2.95 (as pictured)

Of standard weight pink silk—cut full size and strongly reinforced.

Glove Silk Envelope Chemises in tailored models—5.00

In bodice or built-up shoulder style, plain tailored or with picot trimming, of good weight pink, white or black glove silk.

Glove Silk Camisoles —2.50

Tailored style with hemstitching—in pink, white, black and navy.

Union Suits with Glove Silk Tops—1.95

Our own "Avona" brand—bodice top with ribbon shoulder straps and lisle jersey pants with cuff knee. In flesh color, all sizes 36 to 44.

HOSIERY—one of the most appropriate gifts you can choose

Pure Thread Silk Hosiery With Lisle Tops, 1.95

Full-fashioned—in black, browns and grays.

Also—Other Black Silk Hosiery, 1.65 to 35.00

Ribbed Sport Hosiery of Mercerized Lisle, 1.15

Colors are: African, piping rock, cordovan, toast and mouse.

A most varied assortment of other Sport Hosiery, 95c to 18.00

Our expert Corsetieres will choose for you the corset best suited for your type—

Avona Corsets

3.50

(as pictured)

A comfortable elastic waistline model, made of pretty pink broche. The long skirt is firmly boned to flatten back. Eyelets and hook at bottom and 3 pairs of strong hose supporters.

Other styles of "Avona" Corsets, 1.25 to 35.00

BOSTON, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1922

2nd SECTION: HOME NEWS
More Pictures, Comics, Fiction and Features than any other Boston Newspaper

BOSTON AMERICAN

LARGEST EVENING CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND

FIRST WITH THE LATEST
Only Boston paper with full leased wires of International, Universal, Cosmopolitan and Associated Press News Services

THIS PAPER IS NOT COMPLETE WITHOUT THE FIRST SECTION—GET BOTH

TWO COMPLETE NEWS SECTIONS, TWO FIRST PAGES, TWO FICTION PAGES, 16 AND 17, TWO PAGES OF COMICS, 14 AND 15

TRAPPED WIFE AND HUSBAND'S 'FRIEND' FOUND GUILTY

African Prince Hits Immigration Snag

RICH BOY, 15, MUST WAIT CURE

Quota From Africa Exhausted, and Youngster Will Be Detained

Royalty ran against Federal immigration authorities at the port of Boston today with a crash.

A Prince—a live Prince, black as black and of a line at present deposed—arrived on the British liner City of Benares and was promptly detained.

This ebon sprig of royalty is Prince Stanley Kisingiri (accent on the second syllable) son of the late King Zachariah Kisingiri of Uganda, the British protectorate in East Africa. He is fifteen years old.

Prince Stanley, named for Henry M. Stanley, explorer of the Dark Continent, was held up for three reasons:

1—Federal Health Service wished to give him the "once over."

2—Being under sixteen and unaccompanied by parent or legal guardian, he vouched for.

3—The African immigration quota for November is overdrawn.

CONSUL NOTIFIED.

For these reasons Prince Stanley was held aboard the City of Benares until examined by surgeons connected with the United States Immigration Service, who declare that the boy is suffering from the contagious disease of trachoma, and ordered him sent to the Carney Hospital for treatment. Until he has recovered from this disease immigration authorities say there is no chance for him to be admitted to this country.

Meanwhile the British consul has been notified as the Prince is a British subject.

The princeling is still recognized by natives of Uganda as a regular price, although the royal house of Kisingiri no longer rules that country.

Prince Stanley enjoys a comfortable income and has been well educated. He speaks English with a marked Oxford accent. He has been at a boarding school in Colombo, capital of Ceylon, for two years, and has come to this country to take a course at Tuskegee Institute.

When his sponsors wished to send him here they arranged with Miss Margaret N. Wilson, for five years secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Madras, India, to accompany him. Miss Wilson went to Colombo, boarded the City of Benares with the youth and was in charge of him when the steamship arrived here.

FINDS BOSTON CHILLY.

The Prince wears the typical garments of an English schoolboy, tweed knickerbocker suit, golf stockings and stout shoes.

He found the Boston atmosphere decidedly raw and chilly to his hot country blood. When he went on deck to take a look at Boston harbor he donned a knitted cap and heavy overcoat.

Between the weather and the reception by the immigration authorities, the Prince was not excited over his arrival at the gates.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

RECIPROCITY CLUB DINNER TOMORROW

The monthly meeting of the Reciprocity Club of America, Boston Section, will be held tomorrow at the Hotel Westminster. Dinner is at 6:30 p. m. This is the Club's Tenth Anniversary Night. Mr. Daniel A. MacKay will give an illustrated lecture on "With Rod and Gun in Canada."

MOTHER AND BABY IN DRAMA OF WAR DAYS

MISS NANCY JORDAN AND HER SON
Photo by International News Reel.

This pretty little English girl is fighting to gain entry to America so she and her "love baby" can accept the new home offered them by a Kansas City couple. The fate of the girl and her child rests with the Secretary of Labor She wants to live down the "one mistake" of her unhappy past.

SEES JEWS AND ARABS AT WAR IN PALESTINE

Arab jealousy of Jews, who are pouring into Palestine, was emphasized by Mrs. Albert Norton, who arrived here today on the British liner City of Benares from Far Eastern ports.

Mrs Norton was with her husband and child. The parents have been doing missionary work in Egypt and Palestine and are back for a visit with friends.

Jews from Poland, Russia and the United States are flocking to Palestine, Mrs. Norton said, and are filled with zeal to improve the country. Many of them have money, which is being spent for Arab labor

ARABS SUSPICIOUS.

But the Arabs are extremely suspicious. An anti Semitic feeling is increasing. Mrs. Norton feels that, but for the restraining British influence, there would be open racial trouble.

C. J. Jones, representative of a Pennsylvania structural plant, returned on the City of Benares from erecting a 40-acre steel plant near Calcutta, India, for a British concern. The plant will employ thousands of native hands. Coal and ore deposits are within easy access.

IMMENSE STEEL PLANT.

These favorable conditions, with the opportunity for cheap labor, will make this plant one of the most important steel producers in the world, in Mr. Jones' opinion.

The steamship brought eighteen passengers and a $1,000,000 cargo of teas, jute, spices, gum, hides and other Far Eastern products.

KILLED WHILE BEGGING FOR MERCY

That Mrs. Ida Gertrude Andersen, found slain in her cottage at Houghs Neck last Friday, was killed while on her knees begging for mercy is now the belief of the Quincy police.

A bullet in the under section of her right wrist, and other signs, indicate that after a wordy argument the woman fell on her knees and begged for mercy with outstretched arms. While in this position she was shot.

Police declare that the automatic pistol used by the murderer was reloaded and it is their belief that the murderer is now "gunning" for a rival whom he blames for recent troubles with the woman.

In the note left by Albert Harvey missing sweetheart of the dead woman, Harvey reproaches the dead woman and castigates her for her alleged relations with other men. The note is addressed to the woman's fourteen-year-old foster-daughter, Marie, of whom he was very fond.

A thorough search of harbor islands is under way today in an effort to find Harvey, whom Quincy police charge with the brutal murder of his forty-five-year-old sweetheart.

The search follows fruitless visits to all vacant cottages at Hough's Neck in the belief that Harvey might have killed himself with a bullet.

Chief Goodhue still adheres to the theory that Harvey committed suicide after the murder of Mrs. Andersen.

WIFE WILL WELCOME 'LOVE BABY'

Fate of English Girl and Child, Held for Deportation, Rests With the Government

New York, Nov. 27 (By International News Service).—Upon the Secretary of Labor rests today the decision whether or not there is to be created one of the strangest families in the history of America.

If the Secretary decides that Miss Nancy Jordan of London may be admitted the young unwed mother will be given a home by Frank Warren, Kansas City, Mo., lawyer and his wife, Mary. They have agreed to adopt Miss Jordan's son, Francis, a handsome youngster of 3½ years.

Miss Jordan is waiting impatiently on Ellis Island, where the authorities have detained her. She is confident the Secretary will admit her and that then the four will live happily in Kansas City, where she has vowed to "live down" her one mistake.

All the records in the case, teeming with the troubles of an unmarried mother, have been forwarded to Washington.

WIFE TO ADOPT CHILD.

Miss Jordan has told her life story to the immigration authorities. She pleaded that the friendship of the lawyer and his wife be not denied her in her resolve of living down her one mistake.

"It would be cruel to withhold from me and my pitiful child such love and forgiveness as Mrs. Warren held out to me across a broad ocean. She has said she will adopt the child and give me a home."

In her testimony before a board of special inquiry, Miss Jordan has not sought to place any obligation upon Warren. On the contrary, she has described his friendship as an extraordinary display of sympathetic concern. She said:

MET DURING THE WAR.

"I met Mr. Warren when he was in England with the American forces. I was then a bookkeeper with a motion picture outfit. Mr Warren had occasion to come into the office one day, and while there I was introduced to him. I came to know him better after that and I have never known a more honorable man.

"I have never burdened him with the slightest suspicion of being responsible for my plight nor would I have it hinted for all the world that I have any claim that would cause him to give me a new start in his own home. Both he and his wife are actuated by a spirit of benevolence alone in helping me. That woman, I have never seen, but we have been corresponding ever since Mr. Warren told her about my trouble.

PLEADS FOR CHANCE.

"She now says she will adopt my little boy and give me a place by her hearth stone Was ever there such ennobling altruism between two women? Surely, the one chance of living down my mistake and providing for my little boy will not be denied me."

Miss Jordan gave the names of her parents as Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan, No. 28 Iverson road, Kilburn, London N. W.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

HOLY CROSS MEN TO HOLD "NIGHT BEFORE"

The Boston Alumni of Holy Cross College are to hold a smoker at the Hotel Lenox next Friday, the night before the H C B C game Among the speakers will be Rev. James J Carlin, S. J., president of Holy Cross; Cleo O'Donnell, coach of the varsity football team; Judge Paloti '05, who was recently elected Secretary of State in Connecticut. Many famous Holy Cross athletes of bygone days have signified their intention of being on hand.

FIGHT ON WILL OF LEDERER

Sister Attacks $50,000 Bequest of Providence Jeweler to Employe

Providence, R. I., Nov. 27.—Miss Helen Fuerth, who was left $50,000 by the will of her late employer, Adolph Lederer, wealthy jeweler, will have to fight in court to secure the estate.

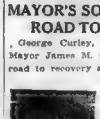
An appeal from the decree of the Municipal Court allowing the will has been filed by attorneys representing Miss Julia Lederer, sister of the deceased. The case will now go to the Superior Court.

When the will was filed for probate Miss Fuerth revealed the hidden romance of her life. She and Lederer had been sweethearts for years and they kept putting off their wedding until Lederer's jewelry manufacturing business would bring them a sufficient amount so that they would not have to face hardships during their married life. She worked as his bookkeeper and when they thought they had sufficient for their needs, Lederer was taken ill and died soon after.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

MAYOR'S SON ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

George Curley, youngest son of Mayor James M. Curley, is on the road to recovery after a week's illness. The three year-old young ster, the pet of the Curley family, suffered from a serious attack of bronchitis His temperature reached 105 degrees The first words he uttered in three days were "where's my pal Teddy" The "Teddy" referred to was Police Commissioner Theodore Glynn. No three alarm fire called for quicker response than the Mayor's request that the commissioner visit his home.



GEORGE CURLEY
(Photo by Bachrach)

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

ELIOT WARNS OF DIVORCE EVIL

The need of teaching children "fundamental truths, the sacredness of marriage and evils of divorce, breaking up of families and leaving children to wander without moral guidance," was impressed on the Congregational ministers at a meeting today in Pilgrim Hall by Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard

Dr Eliot urged religious instruction in the public schools which should teach the children their duty to parents, obligations of home life and love of God

The speakers also advised teaching all children to sing and to play musical instruments for "under the guidance of good hands there is a moral teaching to be found."

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

NEWSBOYS THANKED BY MAYOR CURLEY

Mayor Curley today wrote a letter to a committee of "Happy" newsboys, who remembered him on his forty-eighth birthday recently. This was addressed to Al Bronstein, Ben Weinbaum, R. Vodkin and G. Brody. The Mayor wrote that he appreciated greatly the thoughtfulness of the boys and wished the committee to express to all his associates his appreciation of being remembered.

Employer's Bequest in Will Contest

Lederer's Sister Fights Granting of His Estate to Helen Fuerth

Miss Julia Lederer, sister of Providence jeweler, has served notice of appeal and the case will now go to the Supreme Court

ADOLPH LEDERER

HELEN FUERTH

Death Ends Nightly Tryst of Love for 27 Years

Almost every evening for twenty-seven years, fair weather or stormy, Mrs. Mary Lally has met her husband on his way home from work.

The tryst of love was near a theatre where Lally is employed as a stage hand. Last night she was not there.

Mrs. Lally on her way to the nightly tryst had been stricken with heart failure. She fell in a doorway on Hyde Park avenue, Forest Hills, and died at City Hospital before her husband could reach her.

The Lallys lived at No. 47 Washington street, Forest Hills. Mrs. Lally was forty-eight years old. The husband and five children survive her.

$25,000 LOVE SUIT OPENS IN LOWELL

Lowell, Nov. 27.—The $25,000 alienation of affections suit of Elmer F Perrigo of Bedford, N. H., against Edgar F. Twombley, wealthy business man and former town official of Billerica, went to trial today in the Superior Court. The defense let it be known that Mr Twombley's relations with Mrs Perrigo were purely platonic and that they met at the Richardson Hotel in Lowell to discuss plans for a chicken farm which Twombley was to finance for Mrs Perrigo

In his opening statement Melvin G. Rogers counsel for Perrigo, set forth that he would attempt to prove that Mr Twombley and Mrs. Perrigo registered at the Richardson Hotel as Mr and Mrs William Gray, and that they were seen at the hotel together by police inspectors at Lowell

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

FITZ SPENT $3,213 DURING CAMPAIGN

John F. Fitzgerald today filed with the Secretary of State the return of expenses for his recent campaign for Governor. He reported two expenditures, totaling $3,213 one of $208 to the American House where his headquarters was located, and the other of $3,005 to the Brew er Smith Advertising Agency for advertising. The Suffolk County People's Committee, which espoused the candidacy of former District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, reported receipts and expenditures of $1,414 of which a contribution of $400 by Victor M. Pelletier, his brother, was the largest

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

LEGION TO FIGHT TO KEEP WOLF AWAY

Philadelphia, Nov 27.—Colonel Alvin W Owsley national commander of the American Legion, believes the best way for the Legion to serve the country is for it to obtain legislation to take care of all disabled ex-service men and to prevent unemployment. "I am appealing to the big business men of the country to make a special effort to see that no man who fought or served in the war is allowed to be hungry and cold" he said

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

WOMAN CAUGHT IN HUSBAND'S RAID HELD

Mrs Agnes C. Hawthorne, who was recently ousted from her South Lynnfield bungalow, and Fred H. Dearborn, sixty-year-old South Dearborn farmer, were in the Lynn court today on a statutory charge. Their arrest followed a raid led by Bertram V. Hawthorne, the woman's husband, in a Lynn hotel. The couple pleaded not guilty and the case was continued to December 1. Hawthorne recently sued Dearborn, charging alienation of his wife's affections.

PHILADELPHIA CALLS PARK ZOO CURATOR

George Morse, Jr., for the past four years curator of the Franklin Park Zoo, has taken up his duties in Philadelphia. On his departure from the city service here he was presented with a traveling bag, filled with cigars and toilet articles, by zoo attaches Daniel A Harkins succeeds Mr. Morse. He made the presentation Dr. William J Cronin, of the Public Works Department, will treat the sick and injured animals at the Zoo, it is said.

George Morse, Jr.

SNOW OR RAIN DUE HERE TONIGHT

Snow or rain, perhaps both, will strike Boston tonight or tomorrow, says Forecaster Smith of the Weather Bureau.

The temperature will remain about the same as today. It was 24 at 7 o'clock.

The storm is working eastward from the Great Lakes, where snow is falling quite heavily.

The coldest point in New England today is Northfield, Vt., where it is 12 above.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

PAIR HELD IN BACK BAY RAID FINED

Police Tell of Surprising Brighton Couple on a Tip Furnished by Irate Mate

Mrs. Barbara Judson of Brighton and her husband's "friend," Frederick F. Thornton, Brighton and Newton provision dealer, were found guilty of a statutory offence at a secret hearing before Judge Hayden in Roxbury Court today.

The couple were arrested in a raid on a lodging house room at No. 344 Massachusetts avenue, Sunday night, November 19. Neither offered any defence.

Mrs. Judson was fined $50; Thornton was fined $100. At request of their counsel, Francis M. Costello, the cases were then continued to tomorrow, possibly for consideration whether an appeal would be taken.

Mrs. Judson, comely brunette, is the wife of Truman H. Judson, of No. 574 Washington street, Brighton. They have an eighteen-year-old daughter

REGARDED HIM FRIEND.

Mr. Judson has filed a $30,000 suit against Thornton, alleging alienation of Mrs. Judson's affections. There was a report after today's hearing that a divorce action might grow out of the case.

Attorney Robert Gallagher, counsel for Judson, said after the hearing that Judson had once regarded Thornton as his friend and had consulted regarding Judson's family troubles.

Mrs Judson is employed in the millinery department of a down-town department store

Thornton lives in North Allston street, Brighton The Judson home is near Thornton's Brighton store.

The raid which resulted in arrest of Mrs Judson and Thornton was conducted by Sergeant Patrick Morrissey and Special Officer Herbert Hankins of Back Bay Police Station upon complaints made by Judson.

TELL OF POLICE RAID.

Mrs Cora Chisholm, landlady at No. 344 Massachusetts avenue, testified that Thornton came to her Sunday, November 12, represented himself as a travelling salesman and engaged the use of a room for three nights a week, Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday. The next Thursday night, November 16, he brought a woman there. Mrs. Chisholm could not identify Mrs. Judson as the woman however Chisholm the landlord, testified to Sergeants Morrissey and Judson coming to the lodging house Sunday night, November 19, and asking to see the room Thornton had hired. The sergeant knocked at the room door and a man's voice replied that the door would be opened "in a minute," but it was not. Then the landlord took the officer to another door which opened into the room.

The man who had agreed to open the other door was gone, but a woman, whom the witness identified as Mrs. Judson, was buttoning her shoes.

Sergeant Morrissey corroborated the landlord's story, and added that the woman said her name was Jones.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

WORCESTER SLAYER ACCEPTS HIS FATE

New York, Nov 27.—Alric Westling of Worcester, murderer, will establish a precedent by failing to ask the Governor for commutation of his sentence to life imprisonment. Westling says he will go to the electric chair January 8 without asking this. He was convicted of killing Samuel Mollar, Brear Jewelen.

IS HE VERY DUMB? "NO KO" CASTLIONI "BILL" BAKER — JAZZ COTTER "PINO" COTTER — FINE VILLA "PAT" FOURNIER

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

HE'S SO DUMB HE THINKS FOOTBALL COACHES GO ROUND ON WHEELS! "DEANO" PROFFETT "FEET" — "TWO STEP" DIGAN — "IRISH JOE"

VILLA AND MONTREAL IN BIG BATTLE AT ARENA TONIGHT

FILIPINO TO RELY ON HIS PUNCH TO WIN

By JACK CONWAY.

Pancho Pancho Villa and Young Montreal will stage a little Harvard-Yale affair of their own at the Arena A. C.'s show at the Boston Arena tonight. The rival warriors are authority for the statement that the conflict between the Crimson and the Blue was merely a pink tea affair when compared with the evening's contest.

Pancho Villa

Villa will attempt to play the gallant part of Owen A 24-foot ring prevents 65-yard runs and such things, but the little Filipino says he will nevertheless grab enough glory to satisfy one who only weighs 113 to 114 pounds.

Montreal calmly remarks:

"I'll win."

Rather a peppery statement; also a terse one. Our experience as a boxing writer has taught us that the young men who require a column of space to tell what they are going to do to the other fellow seldom do any effective banging in the ring, while the individual who does not talk a great deal about himself is more likely to be smiling after the decision has been rendered.

For the benefit of some of our younger readers who may have just returned from an arctic trip, it is proper to chronicle that Villa is the flyweight champion of the world. We consider him one of the greatest men to ever don the padded gloves.

• • •

The Filipino came to this country virtually an unknown. A little more than a few months he had won the world's flyweight championship by knocking out Johnny Buff in eleven rounds. Since that impressive victory, he has walloped Danny Edwards in Boston and Abe Goldstein in New York. All of which has given his fellow Filipinos something to cheer about.

• • •

Pancho Panho is a natural fighter. He is fully developed, has tremendous neck and shoulder muscles and a heavy punch. When he crashes over a healthy sock, his opponent starts thinking of intercepted forward passes, goals from placement and such things.

There is no boxer in the world up to 118 pounds who can hit as hard as Villa.

Because all this, the Filipino wonder can't land a decisive style when it comes. He bobs around much on Jack Dempsey and is very hard to hit.

• • •

This is the young man Montreal, pride of Hinckle Island, will be called upon to meet tonight.

Montreal is called the uncrowned champion. He has beaten Pete Herman and Joe Lynch, and he did not time his victories very well, as neither of these men was bantamweight champion at the time he doubled entry lists through with his triumphs.

• • •

Montreal is a master boxer. He is especially effective when upping a punisher. Abe Feldman, a boxer is the only man who has ever caused Monty much trouble.

Montreal says his left jab will carry him to victory. He believes it will offset Villa's heavy sock.

• • •

A capacity crowd will witness tonight's battle. It is the most important ring booking made by a Boston club in years. The Arena A. C. was obliged to outbid Tex Rickard to get this particular plum.

The preliminary card will consist of three eight-round matches. Johnny Morello of East Boston will meet Willie Garo of the North End. Al Berry of East Boston will oppose Frankie Quill of Brockton, while Lew Paluso of N. Y. York will collide with Newport Johnny Brown

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

SAINTS PETER AND PAUL A. A. WIN, 7-6

The SS. Peter and Paul A. A. of South Boston defeated the Crow Indians of North End Park, 7 to 6, before a crowd of 1,000. The all-round playing of Benson, McGrath, Mc-Goudie and O'Day featured for the winners, while the work of De Matty and Manoli was good for the Indians.

In the first period a forward pass from O'Malley to Benson, followed by a 30-yard run, netted the score for the Saints. Benson drop kicked the goal.

The Crows made their touchdown by heavy line bucking. De Matty carried the ball across the line. The kick for a goal was blocked.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

COSTUME CARNIVAL AT ARENA OPENING

The costume skating carnival to be held at the opening of the Arena, Saturday night, will be a colorful affair.

Lovers of fancy figure and eccentric skating will have plenty to hold their attention, with skaters participating from all parts of the world.

After midnight, the huge floor will be frozen, and tomorrow hundreds of gallons of water will be spread on the surface. Supt. Meakher states that ice will be ready Thursday night.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

Pirates Want Games

The Pirates of Jamaica Plain desire football games with 110-pound teams. Games are wanted for Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Games are wanted especially with the Junior Jamaica Steam Rollers and the Jamaica Gingers. This team will play games either at home or away.

For games, write to John Tobin, No. 197 Green street, Jamaica Plain, or call Jamaica 3437-W, after 6 P. M. game for the Revere outfit.

Jack Conway Picks Villa to Win Arena Bout

W.		L.
89	Pancho Villa is Jack Conway's selection for the ten-round battle at the Arena A. C.'s show tonight.	15

"Villa is the wonder fighter of the ring," says Jack. "He can punch harder than most lightweights, while he is a flash in moving around the ring.

"Montreal always does his best work in the big bouts. Witness his wins over Pete Herman, Joe Lynch and Danny Edwards. But I don't think he will be able to upset the surge of the sensational Filipino."

P. C. .855

POSTAL BOWLERS START TONIGHT

Joseph F. O'Gorman, president of the Boston Postoffice Bowling League, has been busy the past few weeks preparing for the opening tonight.

J. F. O'Gorman.

Postal officials have been invited to attend the initial opening, which promises to be a bang up affair. The following teams are scheduled to roll: Essex Office vs. Boston Annex, Back Bay Station vs. Bookkeeping Department, Paperroom vs. Stamp Division and City Subs vs. Financial Department.

The league will meet every Monday evening throughout the season and the winning outfit will be awarded a silver loving cup, and a number of cash prizes will make it an interesting tournament for the postal men.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

PERE MARQUETTES DEFEAT OKO CLUB

The Pere Marquette Council, K. of C., defeated the Oko Club of Brockton, 3 to 0. The game was played at Aquarium Park, South Boston, and 9,000 attended.

In the third period Higgins made a field goal from the 15-yard mark, and O'Leary scored a touchdown in the last quarter on a criss-cross play.

Higgins' 42-yard run in running back a kick off in the third period was the feature.

O'Leary, McNevins and O'Brien played well for Pere Marquette and Moncewicz, Archer and Kelley for the Okos.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

CAMBRIDGE LEGION TIES REVERE ELKS

A spectacular football game, played at Russell Field, North Cambridge, between Revere Elks and the Cambridge Legion elevens, resulted in a 3 to 3 tie. With two minutes to play, Haines, the husky Legion fullback, stepped back and kicked a nifty goal from placement from the 45-yard line, thereby saving Cambridge from defeat.

Revere played a strong game and threatened the Legion goal line on several occasions, but lost the ball on fumbles. Stowell, Harrington and Kelley, brothers played a strong game for the Revere outfit.

Says NICK

Flatley:

Harvard Victory Proved Well Drilled Team Is Always Superior to Individuals

HARVARD AND YALE.

HARVARD'S startling and glorious victory at New Haven Saturday offers a very shining example of the benefits of thoroughness. The Crimson team played as a team. Physically it was inferior to the crowd of Yale giants. Hardly one shrewd judge in a dozen could give it a chance a short week ago.

• • •

Yet as the minutes rolled along there at the Bowl, it was evident that a well drilled, finely conditioned, speedy team, was about the superior of a flock of splendid individuals, who couldn't seem to get their abilities united for any consistent length of time.

• • •

It was one more great victory for a system that is based on perfection in fundamentals, a system that heads for one objective, and is not switched off the path by the incidents that crop up in the road in the course of a season.

• • •

Means also, another coaching change at Yale, unless we miss our guess. The glory that used to have its permanent residence in New Haven will never come back until some system is sensibly adopted, and followed through to its logical conclusion

GEORGE OWEN will undoubtedly land on the various All-American teams that are about to clutter up the sport sky for a week or two. This's being the only team left for the versatile Newton athlete to make. It's fitting that his last gridiron surge for the Crimson should elevate him there.

ANOTHER "BIG" GAME

WHILE we're on the subject of football, it might be well to remark that another "crucial" contest arrives Saturday, to pull down the curtain on a season that has been jammed with surprises from the day the first whistle tooted. When Boston College and Holy Cross stage their annual collision at Braves Field, all the elements of a glorious windup will be present

• • •

Both elevens play hard, rugged football, and have individuals who can turn in the thrills that make the fans forget the biting fall wind and the icy touch of the concrete foundations to the suffering feet

• • •

Holy Cross, after a poor start, developed wonderfully as the weeks rolled by, and just about now could give any man's team a really turbulent afternoon. B. C. showed remarkable possibilities early in the campaign, was bogged by injuries in mid-season, but in early once again to years great he ghts as a gridiron machine.

• • •

And there's the element of bitter rivalry between the teams, as earnest a brand as you can find in a survey of the far flung land. Looks like a fitting conclusion for a year that has satisfied the most exacting lover of the pigskin chasers.

A MONTH FROM TODAY.

THE stores will be crowded.

Though sales will be slack. As the birds with the presents Are bringing 'em back.

A SAP'S FABLES.

ONCE there was a football team that went into a game a big favorite. It couldn't be beaten. It held onto the ball and smashed the other line all apart, and put up a big score, and the other fellows never had a chance, never did get within scoring distance.

Moral—It wasn't this year.

FOOTBALL RESOLUTIONS.

I'LL never bet on them again.

For three years now, it's looked like a cinch. Couldn't lose this time; only I did I'll tell the world I'm through.

• • •

Here I go and break my neck, and spend a lot of jack to get a couple of tickets and then I miss the last train. That let's me out.

• • •

Can you imagine a guy wanting his six dollars back, because he couldn't use the tickets? Just as if I could help it. I'll say I'm off of that stuff for life.

GROUCH CHASERS.

THINK of the fellow who gets a big thr ll From the sock and the wallop at fights; Who never would miss Any scrap, save for this— If's write makes him read to her, nights.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

Two Hockey Games

The final games in the Greater Boston Interscholastic Girls' Field Hockey League will be played this week. Winthrop will play Lexington tomorrow, and Arlington and Dedham will play at Stone Park, Dedham, tomorrow or Friday.

YALE FOOTBALL NETS NEARLY HALF MILLION

By Universal Service.

New Haven, Ct., Nov. 27.—Although Yale, which closed with defeat by Harvard, contained three defeats at the hands, respectively, of Iowa, Princeton and the Crimson, it was the most successful season financially in the history of Yale.

The bowl was twice filled to its capacity. There were 77,000 persons present for the games with Harvard and West Point and 55,000 saw the Iowa bout. Ten games, two more than usual, were scheduled. Yale played before 50,000 persons at Princeton.

The total receipts for the year will reach between $400,000 and $500,000, breaking all previous American college records.

Plans for next season are already being made. The election of captain will lie among Bill Mallory, fullback; Nevil Neidlinger, quarterback, and Charley O' Hearn, halfback. Mallory's selection is generally conceded.

Despite the triple defeat record of this season the coaching regime of Ted Jones is praised by football officials, alumni and undergraduates and there is nothing to indicate a change. Jones is under contract with Yale for another season.

At the annual football banquet, over which Major Louis F. Stoddard, the International Team polo player, presided as chairman of the graduate football committee, expressions of loyalty to the present coaches were given Speeches were made by George Adee, Dr. Fred Murphy, Malcolm Aldrich, former Captain Foster Rockwell, former Head Coach Ted Jones, Clarence Mendell, head of the general athletic committee, and John Blossom, recently appointed director of athletics.

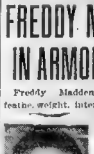
No Yale player was injured in Saturday's game.

FREDDY MADDEN IN ARMORY BOUT

Freddy Madden, East Boston feather weight, intends to break into the select fistic circle. He will start his campaign when he meets Henry Ford of the North End in one of the ten-round bouts at the Armory A. A.'s show at the Grand Opera House Wednesday night.



Freddy Madden

Madden has always been a satisfactory performer, but for some unknown reason has fallen short of championship class

The East Boston youth recently joined Eddie Mack's stable of boxers. Eddie believes that improper training methods upset Madden in his big bouts. So Mack has changed all and says Madden is fit for the toughest kind of a test.

Ford is also a tidy performer and looks forward to scoring a win.

The final ten round bout will bring together Red Chapman who recently defeated Mickey Travers, and Freddy Williams. Both boys hail from Worchester and there is considerable rivalry between them.

There will also be a couple of eight-round bouts.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

PUGILIST'S WIFE IS PRIZE BEAUTY

Mrs. Glyceria Villa, wife of Pancho Villa, American flyweight champion, was awarded first prize in a beauty contest held in Manila. Mrs. Villa is only fifteen years old and became the wife of the flyweight battler a short time before he came to the United States about a year ago. She attends all the fights in which her husband takes part. Villa himself has been pronounced one of the fastest boxers in the world.

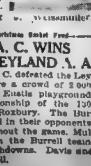
Mrs. J. Villa.

Photo by International News Reel.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

WEISSMULLER TO REMAIN AT HOME

New York, Nov. 27.—Johnny Weissmuller, the youthful swimming marvel of the Illinois A. C., has declined an invitation extended him to engage in a competitive tour of New Zealand and Australia this Winter. Home engagements make it impossible for him to undertake the long trip.



Weissmuller.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

BURRELL A. C. WINS FROM LEYLAND A. A.

The Burrell A. C. defeated the Leyland A. A. before a crowd of 2,000, at the William Knabe playground, for the championship of the 130-pound class of Roxbury. The Burrells had the ball in their opponents' territory throughout the game. Mulvey, halfback on the Burrell team, made three touchdowns. Davis and Kirby played well.

CHAMPION HOPPE IN EXHIBITION

Willie Hoppe, balkline billiard king of the world, opens a five day engagement at the State Theatre Club rooms this afternoon at 3 o'clock The evening match is scheduled for eight. A communication the wizard will be received by Peterson, trick shot wizard, and a player of considerable note at balkline as well.

Willie Hoppe.

His interesting talk on the game, as well as his large repertoire of trick shots will follow the exhibition matches of 400 points. Extra seating arrangements have been made to handle a large turnout, as Hoppe always has been a favorite in this city.

Just how much truth there is in the statement that Hoppe is suffering an infliction of the arm which makes masse shots difficult can be solved by these exhibitions.

According to Manager Benjamin it is nothing new for the leading cue to have illness from the uncles and mind refuses to coordinate

The fact that Hoppe won the championship indicates that his usual high class exhibit on will take place, and with Peterson who will take the place of the Jap star originally booked an usual exhibition is sure to result.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

JIMMY FRUZETTI IN BOUT TONIGHT

Jimmy Fruzetti, Brockton lightweight, will battle Sally Green of Montreal in a ten-round bout before the National Sporting Club of Montreal tonight.

Jimmy Fruzetti.

Eddie Shevlin, New England welterweight champion, recently showed in the Canadian city and made such a big hit that there was a demand for the appearance of other New England boxers.

Fruzetti is in good condition and expects to come through with a win

Johnny Fox of the West End and Henry Ford of the North End will show on the same card. They will be pitted against local boys.

Billy Henderson piloted the New England party to Montreal

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

NEE AND BARNETT IN SALEM BOUT

On Thanksgiving Day afternoon at 3:15 at Salem Tommy Nee of South Boston and Red Barnett of Fall River will battle for the flyweight championship of New England. Barnett holds a decision over Nee. As both are going on high it should be a real attraction for Salem.

Buddy Clark, the best boy Salem has turned out in years, will meet a worthy opponent in Johnny Soulby in the eight-round semi-final.

Gunboat Jack and Young McDonough box six rounds.

Johnny Goslyn and Ramie Melanson is the opening six-rounder.

Schoolboy Football Games This Week

WEDNESDAY.

Mechanic Arts vs. Trade at Tech Field.

South Boston vs. East Boston on Alumni Field.

THURSDAY.

English High vs. Boston Latin at Braves Field, 9:30 a. m.

Dorchester vs. Commerce at Braves Field, 11:15 a. m.

Medford at Malden.

Hingle at Somerville.

Brookline at Newton.

Everett vs. Cambridge Latin at Russell Field, North Cambridge.

Lynn Classical vs. Lynn English at Little River, Lynn.

Marblehead at Swampscott.

Revere at Winthrop.

Beverly at Salem.

St. John's Prep vs. St. James' High at Haverhill.

Peabody at Haverhill.

Natick a. Framingham.

B. C. High at Waltham.

Lowell at Lawrence.

Gloucester at Newburyport.

Abington at Whitman.

Leominster at Fitchburg.

Braintree vs. Thayer Academy at Braintree.

Arlington at Melrose.

Concord Alumni at Concord High.

Exeter High at Amesbury.

Essex Aggies at Danvers.

Watertown at Norwood.

Milford at Mansfield.

——Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund——

SHAMROCKS DEFEAT APEX ELEVEN, 12-0

The Shamrock eleven of Brighton outplayed the Apex team of Hanbury at the Reservoir field, and won 12 to 0. They scored their touchdowns in the second and final periods, Shaw and McCarthy made them. McCarthy made a thirty-yard run on his touchdown.

HOLIDAY GAMES NAME SCHOOL CHAMPIONS

By FRED C. LANE.

With three championships depending on the results of Thanksgiving Day's games, the schoolboys of the Suburban, North Shore and Boston High School Leagues will buckle down to hard work for the next three days to insure a win for their respective teams.

It is the first time in the history of the gridiron that three championships will be settled by the holiday games.

Malden High and Ringe Technical are deadlocked for honors in the Suburban League. Lynn Classical and Marblehead are on even terms in the seaside circuit, and English High and Boston Latin have the championship of the City High School League to quarrel over at Braves Field.

There is a chance that two of the league will be forced to play a post-season game to decide the title.

Ringge should win over Somerville High. The Malden-Medford game is a toss up. Malden played well at times but also fell down badly against weak teams.

Medford has a smooth-working eleven. It is in third place with one point separating it from the deadlocked teams. Malden encountered trouble in beating Medford in past years and the same situation confronts the eleven this fall.

The North Shore League fight is as doubtful. Marblehead will play Swampscott and should have little trouble winning. The Swampscott team is not to be compared with the elevens of other years.

Marblehead has not been whipped, although threatened on numerous occasions. Lynn Classical has a man's size job before it to triumph over Lynn English.

Coach Joyce's team did the unexpected Saturday when they shattered Peabody's chances by defeating the Tanners. Classical will enter the holiday fray a favorite.

The Classical team was a heavy favorite last year, yet was fortunate to hold their opponents to a no-score contest. Coach Sexton's boys have won the last four games.

English High is considered the strongest in the English-Latin contest slated for Braves Field at 9:15 A. M. The Blue and Blue has a smooth working backfield that has performed to the queen's taste.

The most notable of the English achievements was the Marblehead affair. Although the Boston boys did not win, they outplayed the Headers in all departments

DODGE BROTHERS SEDAN

Many who could well afford more expensive cars are showing a marked preference for Dodge Brothers Sedan.

They find it easy to drive, economical to run, and comparable in beauty and elegance with cars much higher in price.

In the vest amplitude of Dodge Brothers closed body plant, this sedan is constructed with all the studious precision that marks the work of the finest custom builders.

Eighteen days are devoted alone to the 18 rubbing and varnishing operations which are responsible for the unusual brilliancy of its lustre.

Months of seasoning precede the use of the fine, critically selected ash which gives the body its rugged firmness.

The interior fittings, too, are chosen with thoughtfulness and rare good taste. The upholstery is covered with genuine mohair velvet of a singularly rich and beautiful pattern. The seats are roomy and luxurious.

Steel disc wheels (with cord tires) harmonize in a most effective way with the new grace and smartness which Dodge Brothers have recently brought to the lines of the body.

The Price is $1550 delivered

ANNOUNCEMENT

Today and Tomorrow—November 27-28

OUR EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY AS

Dodge Brothers dealers will be recognized.

You are invited to view a unique display of all the latest type cars. 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

HENSHAW MOTOR CO.

989 COMMONWEALTH AVE., BOSTON

66 Exchange St. Lynn — 90 Cabot St. Beverly — 76 Washington St. Quincy

BOSTON AMERICAN

BOSTON'S LIVE WIRES | THE HILTON BUNCH H-4-5 D ST SOUTHY

"BUBBLES" DEVINE | "JAZZ BO" McCORMICK | "SAINT JOHN" | "MYSTERIOUS AL" SMITH | "JOHNNY" FLEMING | "FORDY" CAMPBELL

WHAT'S YOUR LIST?

SPORTS

BRAINS WON OVER BRAWN IN HARVARD-YALE CONTEST

ELI'S GREAT STRENGTH WASTED IN GRID GAME

By CHARLES E. PARKER.

For consistency you can't beat the Yale football team

One week ago at Princeton Yale netted 15 first downs to Princeton's four, and gained in rushes and forward passes 291 yards to Princeton's 115, yet Yale lost the football game.

Last Saturday, at New Haven, Yale earned 10 first downs to Harvard's three and gained in rushes and forward passes 279 yards to Harvard's 105, yet Yale again lost the football game.

But to our rebellection has a football team turned in on successful Saturday performances so stupid as those of the Yale eleven in the past two weeks, and but in our recollection have such successful Saturdays performances so stupid as did Princeton and Harvard in their respective games with Yale.

In the first period of the Princeton game, Yale marched up the field for a seemingly sure touchdown only to lose the ball on downs on Princeton's one-yard line in the first period of the Harvard game Yale, after recovering a Harvard fumble, engaged in a similar march only to be checked on Harvard's four-yard line.

And the parallels continue right up to the final flurry of successful forward passes late in the last period of both contests.

Yale Has Consistently Showed Itself Strong

Yale has been a consistent team.

And yet, despite the consistency of Yale followers seem far from enthusiastic for in addition to this consistency of play, Yale in each game this season has consistently shown itself to possess the greatest array of football talent and the greatest potential strength in the air, if not in the country, and the men have a smashing assortment of that talent and strength had been handled properly, he would have proved unconquerable.

But that talent has not been developed properly either in the direction of individual development or from the coaching bench.

Of course Yale might have won the game had two or three little happenings varied in the slightest degree, but even such a varying would not have enabled Yale to win by the robust margin Yale should have won that game.

Harvard Never Would Have Scored Touchdown

If, for example, Charley O'Hearn's fifth punt had sailed against Ed Casey's ear instead of into it, for example, George Owen had held his drop after he received that wild pass and Harvard never would have scored its touchdown.

Had the ball hit Gehrke's toe or instep it would have been ruled a loose ball kicked at, and presented to Yale at the spot when it rolled with the Harvard player who scored his touchdown.

Had Owen kept his feet he could have received little or no assistance from a half dozen of his teammates and without their assistance Owen never could have pierced the phalanx of Elis who were converging upon him, and thus his 50-yard journey to Yale's three-yard mark would have been checked ere it had traveled the final ten yards of its course.

Way Cleared for Owen After He Had Floundered

None of the Sunday accounts dwelt upon the latter point.

This was the situation:

As Owen grabbed up the hoodlike sight or nine of the Elis came tearing down the field. Between them and him were only two Harvard men, the others being to the left and to the rear of the Newton boy. But George floundered or tripped shortly after he gathered up the ball, and the delay involved in his almost sprawling upon the field enabled his trailing teammates to surge over or up in front of him, where they promptly did crushing business in wrecking the best-going Klan, and when Owen finally righted himself the way had been made all but clear for him.

That was falling down on the job to good purpose.

It Was the Old Bean That Won for Harvard

There were many other ifs, ands and buts to the game, but the most popular one among football men this morning is:

"What would have been the outcome if Yale coaches and quarterback composed the football understandings of their Harvard rivals?"

It was the old bean that won out for Harvard. Just as it has been doing for many, many years.

In material Harvard was outmatched in virtually every position for the hitherto unimpressive Yale backfield played their best of the season against Harvard in plays Harvard was outmatched in the line, indeed to the ground gained and first downs made by Yale.

Only in its selection of plays and in the spirit of its men did Harvard show to the fore. Yet Harvard won the game and none will deny Harvard deserved to win.

GENERALSHIP IN INTERPERIOD.

Perhaps the best comparison of the generalship of Harvard and Yale quarterbacks was shown in the first period of the game.

When Harvard had opportunity to score, Buell ordered a formation which any one of several plays could develop, then advanced the starting signal one number, and with Yale fearful of a forward pass an off tackle sweep, and a line buck, cracked the latter on the earlier signal and beat Yale on the choice.

When Yale had opportunity to score Harvard relied on a repetitious play and the formation employed had little threat of anything else and was exactly the wrong thing to attempt on Harvard after the Crimson's experience with such a play in the Princeton game, for if there was one play Harvard was not likely to slip on it was the play that Princeton fooled it with three weeks since.

Blame Must Be Placed On the Yale Coaches

When generalship of this character continues through a season as it has through the Yale season the blame cannot be placed on much upon the Yale quarterback as upon the Yale coaches. Yale showed plenty of scoring plays in Yale's various trips down the field, both in the Princeton and the Harvard games, but never used them when a scoring opportunity came.

The Harvard team, probably the weakest eleven Harvard has had in fifteen years, played a truly remarkable game against its potentially much stronger foe. Only twice could the Crimson pass Yales 40-yard line in the nine hour periods of play but on the first occasion Harvard scored its touchdown and on the second Harvard scored its field goal which is cashing almost the full 100 per cent. on scoring opportunities.

Crimson Wing Men Deserve Highest Praise

The thrilling parts (George Owen getting through and Charley Buell and Carl Pfaffman played to the time tilled columns of space in the Sunday newspapers) but in one case it was well deserved. But other Harvard players deserved more liberal mention than they received.

The Crimson wingmen in particular are due the highest praise. Reformed halfback Holder, a reformed centre, and Hill, a player none expected to star, all played a nifty exhibition of how the wings should play. Bill proving a real find and a man who will be heard from next year.

Charley Hubbard played his usual sterling game at guard; Kenhardt took over the injured Greek's assignment and filled the role most capably, and Clark at centre and Dunker at tackle performed mighty well against the ponderous Elis.

The success of the Yale Bowl game, also those contests involving Dartmouth and Brown and Detroit and Washington and Jefferson, join

Outdoor Sports

Copyright, 1926, by International Feature Service, Inc. Registered U. S. Patent Office.

By TAD

WEST ST
OUTDOOR SPORTS
FALLING A COW PUNCHER FROM THE WILD AND WOOLY WEST AS HE GETS RAUCOUS DOWN BY A STREET CAR NORTH IN THE BIG CITY

Hey, Football Fan, Get Wise to This!

Hey There! Mr. Football Fan. One week from today, there will appear in the editions of the Boston American, the All-America football teams selected by Charles E. Parker, the gridiron expert of this paper

Parker's teams each year are considered the best in the country. Aiding him in assembling information on players from all over the country are the ablest football authorities in the land. He leaves nothing to guess work or chance, and he plays no favorites.

His study of the candidates begins at mid season. Those who have made a record for consistent, better-than-average play, are listed as possibilities, and careful record of their work is kept from then on.

With the season's ending next Saturday the records of the men are revealed in accounts of their games, and in the experts of Parker's many reports, are checked up and balanced and to the most deserving go the honors.

Don't miss this annual football treat in next Monday's issue of the Boston American.

STAR MAT CARD IS BILLED FOR HOLIDAY

Frank Yusko, undefeated Lithuanian champion will try to upset the winning urge of George Calza, Italian champion, in a finish wrestling bout at a show to be staged by the Old Howard management at the Grand Opera House on Thanksgiving Day night.

Yusko is a fast grappler and has been particularly successful in his bouts in this city. He has disposed of an array of tough opposition without a great deal of trouble.

Calza will give the Lithuanian a real test. The Italian champion showed the best form of his career when he won over Cliff Buckley at the Boston Arena last week. Calza has always been a powerful fellow but he has now developed science and as a result is virtually unbeatable.

George Williams, the German giant, and Young Maria, the new Italian sensation, will appear in another bout.

The preliminary will bring together Stanley Stasiak, the Polish terrible, and Ivan Michailoff, the human sphinx.

It is a bang-up card of action and should please.

Ivan Michailoff

EAGLE MEETS PURPLE IN CLOSING GAME

The Georgetown game was somewhat disappointing to Boston followers, as they hoped the Eagle would even up old scores with the Capitolians before tackling Holy Cross in the final game of the season. Boston might have won, it is said, had it not made the best of seven opportunities to score. The Eagle outplayed the Southerners, but failed in the crises.

The Georgetown episode is already forgotten, however, at least by the Eagle players. Their minds now are set on the Holy Cross game. To beat Holy Cross is their one aim. In this game they will fight their hardest. They consider that the only worse thing than a Holy Cross win is two successive wins by the Purple. This, they are determined, shall not happen.

The Purple players had a holiday Saturday, and as guests of Boston Nationals, the Georgetown game. It may be that the presence of the Purple players and their scouts was the reason why Coach Cavanaugh refused to show any of his special tricks Boston can play much better than it did against the South erners as Holy Cross will learn on Saturday.

Eagle Must Show Improvement to Beat Holy Cross.

Purple followers who saw Boston play declare that the Eagle must show a big improvement if it hopes to hold Holy Cross. A comparative record seems to justify this assertion, but comparative records are not always infallible when the two teams meet after a season's rest in their annual autumnal lawn party.

Holy Cross has an enviable record. The Purple has defeated Vermont, the conqueror of Dartmouth, Springfield, the victor over Detroit, and Georgetown, with whom the Eagle fought a scoreless tie. Harvard alone has put a black mark on the Purple slate.

Holy Cross stands at the top of the "Big Four" list. The Worcesterites defeated Fordham and Georgetown. Boston won over Fordham, so did the Blue and Gray.

Fordham, Down at Bottom, Sure of Its Position

Fordham alone of the "Big Four" is sure of its standing. It occupies the last place, and the result of the Purple-Boston game will not alter its position. If Boston defeats Holy Cross, it will be tied with the Purple for first place, while if the Eagle loses it will occupy second place with Georgetown.

Saturday's game will be the last for Heaphy and Cumerford, two veteran Eagle players. Heaphy has occupied the pivot position for three years and has yet to meet his superior. This makes Comerford's fourth season as left end on the Boston team. Both men have starred all through their college course, and can be expected to make their final appearance in the football stage an impressive one.

Eagle Starts on its Last Week of Training.

This afternoon, Coach Cavanaugh starts the Eagle on its last week of training. All the regulars will be in perfect shape by Saturday, and they will be primed for the hardest game of the year.

Several new plays which have been perfected in the last few weeks will be used against Holy Cross. Boston will make the supreme effort of the season on Saturday, determined to make it Boston's biggest day.

Boston's defensive strength was clearly shown on Saturday when the Eagle line held firmly, with a few exceptions. Against the terrific plunges of the Georgetown backs, Kozlowski and Paten deserved special mention for their excellent work. They have improved greatly since the first of the season, and Kozlowski, in particular, has suffered only a few injuries he suffered played the best game of his career.

Will Need Powerful Attack as Well as Strong Defence.

Boston will need a powerful attack as well as a strong defence to win over Holy Cross. Ward, Cronin and Darling will be depended upon to smash the Purple line. Boston has not yet faced a line that Ward could not break through, while Darling has been a consistent bundle of speed and power in battering the line, circling the ends and running back punts.

An all-round back better than Darling has not appeared this season in the East. When the time comes for choosing football's All-American backs Darling will merit the consideration of those who pick America's best.

B. U.'S RIFLE TEAM MAKES SCHEDULE

The schedule for the Boston Rifle Team has been announced by Coach George Lewis as follows:

December 5—Rutgers
December 12—Princeton
January 2—Vermont
January 15—Long State
January 27—1st Army of Washington
February 13—Pennsylvania
February 19—Cornell (Pending)
March 5—Navy
March 19—Dartmouth
March 27—Georgetown
March 30—Oxford (Pending)

Besides these matches the team has entered the New England Intercollegiate and the National Rifle Association matches.

This year a very light but rigid schedule has been arranged so as to keep the men primed for the national matches which will be their objective.

R. E. Thompson a new man out for the team, is a good shooter and as he is consistent, and can be depended upon to turn in a good score, will up in the prone.

Captain Raymond Shelvin, E. Woodward, H. Dodds, L. F. Hall, H. B. Stevinson, F. Rossiter and R. Dustin are all letter men who are fighting hard for a place in the team this year.

With such men as Clay, Bryant, Morgan, Blanchard Richmond, Lord and Dodge showing high scores, these veterans will be given stiff opposition.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

BROOKLINE BOY IS RUTGERS CAPTAIN

Newark, N. J., Nov. 27.—Bill Kingman of Brookline was elected captain of the Rutgers College football team for the season when the game with Bucknell Saturday at New Brunswick, N. J.

Kingman has been a member of the Rutgers varsity eleven for three years. He played guard. Kingman holds the honor of having played three times against Holy Cross.

Besides these matches the team has entered the New England Intercollegiate and the National Rifle Association matches.

This year a very light but rigid schedule has been arranged so as to keep the men primed for the national matches which will be their objective.

R. E. Thompson a new man out for the team, is a good shooter and as he is consistent, and can be depended upon to turn in a good score, will up in the prone.

Captain Raymond Shelvin, E. Woodward, H. Dodds, L. F. Hall, H. B. Stevinson, F. Rossiter and R. Dustin are all letter men who are fighting hard for a place in the team this year.

With such men as Clay, Bryant, Morgan, Blanchard Richmond, Lord and Dodge showing high scores, these veterans will be given stiff opposition.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

WESLEYAN NAMES BASKETBALL DATES

Middletown, Conn., Nov. 27.—The Wesleyan basket ball schedule contains sixteen games of which six, those with New York University, University of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts Agricultural College, University of Vermont and Yale, are new.

The list is as follows:

Dec. 8—Clark University.
Dec. 10—New York University at New York.
Dec. 20—University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.
Jan. 12—Williams at Williamstown.
Jan. 15—Tufts at Medford.
Jan. 20—Rowes at Providence.
Jan. 27—Massachusetts Agricultural College.
Feb. 8—Connecticut Agricultural College.
Feb. 12—University of Vermont.
Feb. 15—Williams at Middletown.
Feb. 19—Yale at New Haven.
Feb. 22—Trinity.
Feb. 24—Amherst.
Feb. 26—Tufts.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

JESS WILLARD MAY BOX FLOYD JOHNSON

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Charles Mooney learns that Jess Willard will accept his offer to box Floyd Johnson at Buffalo late in January or February, if he does not make arrangements for a meeting with Dempsey within the next three weeks.

Johnson is the young Iowa heavyweight sensation who scored seven knockouts around New York City.

Murray started Willard on his road to fame. He was the first to show Jess in the East.

is the big list of upsets for the season.

Dartmouth's display, especially when it played without the services of its ablest lineman, "Pudge" Neidlinger, is highly pleasing to the host of Dartmouth followers in Greater Boston.

FITTONS TO OPEN SEASON THURSDAY

On Thanksgiving night the Fitton A. C. Basketball team will open the season with the Bunker Hill five. The Bunker Hill Five, formerly known as the Bunker Hill K. of C., were the champions of the K. of C. League last year.

The following players will appear in the Fitton lineup: Costello, Barrett, Morley, Silva, Fox and Kennedy.

All home games will be played in "Columbus Hall," formerly Sumner Hall.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

LEXINGTON GIRLS WIN AT FIELD HOCKEY

The official standing of the eight clubs in the two divisions of the Boston Field Hockey Association shows that the Lexington Field Hockey Club won the division A title.

The Free Rosters won in division B, and opposed Lexington for the association honors, but lost 8 goals to 4.

ROAMERS TIE WITH MEDWAYS AT NEWTON

In a scrappy exhibition of foot ball on the Newton Town Field before 5,000 persons the Roamers of Dorchester and the Medway football team played a 7 to 7 tie game. An intercepted forward pass by L. Desmond in the last minute of the last half saved the Medway eleven a defeat.

The Roamers had the best of the game and its playing was featured by Schlitt, Gilbert and Donovan.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

TUNNEY TO FIGHT CHARLEY WEINERT

New York, Nov. 27.—Gene Tunney has trained hard for Wednesday night's bout with Charley Weinert at Madison Square Garden. Weinert is anxious to turn the tables on his rival. Tunney is anxious to grab this bout, for it will make it all the better for him when he will box Harry Greb, December 19.

MILLION TO DEMPSEY FOR THREE BATTLES

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Jack Dempsey, passing through Chicago on his way to Salt Lake City to fill a vaudeville engagement, says that he has accepted an offer from Al H. Woods, theatrical promoter, to meet Ed "Strangler" Lewis, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, in a mixed bout and two heavyweight boxers to be selected by the promoter.

Dempsey will receive $1,000,000 for the three bouts and the time and place will be agreed upon after Dempsey returns East, following the close of his vaudeville tour of the coast.

The two boxers Dempsey will meet likely will be Harry Wills, the New Orleans negro, and Joe Beckett, British heavyweight champion, Kearns said. Woods' million dollar offer to Dempsey was made while the heavyweight boxing champion was in Memphis. He has had it under consideration for a week and Kearns today wired Woods of his acceptance.

TO VISIT PARENTS.

Under the conditions of his bout with "Strangler" Lewis, the men are to use either boxing or wrestling tactics. A peculiar feature of the proposed match is that Dempsey began his athletic career as a wrestler, while Lewis started out as a boxer, both later changing their professions.

After completing a week's engagement in Salt Lake City, Dempsey's vaudeville contract calls for a week in Los Angeles, where he will visit his parents, and a week in San Diego, after which he and Kearns will jump to New York to close negotiations with Woods.

TUFTS BLAMES DEFEAT ON POOR WING MEN

Followers of Tufts football fortunes are uncertain whether they should be dejected over the loss of the B. U. game or rejoice because this year's team was such an improvement on the 1921 eleven.

Tufts can blame the defeat of last Saturday to two things, lack of a real field general and to inexperienced end play.

When Coach Eddie Casey took up the reins at Tufts Oval the first thing that he did after the conditioning stage was over, was to equip the eleven with a system of deceptive attack based on the Harvard system.

Delayed passes, the hidden ball plays and wide end runs were made from those formations, and in the early games the team perfected these plays.

The eleven had the proper offensive equipment but when huskier opposing wens met and when defeat stared the Jumbo team in the face, this attack was never unloosened but Tufts would line-plunge right up to the sound of the final whistle.

Although the Tufts backs were of the fast, shifty type rather than linebreakers and Brown and Blue quarterback always insisted upon rushes directed at the centre of the line.

The Tufts forward line possessed an abundance of good material and under the coaching of Walter Cleary showed superiority over every opposing line. From tackle to tackle the Tufts line was almost impregnable. A complete set of substitutes practically on a par with the first string guards and tackles could be thrown into the game.

Injuries to the varsity ends key the positions continually in a weakened state, and it was there in the B. U. game that Cochrane did most of his ground gaining. Cochrane is right end was tested again and again in the first period.

Of the nine games played, five resulted in victories by the Medford college and four were defeats. The total scores were Tufts 88, opponents 52. Only four men will be lost through graduation and prospects for a much improved team next season are good. Most of the players have just completed their first year of varsity football and will be more experienced men in 1923.

A captain will be elected at the banquet tendered the team by the Tower Cross Society on December 4. Don Carr, Ward Tyler, the big tackle, Eddie Cash, one of the best ends to ever represent the Brown and Blue, Red Barrett and Carl Riley, man are possibilities for the office.

Neponset Wanderers Top Xmas Fund List

The Neponset Wanderers, leading organization in Greater Boston in amateur and semi-pro circles, are the run true to form in the biggest things of life. They have taken the lead in helping the Boston American Sporting Depart ment's Christmas Basket Fund.

Through their president Dan Cummings, the Wanderers send in $25 and then by act an example for a few hundred other organizations here about. The club boys are always anxious to advertise for games and get little write ups. And they always get them. In return they should join hands with the rest of the sporting world and help our fund along.

Dan Cummings

It is the finest kind of advertising for them in the first place and in addition shows that they learn something of the season, and it is expected that several will join as time goes on.

The standing follows:

	Won	Lost	Pinfall
Neponset Wanderers	16	6	31,000
Moose No. 4	14	8	30,000
Franklins Club	14	8	29,000
Ward Lodge	13	9	28,000
Dorchester Tigers	12	10	27,000
Mayflowers	11	11	26,000
Fidelity Club	10	12	25,000
High average Wanderers, 1,000
High team Wanderers, 3,548

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

SHEVLIN FIGHTS IN NEW YORK THE 29TH

Eddie Shevlin will make his first appearance at Madison Square Garden, New York, on Wednesday, when he will meet Jimmie Kelly, the New York welterweight.

New Yorkers have been anxious to get a look at the Dartmouth instructor, and had hoped to see him battle Jack Britton for the crown. Mickey Walker threw the wrench into the works when he defeated Britton for the title.

Shevlin is in good condition. He returned from a victorious trip to Canada last week.

He says that he is ready to swap punches with the newly crowned king of the Welters.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

This Five Wants Games

The Benjamin Franklin basketball team of the West End House would like to hear from 118-pound teams in the state. All games on Saturday night at home, other nights away from home. H. Josephson, No. 45 Chambers street, City.

CASUALTY LEAGUE ONE OF BEST

Although time and again friends of Edward Quain refused acceptance

Edward F. Quain

his work to start a bowling league among Casualty Insurance companies, the young man kept right on devoting his spare time to idea and got results.

The league which got started only a few weeks ago, is one of the best bowling organizations in the Hub. Seven teams started at the beginning of the season, and it is expected that several will join as time goes on.

The standing follows:

	Won	Lost	Pinfall
Travelers	16	6	31,000
Massachusetts Bonding	14	8	30,000
Fidelity	14	8	29,000
Aetna	13	9	28,000
Employers Liability	12	10	27,000
Maryland	11	11	26,000
Globe Indemnity	10	12	25,000
Standard Accident	9	13	24,000
Fidelity	8	14	23,000
Hartford	7	15	22,000

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

WANDERERS LOSE TO ST. ALPHONSUS

The Mt. Alphonsus football team defeated the Neponset Wanderers, 24 to 8, at Walpole yesterday in one of the best played semi pro games staged in this section. The Roxbury team outclassed the Neponset eleven.

The feature of the game was the 80-yard run by Bill Whalen of the Saints when he intercepted a forward pass and ran the length of the field for a score. Connel was the big ground gainer for the winners, putting across two touchdowns.

—Give Row to Christmas Basket Fund—

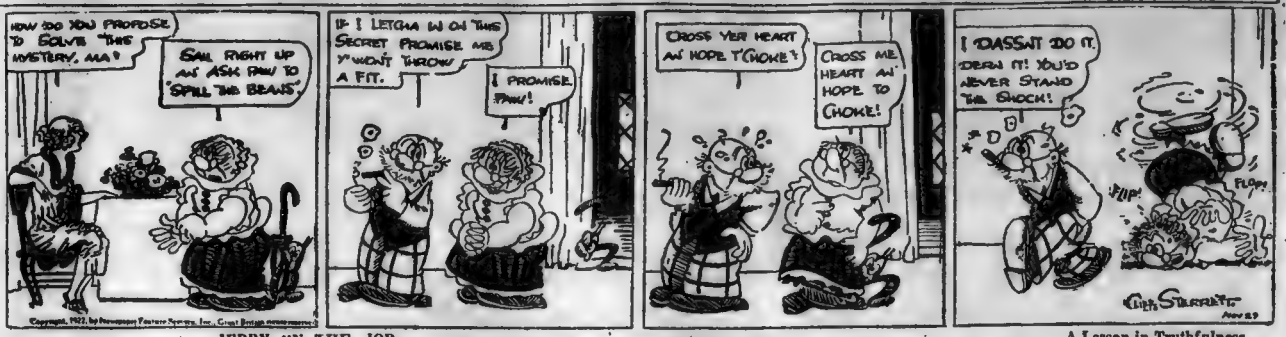
For Billerica Title

Billerica, Nov. 27.—The annual game for the football championship of Billerica will be played Wednesday afternoon between the Mitchell Military Boys and Howe High

ENJOY TWO PAGES OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST COMICS

Polly and Her Pals

by Cliff Sterrett



HOW DO YOU PROPOSE TO SOLVE THIS MYSTERY, MA?
SAIL RIGHT UP AN' ASK PAW TO "SPILL THE BEANS."
IF I LETCHA IN ON THIS SECRET PROMISE ME Y'WON'T THROW A FIT.
I PROMISE. PAW!
CROSS YER HEART AN' HOPE T'CHOKE?
CROSS ME HEART AN' HOPE TO CHOKE!
I DASSN'T DO IT. DERN IT! YOU'D NEVER STAND THE SHOCK!
FLIP!
FLOP!
Cliff Sterrett
Nov 27

Medbury Says People Who Cop Things are Not Guilty Until Caught

By John P. Medbury

WHILE there are not so many dishonest people in the world, a lot of couples have furnished homes on things you have loaned them while your back was turned.

THEY call on you and when they get back to their apartment they wonder how your ash tray or desk calendar got into their pocket.

NO neighbor would deliberately take anything while your back was turned, but it isn't his fault if you're not looking while he slips it under his coat.

THIS is not crooked. It's only dishonest when you catch them.

THESE birds usually start in by taking a couple of books or a smoking stand but end up by copping a few pictures and some chairs.

THE only reason they cop a chair is that after they get through stealing your oil paintings and bric-a-brac they're so tired they have to have something to sit down on.

THEY always go over to your flat. If you went over to theirs, they'd have to break up housekeeping.

THEY never ask you over after dinner. It wouldn't pay them to put all of the furniture in storage for one evening

BUT people who cop your stuff always pay for it by worrying. Every time they hear the doorbell they run and hide your things

YOUR wife gets them out of sight while you go to the door.

YOU have to talk to them in the doorway until she gives you the signal to let them in

ONE woman heard the front door bell ring and said to her husband, "I think it's Mr. and Mrs. Piasm, but I hope it's a collector."

WHEN she discovered that it was Mr. and Mrs. Piasm, she dragged four chairs out of the apartment and entertained them in the hall.

OF course it's much cheaper to buy your own furniture unless you have near-sighted neighbors.

YOU might not like them company, but it's all right to take their furniture good-naturedly.

WHEN one guy got through taking everything he wanted out of his neighbor's place you'd have thought his neighbor was living in an unfurnished apartment.

HE took everything except the piano and he postponed taking that until they had it tuned

THERE'S only one way for a New York man to protect his household goods from his next door neighbor, and that's to sell his furniture and move to San Francisco.

(Copyright, 1922, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)
Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Boston American will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment in My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Boston American.

One day while going down the aisle of a theatre I stopped before a row of chairs. I knelt and bowed forgetting that I was in a theatre and not in church. Imagine my embarrassment when everybody looked my way.

MARY PERRY,
111 Lockwotton st., Providence, R. I.

WHEWTOPIA AS IS

WHEN Dink Batts lived in Whewtopia he worked at all kinds of jobs. He had to change jobs every two weeks because his employers got to know him to well.

Dink couldn't keep a job because he caused too many cases of mistaken identity. He was always loafing around smoking the boss's cigars when any customers came in and naturally they took him for the boss.

The boss didn't mind about the cigars but when Dink spilled the ashes all over his new hat it was time to call a halt.

Dink not only refused to work himself but he kept everybody else from working. He shot craps with the bookkeepers and held seances with the stenographers.

The only thing that Dink was good for was to get rid of book agents. When they came around it was Dink's job to coax them into a poker game. By the time the game was over he would have all their books and all their commissions.

ROUND ABOUT THE TOWN

By Dave Sentner.
(Special Correspondent).

MANY citizens were out on streets yesterday watching each other watch each other

In line with ancient custom of the village, the theatres required tickets for admission.

At $36 one citizen succeeded in getting from the east side to the west side of Broadway, South Boston. The sidewalks were lined with natives who cheered the feat. The heroic citizen was later knled on he way back trying to avoid reporters

A crosstown car passed Trinity Church at 11:59 p. m. It was running wild, which accounted for its appearance

An orangeade clerk was arrested for dropping some orange juice in the lemonade. He claimed it was an accident.

The Movie Operators Association wrote to The Bulb, the village newspaper, protesting against the audience applauding at the movies. They contended it keeps the operator awake.

A commuter was discovered trying to work himself and his flivver into the subway on one nickel. The inspector let him go when the commuter agreed to drop the flivver in the slot.

The valet and chauffeur of Sammy Slub, one of the village professional beggers were wearing last night for a diamond cigar holder that Sammy lost while out duty.

Two living masculine mannequins demonstrated overcoats in a haberdashery window on the village main street while 300 dummies in the other side of the window demonstrated paralysis.

The bell of the Deaf and Dumb Dancing Club is suing The Bulb for calling her a Dumbella.

Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund

More Ambiguity

"Well, and what did you think of the prohibitionist lecturer?"

"His speech was very spirited."

Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund

Flapper Fairy Tales

Ludwig—Shall I call a taxi? Georgette—Oh, no, let's walk and get the nice cool breeze from the river.

JERRY ON THE JOB

TELL MR. GRUNDY THAT A COMMITTEE OF CITIZENS WANTS TO SEE HIM!
WE RODE IN THE SMOKING CAR AND WE KNOW OUR RIGHTS.
SURE GENTS—HAVE A CHAIR.
I'LL TELL HIM YOU'RE HERE GENTS—AND SEE IF HE'S IN OR OUT.

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

A Lesson in Truthfulness

—BAZZ—BAZZ—AND THEN WANT A HEATER PUT IN THE SMOKER.
TUT-TUT—TELL 'EM ABOUT THE GENT THAT DIED OF HEAT IN THAT CAR.
WHEN WAS THAT, MR. GRUNDY?
LAST FOURTH O' JULY.

US BOYS

MY, HOW TIME FLIES! HERE IT IS ALMOST CHRISTMAS AGAIN, GRACIOUS JIMMINY!
I AIN'T GONNA MAKE NO MISTAKES LIKE I DID LAST YEAR. I'M GONNA START BEIN' GOOD RIGHT NOW AND SEE IF I CAN BUNK SANDY CLAUS OUTA SOMETHIN' STYLISH!
I'M GONNA BE NICE AND PLEASANT TO EVERYBODY AND DO GOOD DEEDS AND EVERY—THIN'!

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Shrimp Starts Training

THE THIMBLE THEATRE.

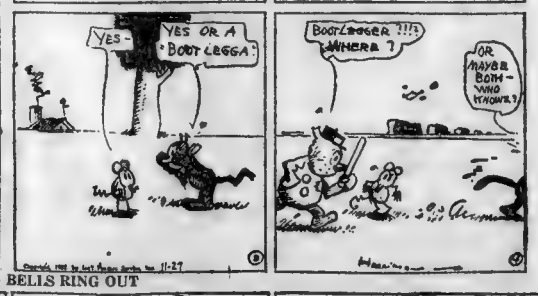
Registered U. S. Patent Office.

HAMGRAVY MET THE FAKE INCOME TAX COLLECTOR WHO BUNKED THEM OUT OF ALL THE GOLD THEY FOUND IN AFRICA A FEW MONTHS AGO
I THOUGHT I HAD HIM YESTERDAY AND THEN HE MAULED OFF AND KNOCKED ME COO-KOO
HERE COMES THE DETECTIVE I SENT FOR—WELL, FIND THAT CROOK.
WHAT I WANT TO KNOW IS—ARE YOU A GOOD DETECTIVE
I SURE AM

KRAZY KAT

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

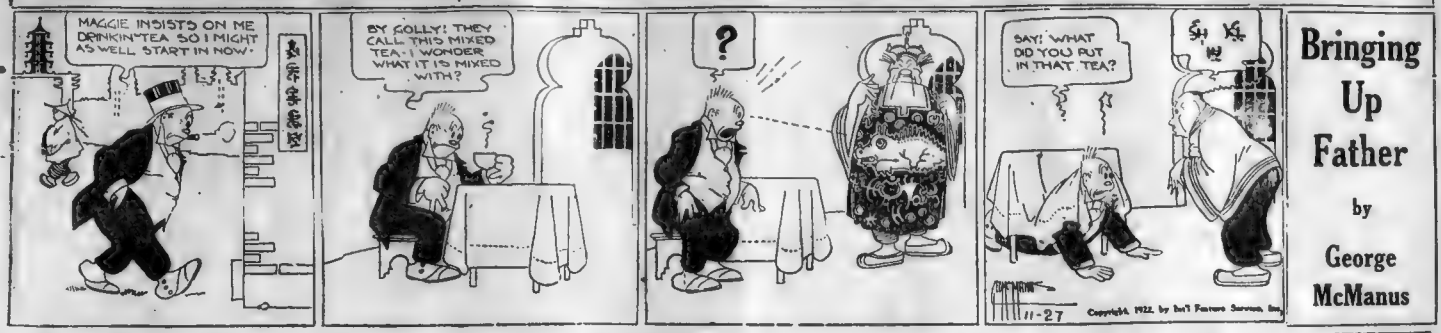
WHAT THU—!!
MISTER, WILL YOU HELP A POOR OLD MAN WHAT'S GOT NO HOME?
NO—DON'T BOTHER ME—NOW WHERE THE HECK DID THAT DETECTIVE GO TO?
HUH?!
LOOKIN' FOR ME WAS YOU?
SEGAR
11-27



LET THE WEDDING BELLS RING OUT

JOHN, I BOUGHT A NEW HAT TODAY!
DON'T BOTHER ME—CAN'T YOU SEE I'M FIGURING!
YOU MIGHT STOP LONG ENOUGH TO LOOK AT IT!
TWOTUMS YOURS EIGHT, —AN—
SAY!—HAVE YOU ANYTHING SO IMPORTANT TO FIGURE THAT YOU CAN'T EVEN LOOK AT MY NEW HAT?
YES I HAVE!
HOW I'M GOING TO PAY FOR THE LAST ONE!

EXCLUSIVELY IN THE BOSTON AMERICAN EVERY EVENING



MAGGIE INSISTS ON ME DRINKIN' TEA SO I MIGHT AS WELL START IN NOW.
BY GOLLY! THEY CALL THIS MIXED TEA. I WONDER WHAT IT IS MIXED WITH?
?
SAY! WHAT DID YOU PUT IN THAT TEA?
11-27
Copyright, 1922, by Int'l Feature Service, Inc.

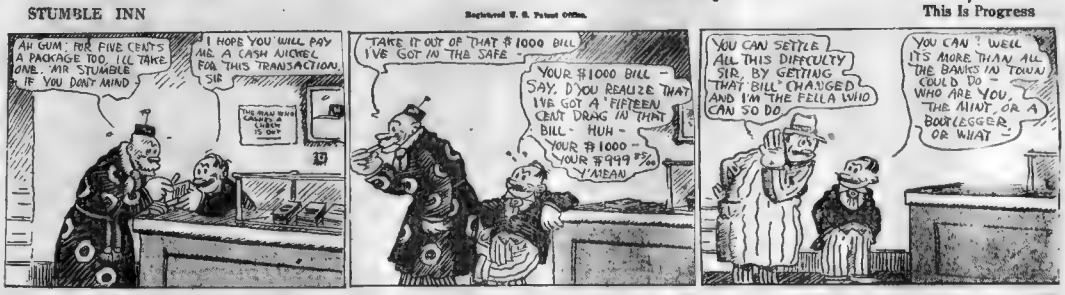
Bringing Up Father

by

George McManus

STUMBLE INN

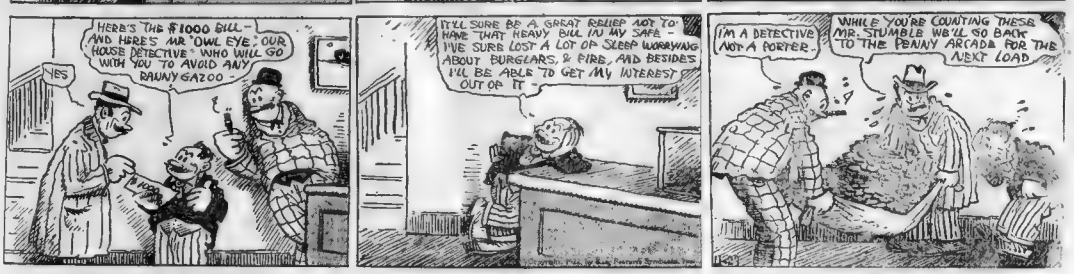
Registered U. S. Patent Office.



AH GUM! FOR FIVE CENTS A PACKAGE TOO. I'LL TAKE ONE. MR STUMBLE IF YOU DON'T MIND
I HOPE YOU WILL PAY ME A CASH NICKEL FOR THIS TRANSACTION, SIR
TAKE IT OUT OF THAT $1000 BILL I'VE GOT IN THE SAFE
YOUR $1000 BILL — SAY, D'YOU REALIZE THAT I'VE GOT A FIFTEEN CENT DRAG IN THAT BILL — HUH — YOUR $1000 — YOUR $999 75/100 Y'MEAN

This Is Progress

YOU CAN SETTLE ALL THIS DIFFICULTY SIR, BY GETTING THAT BILL CHANGED AND I'M THE FELLA WHO CAN SO DO.
YOU CAN? WELL IT'S MORE THAN ALL THE BANKS IN TOWN COULD DO — WHO ARE YOU, THE MINT, OR A BOOTLEGGER OR WHAT

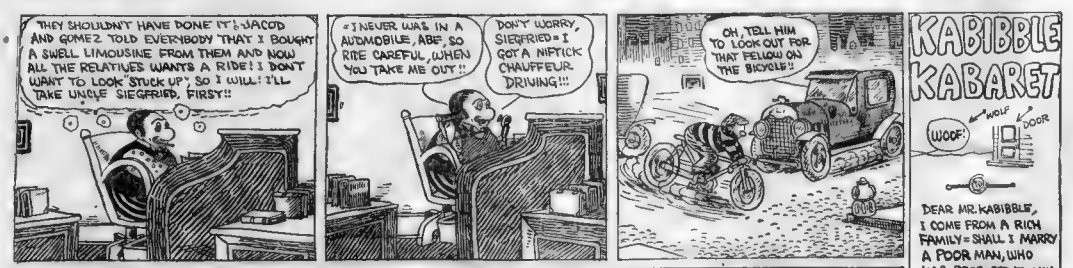


HERE'S THE $1000 BILL — AND HERE'S MR "OWL EYE" OUR HOUSE DETECTIVE WHO WILL GO WITH YOU TO AVOID ANY RAUNY GAZOO
YES
IT'LL SURE BE A GREAT RELIEF NOT TO HAVE THAT HEAVY BILL IN MY SAFE. I'VE SURE LOST A LOT OF SLEEP WORRYING ABOUT BURGLARS & FIRE, AND BESIDES I'LL BE ABLE TO GET MY INTEREST OUT OF IT
I'M A DETECTIVE NOT A PORTER.
WHILE YOU'RE COUNTING THESE MR. STUMBLE WE'LL GO BACK TO THE PENNY ARCADE FOR THE NEXT LOAD

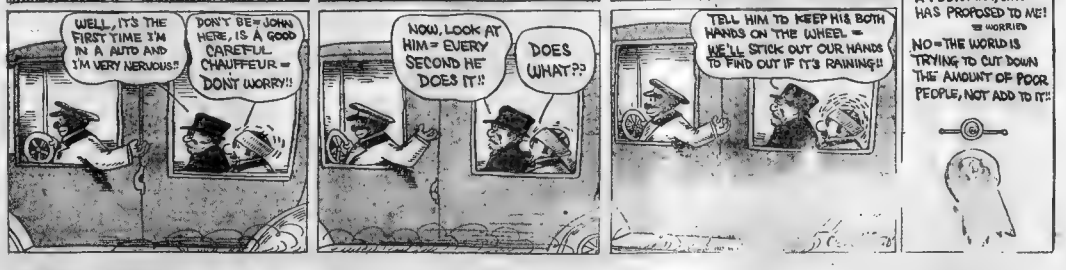
ABIE THE AGENT

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

The "First Time" Is Right



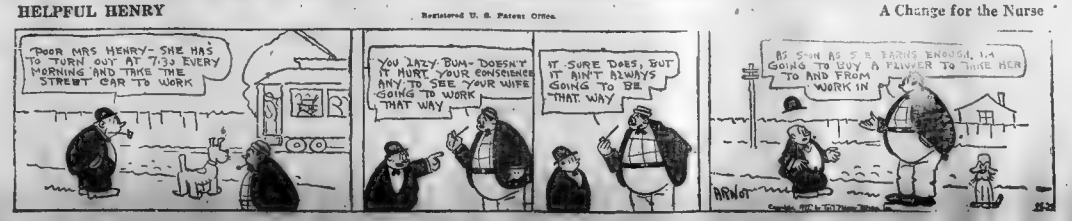
THEY SHOULDN'T HAVE DONE IT! JACOB AND GOMEZ TOLD EVERYBODY THAT I BOUGHT A SWELL LIMOUSINE FROM THEM AND NOW ALL THE RELATIVES WANTS A RIDE! I DON'T WANT TO LOOK "STUCK UP", SO I WILL! I'LL TAKE UNCLE SIEGFRIED, FIRST!!
"I NEVER WAS IN A AUTOMOBILE, ABE, SO RIDE CAREFUL, WHEN YOU TAKE ME OUT!!
DON'T WORRY, SIEGFRIED — I GOT A NIFTICK CHAUFFEUR. DRIVING!!!
OH, TELL HIM TO LOOK OUT FOR THAT FELLOW ON THE BICYCLE!!
KABIBBLE KABARET
WOOF!
WOLF
DOOR
DEAR MR. KABIBBLE, I COME FROM A RICH FAMILY — SHALL I MARRY A POOR MAN, WHO HAS PROPOSED TO ME! WORRIED
NO — THE WORLD IS TRYING TO CUT DOWN THE AMOUNT OF POOR PEOPLE, NOT ADD TO IT!!



WELL, IT'S THE FIRST TIME I'M IN A AUTO AND I'M VERY NERVOUS!!
DON'T BE — JOHN HERE, IS A GOOD CAREFUL CHAUFFEUR — DON'T WORRY!!
NOW, LOOK AT HIM — EVERY SECOND HE DOES IT!!
DOES WHAT??
TELL HIM TO KEEP HIS BOTH HANDS ON THE WHEEL — WE'LL STICK OUT OUR HANDS TO FIND OUT IF IT'S RAINING!!

HELPFUL HENRY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.



POOR MRS HENRY — SHE HAS TO TURN OUT AT 7:30 EVERY MORNING AND TAKE THE STREET CAR TO WORK
YOU LAZY BUM — DOESN'T IT HURT YOUR CONSCIENCE ANY, TO SEE YOUR WIFE GOING TO WORK THAT WAY
IT SURE DOES, BUT IT AIN'T ALWAYS GOING TO BE THAT WAY
A Change for the Nurse
AS SOON AS I'S BARNS ENOUGH, I'M GOING TO BUY A FLIVVER TO TAKE HER TO AND FROM WORK IN ARNOT

Simple Etiquette Rules to Be Observed at the Table

By Les Conklin.

THERE is no need to be embarrassed because of blunders in table etiquette, as nobody is perfect. Every family makes bad breaks sooner or later. Most of them happen when somebody drops a hot plate.

The knife should be placed at the right hand side of the plate, unless your mother-in-law is sitting next to you. Then it should be gripped firmly in the right hand as a weapon of defense in case of a sudden attack.

Bread should be buttered on the upper side. If the butter is poor, it is wise to pose as a convict and feed on dry bread and water.

The fork is used to eat meat and peas and to scratch mosquito bites on the back of your leg.

In a restaurant the spoon is used to pound on the table and attract the attention of the waiter when you want quick service.

One of the most delicate problems in table etiquette is eating peas correctly. The best way to do it is to roll them into a heap and make a vicious stab at them with the fork before they can sneak away on you.

Proper etiquette demands that you speak to the cook in a civil tone of voice. Otherwise she may get sore and throw up the job on the spot.

The seating arrangement is left to your discretion. A man with any sense of good taste at all will always find a seat between two pretty girls.

If you are expecting a call from your bootlegger, sit as close to the door as possible. If one of your guests owes you money, sit between him and the door.

It is very unsafe to sit between two fat persons, especially if they eat with a sidewheel movement. If you are caught in a jam like this, you will be unable to wield your fork with any great degree of efficiency.

If you do not like to talk, sit between two women. They will talk so much that nobody will notice your silence.

THE BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston American will pay $1 for "Best Joke" published. Address "Jokes," Boston American.

"Mama," said little Elsie, "do men ever go to heaven?" "Why of course, my dear. What makes you ask that?" Because I never see any pictures of angels with whiskers." "Well," said the mother thoughtfully, "some men do go to heaven, but they get there by a close shave."

Mrs. F. H. BACHELDER, 97 E. Broadway, Derry, N. H.

WHAT'S WRONG?

"I'M so glad your son has bought a saxophone," said the next door neighbor who has been suffering with insomnia for many years.

"No, I really detest publicity," said the film star, "because since everybody's getting it it's become quite vulgar."

After the landlord raised the rent fifty per cent. the tenants in the house pooled together and gave him a banquet.

Not a sound was heard until the judge said "thirty days," whereupon the pleased [illegible] sooner [illegible] in the world [illegible] insisted on paying [illegible] "because everything is running so smoothly so far."

"There is only one way to succeed in business," said the editor of a business magazine, and that is to be dishonest."

—Go See to Christmas Relief Fund—

Did He Get It?

"I find I can think better when I smoke."

"Well instead of those small mild cigarettes you should use big strong cigars."

The Winning Nifties

[illegible] and to whom did Caesar [illegible] his first proposal of marriage?

When he came to the Rhine, he proposed to Bridge it.

ETHEL PURCELL.
No. 81 High street, Monson.

Did you hear of the man who went into the hardware store to get some powder?

They were out of powder, so he got shot.

HARRY HURLEY.
No. 55 Columbus ave., Somerville.

What will prevent the general use of aeroplanes?

They run over too many people.

OSCAR LARCHE.
No. 49 Rutledge street, Springfield.

We pay a dollar for each Nifty printed. Send one to the Nifty Editor, Boston American.

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston.

Little Marion, whose family had indulged in a hearty laugh because in dressing herself she had put her underwear on over her stockings, instead of underneath, said, reproachfully to her mother, "I don't like you to laugh it makes me feel so mean at myself." MORAL—Do not ridicule the mistakes of children.—MISS HELEN CAREY, 490 Sudbury bldg., Boston, Mass.

ONCE OVERS

(Copyright, 1922, by International Feature Service, Inc.)

BE TRUSTFUL OF GOOD FORTUNE.

Every time you have a bit of good fortune, you begin to look for the joker, now don't you?

It is unfortunate for a person to become so cynical that the fact of good fortune in some particular should start such a train of thought before the enjoyment is a reality.

If you would think of it in another way, that Nature balances up at one time or another, and take the unfortunate occurrences in a philosophical way, nothing would be so woefully sad as you seem to think.

Enjoy the good things that come, for the good there is in them [illegible] While the balance swings toward that it will [illegible] while, [illegible] that [illegible] And if his experience proves this to be a fact, it is a matter beyond your control, anyway, so why make yourself needlessly miserable.

If you cannot help the little imperfections which are bound to come in every man's life, why should you spoil the perfect things by remembering the unpleasant ones.

Be a philosopher, and be happier, but it need not keep you from striving for the best you can get.

Largest Evening Circulation in New England

Magazine Page

This Day in History, November 27, 1922

THIS is the anniversary of the entrance of Magellan into the Pacific, in 1520. The intrepid navigator was the first to pass around Cape Horn and the first to circumnavigate the globe. He was killed in the Philippines.

If Today is Your Birthday

YOU are fortunate, for you are among those few people who are equally serene in success and in failure. Wealth will never spoil nor poverty degrade you. Today is one of uncertain omen. Avoid decisive action.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

See This Romance of Princess Mary Tudor Starring Marion Davies in Super Motion Pictures Which Are Now Showing at the Park Theatre

Lady Jane pours a draught of wine for fainting Princess Mary.

World-Famous Story of the All-Conquering Power of Love Over the Heart of the Wilful and Beautiful Sister of the Autocratic King Henry VIII.

By Charles Major

HE had known the danger all the time and this act could not be chargeable in ignorance or a failure to see the probable consequences. Temptation, and selfish desire, had given him temerity in place of judgment. He had attempted what none but an insane man would have tried, without even the pitiable excuse of insanity. He had seen it all only too clearly from the very beginning and he had deliberately and with open eyes brought disgrace, ruin, and death—unless he could escape—upon himself, and utter humiliation to her whom his love should have prompted him to save at all cost. If Mary could only have disguised herself to look like a man they might have succeeded, but that little "if" was larger than Paul's church, and blocked the road as completely as if it had been a word of twenty syllables.

When the princess stepped ashore it seemed to her as if the heart in her breast was a different and separate organ from the one she had carried aboard.

As the boat put off again for the ship, its crew gave a cheer coupled with some vile advice, for which Brandon would gladly have run them through, each and every one. He had to swallow his chagrin and anger, and really blamed no one but himself, though it was torture to him that this girl should be subjected to such insults, and he powerless to avenge them. The news had spread from the wharf like wildfire, and on their way back to the bow and string, there came from small boys and hidden voices such exclamations as: "Look at the woman in man's clothing!" "Isn't he a beautiful man!" "Look at him blush!" and others too coarse to be repeated. Imagine the humiliating situation, from which there was no escape.

At last they reached the inn, whither their chests soon followed them, sent by Bradhurst, together with their passage money, which he very honestly refunded.

Mary soon donned her woman's attire, of which she had a supply in her chest, and at least felt more comfortable without the jackboots. She had made her toilet alone for the first time in her life, having no maid to help her, and wept as she dressed, for this disappointment was like plucking the very heart out of her. Her hope had been so high that the fall was all the harder. Nay, even more; hope had become fruition to her when they were once on shipboard, and failure right at the door of success made it doubly hard to bear. It crushed her, and, where before her had been hope and confidence, was nothing now but despair. Like all people with a great capacity for elation, when she sank she touched the bottom. Alas. Mary, the unconquerable, was down at last.

This failure meant so much to her; it meant that she would never be Brandon's wife but would go to France to endure the dreaded old Frenchman. At that thought a rebellion came. Her spirit asserted itself, and she stamped her foot and swore upon her soul it should never be; never! never! so long as she had strength to fight to say, "No." The thought of this marriage and of the loss of Brandon was painful enough, but there came another entirely new to her and infinitely worse.

Hastily arranging her dress she went in search of Brandon, whom she quickly found and took to her room.

After closing the door she said: "I thought I had reached the pinnacle of disappointment and pain when compelled to leave the ship, for it meant that I should lose you and have to marry Louis of France. But I have found that there is still a possible pain more poignant than either, and I cannot bear it. so I come to you—you who are the great cure for all my troubles. Oh! that I could lay them here all my life long," and she put her head upon his breast, forgetting what she had intended to say.

"What is the trouble, Mary?"

"Oh! yes! I thought of that marriage and of losing you, and then, oh! Mary Mother! I thought of some other woman having you to herself. I could see her with you, and I was jealous—I think the evil it. I have heard of the pangs of jealousy, and if the fear of a rival is so great what would the reality be? It would kill me; I could not endure it. I cannot endure even this, and I want you to swear that——"

Brandon took her in his arms as she began to weep.

"I will gladly swear by everything I hold sacred that no other woman than you shall ever be my wife. If I cannot have you be sure you have spoiled every other woman for me. There is but one in all the world—but one. I can at least save you that pain."

She then stood on tip-toes to lift her lips to him, and said: "I give you the same promise. How you must have suffered when you thought I was to wed another."

After a pause she went on: "But it might have been worse—that is, it would be worse if you should marry some other woman; but that is all settled now and I feel easier. Then I might have married the old French king, but that, too, is settled; and we can endure the lesser pain. It always helps us when we are able to think it might have been worse."

Her unquestioning faith in Brandon was beautiful, and she never doubted that he spoke the unalterable truth when he said he would never marry any other woman. She had faith in herself, too, and was confident that her promise to marry no man but Brandon ended that important matter like magic, and put the French marriage totally out of the question for all time to come

(Copyright, Bobbs-Merrill Co.)

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

WHEN A GIRL MARRIES

By Ann Lisle

THE thing which clinched this notion was Pat's parting word to me as he drove up to my office:

"I'll be writing to Carlotta today on office business," he remarked so casually that I felt it was provided. I suppose it's an interesting bit of information that Tony'll be after coming back in ten days or so. Or were you planning to write the news?"

"WELL, I JUST THOUGHT IT WAS FOOLISH FOR US BOTH TO TELL THE SAME NEWS"

"And if I was"" I laughed a little elaborately in turn. "It would not do any great harm for two of us to tell Carlotta the same bit of news—could it—especially when it concerns anyone to whom she's felt so close?"

"Well, I just thought it was foolish for us both to tell the same news—as if we are too great store by it," stammered Pat. "And then we're so busy that it's no great piece of wisdom for both of us to be taking up our time conveying the same tidings. That's only how I'm after feeling, of course, Alanna. You'll be doing as you think best."

There was an anxious note in this. I had to recognize it and give it a definite reply.

"I'll write to Carlotta," I said picking up my very carefully. I'll tell her that we've just heard from Tony and that he'll be back in ten days. But if business claims her, you know she won't slack or hurry her return."

"Carlotta will do what's right. She never slacks," said Pat.

His eyes met mine. They had a look of deliberation and of great kindness. I felt that he knew what was in Carlotta's heart and would help her. But possibly not as she might expect.

The minute I set foot in my office I sensed something electrical in the atmosphere. Pushing Carlotta and her attitude toward Tony into the back of my mind along with all speculation concerning how much of the truth I guessed, I gave my entire attention to Miss May.

There was something almost fluttering in her voice as she called a greeting. Her voice gave the impression one gets on feeling a little vein throbbing in one's own throat.

"Did you have a good time at Dreamwold?" she asked

"Why, how did you know I was there?" I asked, beginning on a note of wondering if I'd told her of my plans and ending rather coyly with the effect of holding up my finger and shaking it at her.

She responded to the invitation in my final intonation. And her voice had a little lilt of great pleasure as she said:

"I know because an attentive young man told me he'd spent Sunday with you and that you'd cooked up a scheme to hit me over the head with at dinner tonight."

"Could it be Wayne Parkinson Third you're quoting?" I asked, fitting in with her mood.

"It could—but it isn't. It is my own original nephew, Ralph. He asked me if I could scare up a bit of naive surprise to meet a great occasion and I promised to try to be tremendously surprised no matter what happened to me. So I will."

"That's a promise. We'll shut up shop early and get all prettied up for the boys. Or would you prefer wearing street clothes?" I finished with an awkward consciousness that maybe Miss May has nothing in which to make herself fine for a formal dinner. But I found I hadn't counted on that exquisite thing, her ability to fit into environments and occasions.

"I thought it would be nice to dress for this party," she said. "So I managed a little shopping last week. I would have asked you to help me, but you've done so much that I knew you wouldn't refuse no matter how many other claims there were on your time. And a sweet young saleswoman helped me. Really it was lovely to see her put herself out to find an old woman something becoming to wear."

"Funny how young people take to you!" I exclaimed. "Of course it is chiefly because you're so deferring and old that they feel they ought to support your feeble footsteps."

Miss May blushed exquisitely.

"My dear, all your elaborate sarcasm can't make the opposite true," she tinkled back. "I'm an old woman. Not nothing on a cane. But not to be turned into a Cinderella, even at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and smartly that it really is astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $1. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made syrup.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and smartly that it really is astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PINEX for Coughs

BEST PATTERNS FOR SIX CENTS

YOUR CHOICE OF LATEST STYLES

The Boston American offers today more of its new and stylish dress patterns at a price never before equalled. It will cost from 15c to $1 to duplicate these patterns anywhere else. Orders MUST be on OFFICIAL COUPON.

Boston American Dress Pattern Coupon

Pattern No.____ Size____ | Pattern No.____ Size____

Pattern No.____ Size____ | Pattern No.____ Size____

Name____

Street____

City or Town____ State____

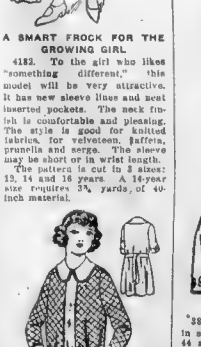
Fill out and mail (enclosing six cents for each pattern) to PATTERN EDITOR, Boston American, 30 Summer St., Boston 5, Mass.

4182

A SMART FROCK FOR THE GROWING GIRL

4182. To the girl who likes "something different," this model will be very attractive. It has new sleeve lines and neat inserted pockets. The neck finish is comfortable and pleasing. The style is good for knitted fabrics, for velveteen, taffeta, prunella and serge. The sleeve may be short or in wrist length.

The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 12, 14 and 16 years. A 14-year size requires 3¾ yards of 40-inch material.

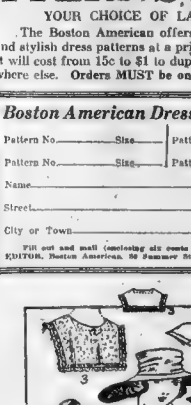


3853

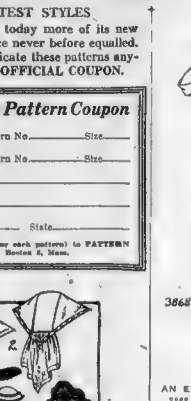
A JAUNTY SCHOOL FROCK

3853. For combining plain and plaid suiting, this is an excellent model. In gingham, with chambray or serge, with plaid woolen, it will make a very becoming school dress. The sleeve may be finished in wrist or elbow length. The pattern provides a straight belt, which may be replaced with a girdle or sash, or a belt of metal or wooden beads.

The sizes for this design are 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. A 14-year size will require 2¼ yards of 44-inch material.



4182



3868

3282

3835

3312

AN EVER POPULAR MODEL

3868. As a dressmaker her thimble, so does a good housekeeper require her apron. A model such as is here pictured has the advantage of being easily made and easily adjusted. It is also trim and neat.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: Small, medium, large and extra large. A medium size requires 2½ yards of 36-inch material.

3835. LADIES' BLOUSE. Cut in seven sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38-inch size requires 2¾ yards of 36-inch material.

3282. SET OF SMART NECK-WEAR. Cut in three sizes, small, medium and large. For a medium size No. 1 will require ⅝ yard for the collar and ½ yard for the cuffs of 24-inch material. No. 2 will require 1 yard, and No. 3 ⅝ yard.

3312. LADIES' SHIRT WAIST. Cut in seven sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38-inch size will require 2¼ yards of 36-inch material

NOTICE

On account of the enormous number of applicants for patterns and the difficulty in reading names and sizes, some orders are slow in being filled. Those who have not received their patterns should write, stating date of order, pattern wanted, with name and address written clearly, to Pattern Editor, Boston American, No. 30 Summer street, Boston 5, Mass.

USE Edward's Shopping Checks a Winter St.

Our shopping checks may be obtained here for any amount and used as cash to buy what you like on credit in the Department Stores and Specialty Stores.

Pay Us at the Rate of a Dollar a Week on Your Account

Advertisement

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good calomel does, but have no bad after effect. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They also hold the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and heavy. They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, pneumonia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia). 35c and 60c, jars and tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster

MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER

BEST APPLE RECIPE

A box of 113 Jim Hill Delicious apples will be given each day for the best recipe of how to prepare them for the table. The winner will be printed here. Address Recipe Editor, Boston American, No. 30 Summer street, Boston, 8, Mass.

Apple Fritters

1½ cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, little salt, 2 egg, 1 tablespoon melted butter, ¾ cup of sweet milk, 3 or 4 tart apples, cut in thin slices, 3 tablespoons of sugar, and ½ lemon. Cover the apples after sliced with little sugar and the juice of lemon. Mix the sugar, flour, salt, baking powder together; add egg and milk, then add the melted butter, mix in the apples gradually and drop by spoonfuls in hot fat—Crisco is best. Drain on clean white paper and cover with powdered sugar or serve with a white sauce.

MRS. A. G. PAYNE

No. 2 Wellington street, Boston, Mass.

Spaghetti Recipes

Fried Spaghetti

To 1½ quarts of boiling water add 2 heaping tablespoons of salt and 1 pound spaghetti or macaroni. When cooked drain off water and let spaghetti cool. Beat together 4 eggs and 3 tablespoons grated cheese. Mix well with spaghetti. Put plenty of lard in a frying pan, spread spaghetti in pan and let cook over a slow fire. When well browned turn over and add more lard if necessary. When done cut up like a pie.

MRS. D. E. PILLA.

No. 367 Chatham street, East Lynn, Mass.

American Chop Suey

Four large onions, 1 pound ground beef, ½ package Mueller's spaghetti, 1 can tomatoes. Cut the onions up fine and fry until nearly done. Then add the beef, salt and pepper and cook until done. Cook the spaghetti in a double boiler until soft, then add to the meat. Then add the tomatoes, mix well and when it is heated through it is ready to serve.

MRS. BLAKE MacGREGOR.

No. 60 Madison street, Haverhill, Mass.

The Climbers

Our whiskey is said to create in consumers a desire to climb trees. English whiskey, on the other hand, seems to create a desire on us to cross the "pond."

Stars

Lawyer (to witness in Yorkville Court recently)—Can you pick out the doctor in court that performed the operation on you?

Witness (gazing around courtroom)—No. I was put to sleep

Lawyer—Well, what did you see when you woke up?

Witness—Stars.

Flapper Fairy Tales

Georgette—Father said that we would have to take a chaperone if we went out tonight

Ludwig—Well then, let's take your grandmother along and we'll all go out and have a good time together.

HOW PIONEER FOLKS TREATED COSTIVENESS

A Simple Home Remedy Was Made from Nature's Leaves, Herbs, Barks and Seeds

Removed from centers of civilization pioneers had only themselves and Nature to depend upon. Being but human beings their bodies were subject to the same weaknesses and ills as other people.

When the body fails to throw off its waste materials, even for a single day, poisons begin to develop which weaken bodily resistance against disease. So regularity in bowel movement is absolutely necessary for complete, continued health.

Pioneers realized this. They knew, too, that Nature had given marked laxative qualities to certain barks, leaves, barks, berries and seeds.

In Maine, in 1851, there was a country physician, Dr. J. F. True by name, who reasoned in the same way. He formulated a prescription that would relieve constipation in young and old pleasantly, quickly and thoroughly. Satisfied after long experiments, with his combination, which contained the extracts of imported herbs, Dr. True used the formula in his daily practice and called it Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller.

For four generations Dr. True's Elixir has relieved constipation sufferers and children who have had worms, and it remains the favorite as it clears them. Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, Springfield St., South Boston, writes: "I have used Dr. True's Elixir and have found it very much in regard to constipation and I no hesitate to say that it could come up to it."

Be sure to watch the fast-growing children. Theysest sweets; often becomes pale face, eyes heavy and dull, short, dry cough, grinding of the teeth and pellets on the tongue, starting during sleep with troublesome dreams. How favorite if these symptoms show, start giving Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, right away. 40c—60c—$1.20.

Largest Evening Circulation in New England

Magazine Page

"Le Wild West"

COLONIES in French Morocco have grown with such rapidity Americaine that the French Government refers to them as "Le Wild West." Places that a few years ago were water holes are now thriving communities.

Venus at Her Nearest

YOU cannot see Venus now, though she was so bright in the evening a very few weeks ago. She passes between the earth and the sun tomorrow morning, when she will be only about 24,685,000 miles from us.

KIMONO, By JOHN PARIS

Great Exposure of How Japanese Women Treat Their

SUPPRESSED BY JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

This startling and intensely interesting story of the Cherry Blossom Kingdom, telling what the Japanese think of women, was suppressed by the Japanese government. The expose has stunned Europe and opened the eyes of the world to what has really been going on. John Paris, the author, was an English diplomat there for years.

THE CHARACTERS IN THE STORY:

THE HONORABLE GEOFFREY BARRINGTON, son of Lord Brandan, a Captain in the British Army, resigns his commission when he weds

ASAKO FUJINAMI, heiress, daughter of Japanese parents who are dead; brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by

LADY EVERINGTON, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two. At the reception toasts are drunk to the closer union of Britain and Japan, but both British and Japanese diplomats in the distinguished company evade the suggestion that the couple visit Japan, as appears to be their desire. Some of the reception guests frankly question the wisdom of the marriag, and doubt the possibility of a happy life for the pair. Lady Everington, in her anxiety for the young Captain, who has been her special protege, interviews

COUNT SAITO, the Japanese Ambassador, who tells her the Fujinamis belong to the nouveaux riches of Japan, but gives little information of their origin or the source of their wealth. A visit to his wife's guardians, the Muratas, a Japanese family living in Paris, and a sojourn among the cosmopolitans of Deauville, sharpen the desire to see Japan. Aboard the ship they meet

VISCOUNT KAMIMURA, returning home to wed a bride he has never seen. A stop at Nagasaki is the first sight of Japan. A part of the revelation is the Chuukina, or Geisha dance, seen by Barrington, who is shocked by the performance. He is disturbed to learn from the talk of Americans and Englishmen that marriages with Japanese women are not favorably regarded.

TANAKA, a nondescript Japanese, attaches himself to Barrington and accompanies him to Tokyo, where Geoffrey meets

REGGIE FORSYTH, attache to the British embassy, musical and romantic, who has just been transferred from Paris.

YAE SMITH, daughter of a Japanese mother and an English father, languishes around Reggie's apartment, where Barrington meets her.

SA ITO, lawyer for the Fujinami estate, arranges for the Barringtons to meet the bride's family. Barrington is not impressed. A family conference discloses that the Fujinami income is derived from the Geisha house privileges in Tokyo and elsewhere. It is decided that Asako should be divorced and married to a Japanese.

ASAKO, Barrington's bride, begins to learn something of Japanese family relations and hear about her father and mother, the one a poet and the other a delicate, clinging little woman, who died when Asako was born.

Tanaka, from hiding, had noticed the attitude of the two

CHAPTER XVII.

The Rainy Season.

Fugu-jiru no
Ware ikite iru
Ne-same kana

Poisonous delicacies (last night)
I awake
And am still alive.

Geoffrey Barrington tried not to worry about Yae Smith; and, of course, he did not mention the episode of the Great Buddha either to his wife or to Reggie Forsyth. He did not exactly feel ashamed of the incident, but he realized that it was open to misinterpretation. He certainly had no love for Yae; and she, since she was engaged to his friend, presumably had no love for him.

These are certain unnatural states of mind in which we are not man beings and that is the TAOIN altogether morally responsible being. Among these may be numbered the ball-room mood which drives quite sane people to act madly. The music, the wine, the giddy turning, the display of the women's charms and the confusing proximity of them produce an unwonted atmosphere, of which we have most their way.

Sob-oning people, mothers with daughters to marry, study the effects of this physical chemistry, and profit by their knowledge. Under similar influence Geoffrey himself had been of wilder indiscretions than the kissing of a half-caste girl.

But when he thought the matter over, he was sorry that it had occurred; and he was profoundly thankful that nobody had seen him.

Somebody had seen him, however.

The faithful Tanaka, who had been engaged by Mr. Ito, the Fujinami lawyer, not to let his master out of his sight, had followed him at a discreet distance during the whole of that midnight stroll. He had observed the talk and the attitudes, the silences and the holding of hands, the glad exchange of kisses, the sitting of Yae on Geoffrey's knees, and her triumphant return, carried in his arms.

To the Japanese mind such conduct could only mean one thing. The Japanese male is frankly animal when women are concerned. He does not understand our fine shades of self-deception, which give to our love-making the charm of surprise and the palliation of romance. Tanaka concluded that there could be only one termination to the scene which he had witnessed.

He also learned that Yae Smith was Reggie Forsyth's mistress, that he visited her room at night, that she was a girl of no character at all, that she had frequently stopped at the Kamakura hotel with other men, all of them her lovers.

All this information Tanaka collected with a wealth and precision of detail which is only possible in Japan, where the espionage habit is so deeply implanted in the every-day life of the people.

Mr. Ito could scarcely believe such welcome tidings. The Barrington menage had seemed to him so devoted that he had often despaired of his boast to his patron that he would divide the wife from her husband, and restore her to her family. Now, if Tanaka's story were true, his task would be child's play. A women charged with jealousy becomes like a weapon primed and cocked. If Ito could succeed in making Asako jealous, then he knew that any stray spark of misunderstanding would blast a black gulf between husband and wife, and might even lure the impetuous Englishman back to his own country—alone.

Sawyer Explained

The lawyer explained his plan to the head of the family, who appreciated its classic simplicity. Sadako was given to understand the part which she was to play in alienating her cousin's affections from the foreigner. She was to harp on the faithlessness of man in general, and of husbands in particular, and on the importance of money values in matrimonial considerations.

She was to suggest that a foreign man would never choose a Japanese bride merely for love of her. Then, when the psychological moment had struck, the name of Yae Smith was to be flashed into Asako's mind with a blinding glare.

Asako had been visiting her Japanese cousins almost every day. Her conversation lessons were progressing rapidly; for the first stages of the language are easy. The new life appealed to Asako's love of novelty, and the strangeness of it to her child's love of make-believe. The summoning of her parents' spirits awakened in her the desire for a home, which lurks in every one of us, the love of old family things around us, the sense of an inheritance and a tradition. She was tired of hotel life; and she turned for relaxation to playing at Japan with cousin Sadako, just as her husband turned to tennis.

Her favorite haunt was the little tea-house among the reeds at the edge of the lake, which seemed so hidden from everywhere. Here the two girls practised their languages. Here they tried on each other's clothes, and talked about their lives and purposes. Sadako was intellectually the cleverer of the two, but Asako had seen and heard more; so they were fairly equally matched.

Shocked Each Other

Often the cousins shocked each other's sense of propriety. Asako had already observed that to the Japanese mind, the immediate corollary to being married is to produce children as promptly and as rapidly as possible. Already she had been questioned on the subject by Tanaka, by boy sans and by shop-attendants.

"It is a great pity," said cousin Sadako, "that you have no baby. In Japan if a wife have no baby, she is often divorced. But perhaps it is the fault of Mr. Barrington?"

Asako had vaguely hoped for children in the future; but on the whole she was glad that their coming had been delayed. There was so much to do and to see first of all. It had never occurred to her that her childlessness might be the fault of either herself or her husband. But her cousin went on ruthlessly.—

"Many men are like that. Because of their sickness their wives cannot have babies."

Asako shivered. This beautiful country of hers seemed to be full of bogeys like a child's dream.

Another time Sadako asked her with much diffidence and slanting of the eyes,—

"I wish to learn about—kissing."

"What is the Japanese for 'kiss,' laughed Asako.

"Oh! There is no such word," expostulated Sadako, shocked at her cousin's levity, "We Japanese do not speak of such things."

"Then Japanese people don't kiss?"

"Oh, no," said the girl.

"Not ever?" asked Asako, incredulous.

"Only when they are—quite alone."

"Then when you see foreign people kissing in public, you think it is very funny?"

"We think it is disgusting" answered her cousin.

Quite True

It is quite true. Foreigners kiss so recklessly. They kiss on meeting; they kiss on parting. They kiss in London; they kiss in Tokyo. They kiss indiscriminately their fathers, mothers, wives, mistresses, cousins and aunts. Every kiss sends a shiver down the spine of a Japanese observer of either sex, as we should be shocked by the crude exhibition of an obscene gesture. For this blossoming of our buds of affection suggests to him, with immediate and detailed clearness, that other embraces of which in his mind it is the inseparable commitant.

The Japanese find the excuse that foreigners know no better, just as we excuse the dirty habits of natives. But they quote the kiss as an indisputable proof of the lowness of our moral standard, and as a sign of the guilt, not of individuals so much as of our whole civilisation.

"Foreign people kiss too much," said coyly Sadako, "it is a bad thing. If I had a husband, I would always fear he kiss somebody else."

That is why I am so happy with Geoffrey," said Asako, "I know he would never love any one but me."

"It is not safe to be so sure," said her cousin darkly, "a woman is made for one man, but a man is made for many women."

Asako, arrayed in a Japanese kimono, and to all appearance as Japanese as her cousin, was sitting in the Fujinami tea-parlor. She had not understood much of the lesson in tea-ceremony at which she had just assisted. But the exceeding propriety and dignity of the teacher, the daughter of great people fallen upon evil days, had impressed her. She longed to acquire that tranquillity of deportment, that slow graceful poise of hand and arm, that low measured speech. When the teacher had gone, she began to mimic her gestures with all the seriousness of appreciative imitation.

Asako Laughed

Sadako laughed. She supposed that her cousin was fooling. Asako thought that she was amused by her clumsiness.

"I shall never be able to do it," she sighed.

"But of course you will. I laugh because you are so like Kikuye San."

Kikuye San was their teacher.

"If only I could practice by myself!" said Asako, "but at the hotel it would be impossible."

Then they both laughed together at the incongruity of rehearsing those dainty rites of old Japan in the over-furnished sitting-room at the Imperial Hotel, with Geoffrey sitting back in his arm-chair and puffing at his cigar.

"If only I had a little house like this!" said Asako.

"Why don't you hire one?" suggested her cousin.

Why not? The idea was an inspiration. So Asako thought; and she broached the matter to Geoffrey that very evening.

"Wouldn't it be sweet to have a ducky little Japanese house all our very own?" she urged.

"Oh yes," her husband agreed, wearily, "that would be great sport."

Mr. Fujinami Gentaro was delighted at the success of his daughter's diplomacy. He saw that this plan for a Japanese house meant a further separation of husband and wife, a further step towards recovery of his errant child. For he was beginning to regard Asako with parental sentiment, and to pity her condition as the wife of this coarse stranger.

No Delusion

Mme. Sadako was under no such altruistic delusions. She envied her cousin. She envied her money, her freedom, and her frank happiness. She had often pondered about the ways of Japanese husbands and wives; and the more she thought over the subject, the more she envied Asako her happy married life. She envied her with a woman's envy, which seeks to hurt and spoil. She was smarting from her own disappointment; and by making her cousin suffer, she thought that she could assuage her own grief. Besides, the intrigue in itself interested her, and provided employment for her indolent existence and her restless mind. Of affection for Asako she had none at all, but then she had no affection for anybody. She was typical of a modern Japanese womanhood, which is the result of long repression, loveless marriages and sudden intellectual license.

Asako thought her charming, because she had not yet learned to discern. She confided to her all her ideas about the new house, and together the two girls explored Tokyo in the motor-car which Ito provided for them, inspecting properties.

Asako had already decided that her home was to be on the bank of the river, where she could see the boats passing, something like the house in which her father and mother had lived. The desired abode was found at last on the river-bank at Mukojima, just on the fringe of the city, where the cherry-trees are so bright in Springtime, where she could see the broad Sumida river washing her garden steps, the fussy little river boats puffing by, the portly junks, the crews of students training for their regatta, and away on the opposite bank, the trees of Asakusa, the garish river restaurants so noisy at nightfall, the tall, peaceful pagoda, the grey roofs and the red plinths of the temple of the Goddess of Mercy.

Just when the new home was ready for her occupation, just when Asako's enthusiasm was at its height and the purchases of silken bedding and dainty trays were almost complete, Geoffrey suddenly announced his intention of leaving Japan.

Wife Aghast

"I can't stick it any longer," he said irritably. "I don't know what's coming over me."

"Leave Japan," cried his wife, aghast.

"Well, I don't know," grunted her husband, "it's no good stopping here and going all to seed."

The rainy season was just over, the hot season of steaming rain which the Japanese call nyubai, had played havoc with Geoffrey's nerves. He had never known anything so unpleasant as this damp, relaxing heat. It made the walls of the room sweat. It impregnated paper and blotting-paper. It rotted leather; and spread mold on boots and clothes. It made matches unstrikeable. It drenched Geoffrey's bed with perspiration, and drove away sleep. It sent him out on long midnight walks through the silent city in an atmosphere as stifling as that of a green-house. It beat down upon Tokyo its fetid exhalations, the smell of cooking, of sewage, and of humanity, and the queer, sickly scent of a powerful evergreen tree allower throughout the city, which resembled the reek of that Nagasaki brothel, and recalled the dancing of the Chuukina.

It bred swarms of bloodthirsty mosquitoes from every drop of stagnant water. They found their way through the musty mosquito-net which separated his bed from Asako's. They eluded his blow in the evening light; and he could only wreak his vengeance in the morning, when they were heavy with his gore.

The colour faded from the Englishman's cheeks. His appetite failed. He was becoming, what he had never been before, gross and irritable. Reggie Forsyth wrote to him from Chusenji,—

"Yae is here, and we go in for yachting in a kind of winged punt, called a 'lark.' For five pounds you can become a ship owner. I fancy myself as a skipper, and I have already won two races. But more often we escape from the horrible of the diplomats, and take our sandwiches and thermals—or is thermol the plural?—to the unsound sloose of the lake, and picnic a deag.

Row Home

Then, if the wind does not fall, we are lucky; but if it does, I have to row home. Yae laughs at my oarsmanship, and says that, if you were here, you would do it so much better. You are a dangerous rival, but for this once I challenge you. I have a spare pen in my rabbit-hutch. There is just room for you and Mrs. Barrington. You must be quite melted by now."

But Asako did not want to go to Chusenji. All her thoughts were centred on the little house by the river.

"Geoffrey, darling," she said, stroking his hair with her tiny waxen fingers, "it is the hot weather which is making you feel cross. Why don't you go up to the mountains for a week or so, and stop with Reggie?"

"Will you come?" asked her husband, brightening.

"I can't very well. You see they are just laying down the tatami: and when that is done, the house will be ready. Besides, I feel so well here. I like the heat."

"But I've never been away without you!" objected Geoffrey. "I think it would be beastly."

This side of the question had not struck Asako. She felt a momentary thrill of relief. She would be able to give all her time to her beloved Japanese home. Geoffrey was a darling, but he was so uninterested in everything.

"It will only be for a few days," she said, "you want the change; and when you come back it will be like being married again."

CHAPTER XVIII

Among the Nikko Mountains

Ie chikaki
Tsumagi no michi ya
Kure-nuramu:
Nokiba ni kudaru
Yama-bito no koye!

Dusk, it seems, has come
To the wood-cutter's track
That is near my hut;
The voices of the mountainmen
Going down to the shed!

Geoffrey left early one morning in a very doubtful frame of mind, after having charged Tanaka to take the greatest care of his lady, and to do exactly what she told him.

It was not until half-way up the steep climb between Nikko and Chusenji that his lungs suddenly seemed to break through a thick film, and he breathed fresh air again. Then he was glad that he had come.

He was afoot. A coolie strode on before him with his suit-case strapped on his back. They had started in pouring rain, a long tramp through narrow gorges. Geoffrey could feel the mountains around him; but their forms were wrapped in cloud. Now the mist was lifting; and although in places it still clung to branches like wisps of cotton-wool, the precipitous slopes became visible; and overhead, peeping through the clouds at impossible elevations, pieces of the mountain seemed to be falling from the grey sky. Everything was bathed in rain. The sandstone cliffs gleamed like marble, the luxuriant foliage like polished leather. The torrent foamed over its wilderness of grey boulders with a splendid rush of liberty.

Country people passed by, dressed in straw overcoats which looked like bee-hives, or with thin capes of oiled paper, saffron salmon colored. The kimo shirts were girt up like fishers—both men and women—showing gnarled and muscular limbs. The complexions of these mountain folk were red like fruit; the Mongolian yellow was hardly visible.

The air was full of the clamour of the torrent, the heavy splashing of raindrops delayed among the leaves, and the distant thunder of waterfalls.

What a relief to breath again, and what a pleasure to escape from the tortuous streets and the toy houses, from the twisted prettiness of the Tokyo gardens and the tiresome delicacy of the rice-field mosaic, into a wild and rugged nature, a land of forests and mountains reminiscent of Switzerland and Scotland, where the occasional croak of a pheasant fell like music upon Geoffrey's ear!

(Copyright, 1922, by Paul A. Loverlett)

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

INDIGESTION

Pepsinic Seltzer is a clean and pleasing preparation which not only gives immediate relief but strengthens the stomach so it will perform its natural work. It eliminates that dizzy and heavy feeling. Free from heart-depressing drugs. Try it—it Brings Results!

PEPSINIC SELTZER

Relieves HEADACHE, HEARTBURN of the worst type, GASTRITIS and DYSPEPSIA (hyper-acid type). On sale at drug stores and fountains.

PEPSINIC SELTZER CO.
96 Front Street Worcester, Mass.

The Seltzer That Won't Affect the Heart
Endorsed by L. B. Allyn, Mellere Laboratories

Use BOVININE after sickness or operation to restore the life force

WHERE the so-called "tonic" only whips up the already fatigued nerves, Bovinine contributes actual blood building force and nourishment.

Two generations of scientific progress have been unable to improve upon the method used in making Bovinine—

Because Bovinine is produced from the vital elements contained in healthy steer's Blood—nature's own source of health and strength.

Of All Druggists

THE BOVININE COMPANY
75 West Houston Street New York

Why Corns?

Just say Blue-jay to your druggist

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in a colorless clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in thin plasters. The action is the same.

Pain Stops Instantly

Bayer

Advertisement

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair "Use Liquid Arvon"

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It does no good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

To Stop a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine tablets

Be sure you get BROMO

The box bears this signature E. W. Grove

Price 30c.

WOMEN WORKERS! ATTENTION

Boston employers reach the competent women of this city who are seeking employment through the "Help Wanted" columns of The American.

Intelligent readers and workers regard American "Help Wanted" ads as their Bureau of Information about desirable openings, because it fills many positions at a minimum of time and cost.

And because it reaches the class of intelligent people who make profitable employees, employers of the higher type seek their assistants through it. As a result, the number of "Help Wanted" opportunities for both employers and employees is constantly increasing.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN
Boston's Want Ad Directory
Read for Profit—Use for Results

Prices Rule Weak on Big Board, Steels Leading Drop; Money Is Cut to 4%

FORBES' VIEWS ON FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

I recently sounded a warning not to become unduly influenced by either favorable or unfavorable developments during coming months. Such a warning seemed needed because too many people were becoming blindly, unreasonably optimistic. Also, I had a feeling that we would witness irregular happenings. And we are.

* * *

Think of it: On Friday thirteen stocks on the New York Stock Exchange broke to new low records for the year, while on the same day, five stocks reached new high records for the year.

Since the middle of October the average fall in stocks has exceeded ten points. Last week's decline approximated seven points.

From the year's high level, bonds are now down 4 per cent. They also were weakish last week.

* * *

Talk of irregularity, why, could anything be more irregular than the fluctuations of stocks of companies appearing to stock dividends or special cash payments or increased regular rates? Such announcements by numerous directors have caused immediate advances in quotations; other stocks have celebrated a similar news by promptly declining still other have, marketwise, ignored such news.

* * *

Irregularity has not been confined to the security markets.

The rising tendency in the steel industry has apparently been checked and prices are now described as more inclined to sag than to soar.

Railroad traffic was breaking all records two or three weeks ago. Now it has decreased appreciably.

Copper was sluggish for quite a while; now sales are announced at as high as 14 cents a pound.

"Substantial advances reported in foodstuffs with new high levels in some," says one headline, yet Dun's records that half of the total wholesale price changes last week were declines, a distinct change from the trend for months.

* * *

The Federal Reserve Banks' reserve jumped up 1¼ per cent, last week following a series of declines.

Call money in New York, however, finished the week at the high figure, 5 per cent.

Despite this, J. P. Morgan had given up hopes of arranging a large German loan, and despite other unsettling events, in London, the principal foreign exchanges gained strength. Belgian francs touched a new high point for the year.

* * *

By not taking too much for granted, by building solidly rather than swiftly, by exerting all diligence to cultivate ample trade production, by holding a tight rein on prices, and by maintaining a level head, refusing to become elated over individual happenings either good or bad, then we ought to be able to pilot through the business away from the dangerous rocks that some discern ahead and into reasonably smooth sailing.

(Copyright, 1922, by B. C. Forbes.)

NEW HAVEN RUN BELOW 20 IN BEAR DRIVE

Prices ruled weak most of the day on the New York Stock Exchange, steels leading declines. Money remained at 4, dropping to 4 per cent. New Haven was run below 20 in a bear drive.

There was a rally in the last hour. U. S. Steel was forced down to within ¼ of par in the early afternoon. Republic Steel was snapped to a new year's low, off more than 2 points.

YEAR'S LOWS.

Other year's lows were made by Butterick, Inspiration, Anaconda, Chino, Kansas City Southern and Northern Pacific.

California Pete rose over 3 points. General Electric was up over 1 at its best and Mexican Petroleum 7.

A middday rally carried a number of important stocks to levels of one or four points beyond Saturday's closing, among which were New York Central, Union Pacific, Reading, American Can, United Fruit, American Sugar and General Asphalt, before battering tactics were resumed by the bears.

Large amounts of stock were then thrown on the market, driving down many of the leaders specultative shares to the lowest prices of the current movement.

STEELS DEPRESSED.

Baldwin dropped 3¾ under last week's final, Atlantic Coast Line 3¾, Mexican preferred 5, and Studebaker, American Can, Crucible and Bethlehem Steel B 2 points.

Sugar stocks led in the second hour, stimulated by new highs for the year in raw sugar at 4 cents and refined at 7.35. American Sugar scored an 8¾ rise, against last week's low of 68½, while Cuban American preferred at 88¼ was aroused the second best levels, and the common at 23¾ showed a four-point recovery from its recent low.

With the exception of Liberty Bonds and a small number of industrials, bond prices receded somewhat and losses as high as 3 points were recorded.

Eastern Steamship Up 3 at Best in Boston

Eastern Steamship rose 3 points at its best in Boston trading, United Fruit a point and Calumet & Hecla more than 5 points.

Mexican Petroleum receded to its year's low in late trading and there were point or more losses in Calumet & Arizona, Associated Oil, the Eastern Massachusetts and Warren Bros.

Amoskeag at 141 and U. S. Smelting preferred at 47½ added a point each.

Copper Range, off a point at 56, touched its previous year's low. Alhmeek gave way 1¾ at 56¾, and Island Creek Coal 1¼ at 102¾.

MAINE CENTRAL HAS SPLENDID COME-BACK

For the first 10 months of 1922, Maine Central has had a surplus of $429,203 after fixed charges, comparing with a deficit of $1,724,881 for the corresponding period last year. Preliminary figures for the first three weeks of November indicate that fixed charges will be fully earned for this month.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

Replies to Investors

Queries of interest to investors will be answered in this column or by mail. Send questions, with stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Frank H. Melson, Financial Editor, Boston American, No. 80 Summer street, Boston, Mass.

WILSON & CO.

To C. I. S., Weymouth.—Wilson & Co. was incorporated originally in 1916 under the name of Sulzberger & Sons Company, succeeding by merger to a business established in 1853. The company has twenty subsidiaries, operating meat packing plants in important cities of the United States, Argentina and Brazil. Chicago plant covers twenty-eight acres, Kansas City plant thirteen acres and New York plant occupies two city blocks. It also has 120 domestic distributing branches and about 2,500 railroad cars. Physical properties were carried in last balance sheet at $31,675,000 and investments in other companies at $16,818,000. Current assets exceeded current liabilities by $25,628,000. According to the most recent statement, the company was earning in excess of its preferred dividend during the first five months of 1922.

CHICAGO PNEUMATIC TOOL.

To G. B. V., Arlington street—Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent., payable on stock of record October 14.

After meeting of directors, Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board, said company was earning a little better than dividend requirements and that volume of business was two and one-half or three times greater than during early part of the year. In regard to railroad buying Mr. Schwab said indications were that within a short time the railroad buying would be renewed on a very substantial scale.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

Boston Notes

EASTERN Steamship Lines for ten months to October 31 earned all deductions except Federal taxes $1,123,307. So far this year, therefore, the company has earned about $18 per share on its $5,244 shares of common stock.

RUBY Consolidated Silver Mines is to change its name to Ruby Consolidated Development. It will add to its business by purchase of Kentucky oil leases.

CALUMET has begun diamond drilling eastward from point about 81st level of Red Jacket shaft where valuable formation was tapped year ago.

DESPITE Chile-Anaconda merger denial, it is rumored that consolidation of interests at future time is not unlikely.

EASTERN Manufacturing has listed on New York Curb 160,000 authorized common shares, par value $5.

EDISON'S special meeting to ratify proposed issue of new stock is now set for noon, November 28.

MORNING Star, operating in Coeur D'Alene district and rated as one of largest producers of zinc in world, has sold its zinc concentrates on hand to United States Smelting.

BLACK ROCK mine of Butte & Superior is reported producing more zinc than ever before in its history.

U. S. SMELTING'S net profits for year should run between $5 and $6 a share on common. Judging by earnings to date.

BOSTON Stock Exchange has listed $35,000,000 New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. first mortgage 50-year 5 per cent. bonds, series A, and $1,000,000 10-year 4½ per cent debenture bonds, due January 1, 1930.

CONSOLIDATED Textile mills are reported running day and night. Orders on hand are approximately $12,000,000 against $2,000,000 last year.

DISSOLUTION of a number of important bull pools has been given as a reason for heavy liquidation in the past week, culminating in throwing overboard of a few of the big speculative leaders.

HORNBLOWER & WEEKS—Continual reaction seems in prospect. There should be a good rally starting around December 1 and running until the middle of next week.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

NEW YORK STOCKS

Best Comparative Daily Table Published in New England

1922 High	1922 Low	Stock and Dtv. Rate in $	Open.	High.	Low.	Last.	Close	Prev. Close
83	48	Adams Express..... 2a	78½	78	75	75½		75½
22	10½	Advance Rumely.....	10¾	11	10¾	11		—
68	44½	Adv Rumely pf (2)..... 4a	46¾	46¾	46½	46½		—
66	45½	Air Reduction (4)..... 4a	49½	49½	48¾	48¾		—
55	37½	Alas Rubber.....	37½	37½	37½	37½		—
118¾	107	All Am Cables (1)..... 12a	120	120	120	—		—
1	⅛	Alaska Gold Mines..... ½	⅛	⅛	⅛	—		—
2	⅛	Alaska Juneau..... ½	⅛	⅛	⅛	—		—
39¾	37½	Allis-Chal Mfg (4)..... 4½a	41½	41½	41½	41		—
108¾	98¾	Allied Chem & D (6)..... 6a	98¾	98¾	98¾	98¾		—
118½	101	Allied Ch & D pf (7) 8¾%	K101	K101	K101	K101		—
42¾	29¾	Am Ag Chem..... 2½a	32¾	33¼	32¾	33¼		32¾
32¾	21½	Am Beet Sugar.....	28	28	28	—		—
69	31¾	Am Bosch Magneto..... 2½a	32½	33¾	32½	33¾		—
73¾	32½	Am Can..... 2a	69¾	70¾	69¾	70¾		70
201	141	Am Car & Fdy (12)..... 12a	177½	178	176½	176½		—
11	9	Am Chicle.....	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾		—
36¾	16¾	Am Cotton Oil..... 1½a	16¾	17	16¾	17		—
61	34	Am Cotton Oil pf..... 3½a	33½	33½	33½	33½		—
142	136	Am Express (4)..... 4a	137	137	137	137		—
122	70	Am Ice (7).....	101	101	K9	K9		—
60¾	29¾	Am International..... 2½a	29¾	30	29¾	29¾		—
47½	28	Am Linseed..... 2a	28	28	28	28		—
138¾	102	Am Locomotive (8)..... 8a	118¾	119¾	118¾	119¾		—
118	92	Am Radiator (4)..... 4a	110½	111	110½	111		—
31¾	25	Am Saf Razor (25c)..... 6%	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾		—
35½	8½	Am Ship & Com.....	28	28	28	28		—
51¾	43¾	Am Smelting & Ref (6)..... 6a	47¾	48	47¾	48		—
109	109¾	Am Snuff (3).....	141	141	141	141½		—
48½	36¾	Am Steel Foundries (4)..... 4a	38¾	39¼	38¾	39¼		—
83½	54½	Am Sugar Refining..... 7½a	74½	77	72	72¾		—
27¾	23¾	Am Sumatra Tob..... 2½a	25¾	25¾	25¾	—		—
121¾	116½	Am Tel & Tel (9)..... 9a	120¾	121¾	121¾	122		—
109½	139½	Am Tobacco (12)..... 14½a	148	147¾	147¾	148¼		—
138¾	138	Am Tobacco pf (8)..... 8a	138¾	138¾	138¾	138¾		—
98½	96½	Am Tobacco pf (B)..... 8a	98	98	98	98		—
35¾	4	Am W W & Elec..... 2½a	23¾	23¾	23¾	—		—
91	78¾	Am Woolen (12)..... 12a	90¾	91	90¾	91		—
31½	22½	Am Writing Pap pf..... 2a	23	23	23	23		—
21¾	13¾	Am Zinc (1)..... 1a	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾		—
57	48¾	Anaconda Copper..... 4a	49¾	49¾	48¾	49¾		—
48¾	43	Asso Dry Goods (4)..... 80%	47¾	48¾	47¾	48¾		—
111¾	101¾	Associated Oil (6)..... 11a	111	112	111	112		—
134½	93	Atlantic Coast L (7)..... 10%	104¾	104¾	103¾	103		—
119¾	91¾	Atch T & S Fe (6)..... 6a	96¾	96¾	96¾	96¾		—
93¾	80	Atch T & S Fe pf (5)..... 5a	80	80	80	80		—
35¾	21	Atlantic Gulf & W I (2½)..... 2½a	23¾	23¾	23¾	23		—
91	81	Austin-Nichols..... 3a	83¾	83¾	83¾	83¾		—
142¾	93¾	Baldwin Loco (7)..... 10a	118¾	119¾	116	117¾		—
194	194	Baldwin Loco pf (7)..... 7a	118½	118½	118½	—		—
69¾	33½	Balt & Ohio..... 4a	38¾	38¾	38¾	39¾		—
49¾	33½	Balt & Ohio pf (4)..... 4a	36¾	37	36¾	37		—
98¾	19¾	Barnsdall, Class A..... 1a	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾		—
38	17	Barnsdall, Class B..... 1a	18½	18	18	18		—
50	30	Beech-Nut Packing (4)..... 4a	45¾	46¾	45¾	46¾		—
87¾	65	Beth Steel Cl B (3)..... 6½a	65½	65½	65½	65½		—
100¾	94¼	Beth Steel pf new (7)..... 8a	94	94	94	94		—
35¾	25	Booth Fisheries..... 4%	26¾	26¾	26¾	26¾		—
144¾	108	Brklyn Edison El (10)..... 10a	135½	136	135½	135½		—
135¾	116	Brooklyn Rap Tran..... 4%	118½	118½	118½	118½		—
124½	70	Bklyn Un Gas (8)..... 8a	116	116	115	—		—
138¾	119	Burns Bros (10)..... 10a	128	128	128	128½		—
39¾	29¾	Burroughs Add M (2)..... 2a	30¾	31¼	30¾	30¾		—
36¾	20¾	Butte & Superior..... 2a	27¾	28	26¾	28½		—
20	13	Butterick Co..... 2a	13½	13½	13½	13½		—
7¾	7¼	Caddo Cent O & R..... 7%	7¼	7¼	7¼	7¼		—
11¾	9¼	Calahan Zinc Lead..... 1a	9¼	9¼	9¼	9¼		—
79¾	68	California Packing (3)..... 70%	75¾	76	75¾	76		—
47¾	43½	Cal Petroleum..... 40%	46¾	46¾	45¾	45¾		—
114¾	104¾	Canada Pac Ry (10)..... 10a	104¾	105¾	104¾	105¾		—
46¾	26½	Central Leather..... 3½a	32¼	32¾	32¼	33¼		—
63¾	53¾	Central Leather pf..... 6%	60¾	60¾	60¾	60¾		—
61½	43¾	Certain-Teed Prod (4)..... 4a	45¾	46¾	45¾	46¾		—
63¾	34	Certain-Teed Prod (4)..... 4a	41¾	42¾	40¾	43		—
11¾	7¾	Chandler Motor (3)..... 30%	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾		—
84	64	Ches & Ohio (4)..... 4a	64½	65¾	64½	65¾		—
104¾	101¾	Ches & Ohio pf (6)..... 10½%	101¾	101¾	101¾	101½		—
31¾	25	Chile Copper..... 2a	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾		—
39¾	31½	Chi & Alton pf..... 3%	3¾	3¾	3¾	—		—
14¾	11¾	Chi & East Ill..... 2a	13	13	13	—		—
54½	31¼	Chi & East Ill pf..... 63%	53	53	53	53		—
18¾	4	Chi Great West..... 4%	4¾	4¾	4¾	4¾		—
21¾	14¾	Chi Ind & Louis (2)..... 2a	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾		—
36¾	16½	Chi Mil & St Paul..... 2½%	23¾	23¾	21¾	23¾		—
36¾	16½	Chi Mil & St P pf..... 3½%	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾		—
91¾	86¾	Chi & N'west (5)..... 7½%	89¾	89¾	89¾	89¾		—
96¾	96¾	Chi Rock Isl & Pac..... 3½%	32¾	32¾	31¾	31¾		—
85¾	70¾	Chi R I & P pf (6)..... 6%	70¾	70¾	70¾	70¾		—
39¾	18½	Chile Copper..... 2a	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾		—
39¾	18½	Chino Copper..... 2a	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾		—
62¾	41	Coca-Cola (9)..... 7%	75¾	75¾	75¾	75¾		—
24¾	17	Colorado Fuel Iron..... 2½a	23¾	24	23¾	24		—
3¾	1¼	Columbia Graphone.....	2¾	2¾	2¾	2¾		—
100¾	49¾	Continental Can..... 3a	101¾	98	101	98½		—
114¾	64¾	Corn Products (4)..... 4a	98	98	98	98		—
114¾	94½	Col Gas & El (5)..... 6%	97¾	97¾	97¾	97¾		—
114¾	94½	Columbian Carbon (4)..... 4a	97¾	97¾	97¾	97¾		—
39¾	33¾	Com Tob Int'l (3)..... 64%	44¾	44¾	44¾	44¾		—
123¾	80	Con Gas (8)..... 123%	124¾	123	123¾	124		—
31¾	11¾	Consol Textile Pref (8)..... 12%	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾		—
19¾	9	Con Textile..... 13½	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾		—
61¾	43¾	Cosden & Co (4)..... 4½a	46¾	46¾	46¾	46¾		—
85¾	82¾	Crucible Steel..... 4a	83¾	83¾	83¾	83¾		—
100	80	Crucible Stl pf (7)..... 8a	81	81	81	81		—
24¾	15¾	Cuba Cane Sugar..... 2½a	22¾	23	22¾	22¾		—
18¾	6¾	Cuba Cane Sugar pf..... 12%	14¾	14¾	14¾	14¾		—
39¾	23¾	Cuba Cane Sugar pf..... 12%	14¾	15¾	14¾	15¾		—
48¾	23¾	Davison Chemical..... 2½a	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾		—
141½	100¾	Del & Hud (8)..... 115%	115¾	115¾	115¾	115¾		—
61¾	49¾	Dome Mines (2)..... 2a	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾		—
100	70	Eastman Kodak (8)..... 85%	84½	84½	84½	—		—
49¾	36¾	Elec Stor Bat (3)..... 3a	36¾	36¾	36¾	36¾		—
39¾	21¾	Elk Horn Coal..... 22%	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾		—
90¾	76¾	Endicott-John (5)..... 10%	84½	84½	84½	84½		—
118¾	79¾	Erie..... 2a	89¾	89¾	89¾	89¾		—
118¾	79½	Erie 1st pf..... 4a	89¾	89¾	89¾	89¾		—
31¾	11¾	Erie 1st pf..... 1a	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾		—
31¾	11¾	Erie 1st pf..... 1a	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾		—
107	75½	Famous Play L (8)..... 8a	77	77	77	77		—
108¾	79	Fisher..... 113%	103¾	103¾	103¾	103¾		—
108¾	79	Fisher pf..... 8a	103¾	103¾	103¾	103¾		—
27¾	12¾	Freeport-Texas..... 10%	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾		—
118¾	87½	General Asphalt..... 4a	98¾	98¾	98¾	98¾		—
77¾	58¾	General Cigar (8)..... 7%	76	76	76	76		—
181¾	136	Gen Elec (6)..... 6a	178	178	178	178		—
1	98½	Gen Motors (7)..... 8%	98½	98½	98½	98½		—
19¾	9¾	Glidden Co..... 1a	13	13	13	13		—
61¾	49¾	Goldwyn Pict Corp..... 4a	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾		—
34¾	30	Goodrich (B F) Co..... 2½%	30¾	30¾	29¾	29¾		—
96¾	70¾	Gt Northern pf (7)..... 8a	80¾	79¾	80	80		—
56¾	44¾	Gt Northern Ore pf (5)..... 4%	45¾	45¾	45¾	45¾		—
94¾	44½	Gulf States Steel..... 7a	73¾	68¾	71	72¾		—
34¾	34¾	Houston Oil..... 2a	34¾	34¾	34¾	34¾		—
31¾	25½	Hudson Mot Car (2)..... 2½a	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾		—
23¾	10½	Hupp Mot Car (1)..... 2½a	23¾	23¾	23¾	23¾		—
39¾	20¾	Illinois Central..... 5a	30¾	30¾	30¾	30¾		—
119¾	97½	Illinois Central (7)..... 10%	105	105	105	105½		—
39¾	20¾	Inspiration Copper..... 2a	21¾	21¾	21¾	21¾		—
30¾	20½	Inter Combus Eng (2)..... 2½a	22¾	22¾	22¾	22¾		—
118¾	79½	Inter Harv new (4)..... 8a	88¾	88¾	88¾	88¾		—
118¾	79½	Int Har Cor pf (4)..... 4a	88¾	88¾	88¾	88¾		—
18¾	11¾	Inter Nickel..... 1½a	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾		—
18¾	11¾	Inter Paper..... 1½a	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾		—
39¾	12¾	Invincible Oil..... 1a	14¾	14¾	14¾	14¾		—
52¾	36	Iron Products..... 3½%	38¾	38¾	38¾	39		—
39¾	21¾	Island Creek Coal..... 2a	29¾	29¾	29¾	29¾		—
7¾	5	Kansas & Gulf..... 2a	5¾	5¾	5¾	5¾		—
39¾	25¾	Kansas City Southern..... 2a	18	18	17¾	17¾		—
39¾	24	Kayser & Co..... 2a	28¾	28¾	28	28¾		—
39¾	34½	Kelly Springfd Tire..... 3a	38¾	38¾	38¾	38¾		—
39¾	25½	Kennecott Copper..... 3½a	30¾	30¾	30¾	30¾		—
24¾	4¾	Keystone Tire & R..... 8%	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾		—
39¾	8¾	Kinds Spice & W..... 1a	10¾	10¾	10¾	10¾		—
58	44	Lackawanna Steel..... 5a	75	75	75	75		—
72	56½	Lehigh Valley (3½)..... 3½a	58¾	58¾	58¾	58¾		—
238	153½	Liggett & M (12)..... 200	200	200	200	200		—
39¾	25¾	Lima Loco (4)..... 62½%	63¾	63¾	63¾	63¾		—
39¾	25¾	Lowe's Inc..... 2a	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾		—
14¾	8	Loft Inc (1)..... 1½%	11¾	11¾	11¾	11¾		—
39¾	25¾	L & N (3)..... 3a	109	109¾	109	109¾		—
61¾	25½	Mack Trucks..... 10%	43	43	43	43		—
49	19½	Mallinson & Co..... 3½a	31¾	33¾	29¾	31¾		—
39¾	32	Manhattan Shirt (3)..... 40%	42	43	42	42¾		—
39¾	27¾	Marland Oil & R (4)..... 30%	30¾	30¾	30¾	—		—
39¾	30¾	Martin-Parry (3)..... 3a	28	28¾	28¾	—		—
39¾	21	Maxwell Mot Cl B..... 15	13	13½	13¾	—		—
39¾	21	Maxwell Mot Cl A..... 40	41	41½	41½	—		—
39¾	101	May Dept Stores (8)..... 161	160½	160½	160½	161		—
21¾	15½	McIntyre Por M (1)..... 17	17	17¾	17¾	—		—
139	108¾	Mexican Pet (12)..... 211½	211½	211½	206½	206½		—
39¾	14¾	Mex Seaboard (2)..... 19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾		—
39¾	39¾	Miami Copper (1)..... 25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾		—
16	11	Middle St Oil (1.20)..... 11½	11½	11½	11½	11½		—
39¾	27½	Midvale Steel..... 29¾	30	29¾	29¾	29¾		—
39¾	39¾	M K T Lines..... 13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾		—
48¾	34¾	M K & T pf (new)..... 37¾	37¾	37¾	37¾	—		—
39¾	15¾	Missouri Pacific..... 15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾		—
39¾	41½	Missouri Pac pf..... 41½	41½	41½	41½	41½		—
17¾	12	Moon Motors (1)..... 16¾	16¾	16¾	16¾	—		—
39¾	39¾	Montgomery Ward..... 39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾		—
39¾	63	Montana Power (3)..... 66¾	67	67	66¾	66¾		—
39¾	39¾	Mother Lode Coal (½)..... 39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾	39¾		—
39¾	39¾	Nat En & Stamp..... 48¾	48¾	48¾	48¾	48¾		—
39¾	39¾	Nat Lead (3)..... 113½	113½	112½	112½	113		—
39¾	39¾	Nevada Consol Cop..... 12¾	12¾	12¾	12¾	12¾		—
39¾	39¾	N O Tex & Mex (3)..... 21¾	22	21¾	21¾	22		—
39¾	39¾	N Y Central (5)..... 90½	90½	90½	90½	90½		—
39¾	39¾	N Y N H & H..... 20¼	20¼	20¼	20¼	20¼		—
39¾	39¾	Norfolk & West (7)..... 113½	113½	112	112	113½		—
39¾	39¾	North Amer Co (3)..... 63	63	63	63	—		—
39¾	39¾	North Pacific (5)..... 73¾	74¼	73¾	74¼	74¼		—
39¾	39¾	Ohio Body & Blue (3)..... 45%	45¾	45¾	45¾	45¾		—
39¾	39¾	Okla Prod & Ref..... 2	2	2	2	—		—
39¾	39¾	Otis Steel..... 9¾	9¾	9	9	9		—
39¾	39¾	Owens Bottle (2)..... 70	70	70	70	70		—
39¾	39¾	Pacific Develop..... 1¼	1¼	1¼	1¼	1¼		—
39¾	39¾	Pac Gas & Elec (2)..... 49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾		—
39¾	39¾	Pacific Oil (2)..... 43¾	43¾	43¾	43¾	43¾		—
39¾	39¾	Pan-Am Pet & T (4) 82	84½	82	84	84½		—
39¾	39¾	Pan-Am Pet & T (B) 61	61	61	61	61½		—
39¾	39¾	Penn RR (3)..... 46	46¾	45¾	45¾	46¾		—
39¾	39¾	Penn Seaboard pf..... 3½	3¾	3¾	3¾	3¾		—
39¾	39¾	People's Gas Chi (5)..... 90½	91	90½	91	—		—
39¾	39¾	Pere Marquette..... 29¾	29¾	29¾	29¾	29¾		—
39¾	39¾	Phila Co (6)..... 37¾	37¾	37¾	37¾	37¾		—
39¾	39¾	Phillips Petrol (2)..... 41½	42	40¾	40¾	42		—
39¾	39¾	Pierce Oil..... 4	4¼	4	4	4¼		—
39¾	39¾	Piggly-Wiggly (4)..... 47	48¾	46¾	46¾	48¾		—
39¾	39¾	Pittsburgh Coal..... 45½	58	55¾	55¾	58		—
39¾	39¾	Pitts & W Va..... 33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾		—
39¾	39¾	Pond Cr Coal (8½)..... 18	18½	17¾	18¼	18		—
39¾	39¾	Pressed Steel Car (3)..... 106¾	107	106¾	106¾	107		—
39¾	39¾	Postum Cereal pf (6) 111	111	111	111	111		—
39¾	39¾	Producers & Ref..... 38¾	39	38¾	39	39¾		—
39¾	39¾	Prod & Ref pf (7)..... 40%	40¾	40¾	40¾	40¾		—
39¾	39¾	Public Serv NJ (6)..... 96¾	97	96½	96½	97		—
39¾	39¾	Pullman Co (8)..... 123½	123½	123½	123½	123½		—
39¾	39¾	Punta Alegre Sugar..... 44¾	46¾	44¾	46¾	46¾		—
39¾	39¾	Pure Oil (3)..... 26½	27¼	26¾	27	27		—
39¾	39¾	Pure Oil pf 6 pf..... 100	100	100	100	100		—
39¾	39¾	Railway Stl Spg (2)..... 109¾	109¾	109¾	109¾	110		—
39¾	39¾	Ray Consol Cop..... 13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾	13¾		—
39¾	39¾	Reading (4)..... 74¾	74¾	73¾	74¼	74¾		—
39¾	39¾	Reading 1st pf (2)..... 48¾	48¾	48¾	48¾	48¾		—
39¾	39¾	Remington Typew..... 21¾	21¾	21¾	21¾	21¾		—
39¾	39¾	Replogle Steel..... 22½	22½	21¾	21¾	22½		—
39¾	39¾	Rep Iron & Steel..... 65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾	65¾		—
39¾	39¾	Rep Iron & Steel pf..... 85	85	85	85	85		—
39¾	39¾	Reynolds Spring..... 14	14	14	13½	13½		—
39¾	39¾	Reynolds Tob B (3)..... 81½	82	81½	81½	82		—
39¾	39¾	Roy D NY shs (2.60)..... 32	32½	32	32½	32		—
39¾	39¾	St Jos Lead (4)..... 18¾	18¾	18¾	18¾	18¾		—
39¾	39¾	St-Louis-San Fran..... 21	21¾	20¾	20¾	21¾		—
39¾	39¾	St Louis-San Fr pf..... 35	35	35	35	35		—
39¾	39¾	St Louis Sou Ry..... 28¾	28¾

MAIL, 'PHONE OR BRING YOUR WANT ADS. TO THE AMERICAN. TELEPHONE MAIN 5180.

"Thank you for excellent results from advertising in the American's Classified Page."

Advertiser's Testimonial Regarding Results from Boston American's Classified Ads., on file at No. 80 Summer Street

MAIL, 'PHONE OR BRING YOUR CLASSIFIED ADS. TO THE AMERICAN. TELEPHONE MAIN 5180

TRAVEL BRIEFS
NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL

Daily through-car service from Boston to St. Petersburg, Florida, beginning January 1, is announced by J. A. Blaser, New England passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railway. This new service will enable tourists from Boston and other New England points to reach Florida with only one night on the sleeper.

The car will leave Boston on the Colonial Express from South Station at 9 a. m., daily. The car will arrive in Jacksonville the next evening, and continue on to St. Petersburg, arriving the following morning at 7:35 a. m., in time to enable passengers to reach their hotels in ample time for breakfast.

This is the fastest service ever provided to Florida points and indicates the growing volume and importance of the New England-to-Florida traffic.

NEWLYWED BACK ON JOB.

George H. O'Brien, chief clerk of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad's office in the Old South Building, returns to his desk today after two weeks' honeymooning at Asheville, N. C. and other Southern points. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien—the latter a popular former employe of the B. & A. R. R.—will make their home in Atlantic.

YOSEMITE AGENT IN TOWN.

Paul L. Hoenge, general agent of the Yosemite Transportation System and Yosemite National Park Company, whose headquarters are in Los Angeles, was a caller at a number of the local railroad offices during the past week.

LIBEL CAMPS AND BUNGALOWS

A list of bungalows and camps for rent in Southern California, including also detailed information regarding hotels, their capacities and rates, has been prepared by the Passenger Traffic Department of the Chicago & North Western Railway, New Englanders contemplating spending the Winter in California will find this list of great value in arranging for accommodations. Copies may be obtained, without charge, by application to Frank A. Hoover, in the office of the Chicago & North Western Railway, Room 416 Old South Building, 294 Washington street, Boston.

VICE-PRESIDENT A VISITOR

H. B. Earling, vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, was in town during the week. Mr. Earling's headquarters are in Seattle, Wash.

MANY FRIENDS MOURN RYAN.

The death of Philip H. Ryan, who was killed in an automobile accident at Billerica, was a profound shock to the employes of the various local railroad offices where he was well known. At the time of his death Mr. Ryan was chief clerk for the Atlantic Coast Line Broad. His railroad experience began in 1901 with the Boston & Maine Railroad, where he was employed for over two years. During the war he enlisted in the 332d Infantry and served as first sergeant at Camp Stewart, Newport News. After demobilization Mr. Ryan was connected for a brief time with the Southern Pacific Lines.

As a tribute of respect the Transportation Bowling League, of which he was a member, postponed all games scheduled for the past week.

MOVING WESTWARD

The annual movement of Christmas trees and cranberries from New England to points west has begun. Most of the Christmas trees are cut in Northern Vermont, and while the bulk of the total shipment goes to New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburg, many cars go as far west as Omaha and Kansas City.

The monopoly which Cape Cod holds on the cranberry market results in shipments all the way to the Pacific Coast. Refrigerator cars are used and the berries arrive on the West Coast in as good condition as those sent to the local markets. Even California, despite its success with all other kinds of fruits, has been unable to compete with the Cape section in growing cranberries.

A VISITOR FROM CANADA

Trs G. Rasp, Canadian freight and passenger agent of the New York Central Lines, at Montreal, was a visitor at a number of the local railroad offices during the week.

NORTHERN PACIFIC ISSUES BEAUTIFUL FOLDER.

C. E. Foster, general agent of the passenger department of the Northern Pacific Railway, has just received a few copies of a beautiful new folder containing full information about Northern Pacific trains, equipment and schedules. This folder, which is intended for distribution only by agents and passenger representatives, is beautifully illustrated with views of scenes along the line of the road. The cover design, embodying the well-known trade mark of this road, the "Mondad," is particularly striking.

LEAGUE BOWLING TONIGHT.

The Transportation Bowling League will roll tonight at the Chauncy Street Bowling Alleys the games scheduled for last week, which were postponed owing to the death of Edward J. Ryan, a former member of Blaser's teams and the leading bowler of the league. Various other matters of importance will be acted upon prior to the games.

REAL ESTATE HAPPENINGS

The property at No. 1 Winter place, between Winter street and Temple place, comprising a four-story building and 1,629 square feet of land, situated directly in the rear of A. Hosford & Company, has been sold by Ellis L. Dresel and another to Frank A. Connors, title coming through Orin S. Green. This property is one of the buildings occupied for many years by the well-known Locke-Ober restaurant. The assessed valuation is $75,000, of which $63,500 is on the land. This is the first sale of this property for nearly one hundred years, the office of Frederick Vlaux, 53 State street, negotiated the transaction.

HISTORIC SITE LEASED.

D. A. Schulte, Inc., have leased for a long term of years the land and buildings at Nos. 628-636 Washington street and Nos. 1-11 Essex street, corner. The office of Frederick Vlaux, 53 State street, negotiated the transaction.

HISTORIC SITE LEASED.

D. A. Schulte, Inc., have leased for a long term of years the land and buildings at Nos. 628-636 Washington street and Nos. 1-11 Essex street, corner. The office of Frederick Vlaux, 53 State street, negotiated the 241 square feet of land, having a total assessed value of over one million dollars.

This property is the site of the famous Liberty Tree used as the gathering place by the Sons of Liberty in 1776 at the time of the repeal of the Stamp Act. The corner of Washington and Essex streets was then known as Hanover square and the space about the old tree, called Liberty Hall, was the scene of many patriotic demonstrations and the starting place for the parade of the Sons of Liberty. The tree itself was used for the hanging of effigies of Tory dignitaries.

After the destruction of the Liberty Tree by British encroachers, a pole was erected upon its stump, which was there as late as the visit of Lafayette in 1825. The site was later occupied by the Liberty Tree Tavern and in 1845 the historic corner, then assessed for $35,000, passed into the hands of David Sears, the trustees of whose estate are the lessors at the present time. The lease was negotiated by the office of Whitcomb & Co., No. 10 State street.

LARGE WOBURN TRANSACTIONS.

The largest sale made in Woburn in several years has just been closed through the office of William E. McCoy & Co., 481-483 Old South Building, represented by B. Zolman and W. H. Sweeney. The property is the well-known Johnson estate, located at the corner of Montvale avenue and Main street, Woburn, next to the Woburn National Bank. The property is a brick building of eight stores and five offices, a frame block of seven stores, a large fireproof garage and about 14,000 square feet of land. The total assessed valuation is $75,000. George H. Kissock of Brookline was the purchaser.

Mr. Kissock has resold through the same realty office the garage and frame block of stores, with the land thereto, assessed for at total of $35,000. Edward Cahill of North Station was the buyer of this parcel.

ROXBURY DWELLING CONVEYED

J. D. Bruce of No. 223 Dudley street, Roxbury, reports the sale of the frame dwelling and 4,312 square feet of land at No. 336 Dudley street, Roxbury, assessed for $5,000. Nora Bowen conveyed to Katherine T. Good, who buys for business use and occupancy. The land is taxed at $1,004.

DORCHESTER TRANSACTIONS.

William J. Henry of No. 379 Neponset avenue reports the sale of the property at No. 1 Rice street, Dorchester, by Lucy E. Jones to Sarah Little. The property consists of a single frame dwelling and 6,945 square feet of land, assessed for a total of $4,100.

Charles J. Roche, of No. 24 Milk street, Boston, reports the purchase from Katharine McDonough of the modern three-family frame house at No. 853 Bowdoin street, Dorchester, assessed at $10,000.

AWARDS BUILDING CONTRACT

George A. Fuller Company, of Boston have been awarded the contract for constructing an insurance building on Milk, Broad, India and Central streets, Boston, according to Brown's Letters, Inc., Construction Reports. The building will be of brick and limestone, eleven stories high, 316x194x161x106 feet. The approximate cost is $3,400,000. Shepley, Rutan & Shattuck of Boston are the architects.

BUSINESS CORNER IN BEVERLY

The prominent corner at Nos. 104-108 Cabot street, Beverly, has been sold by Arthur A. Forbes et al., trustees, to Mary A. Harned, of Brookline, who will improve the property by the erection of a modern two-story business building. The assessed value is $14,000. William E. McCoy & Co., of Boston, were the brokers.

SUBURBAN TRANSACTIONS

Charles J. Roche of No. 24 Milk street, Boston, reports the purchase from Jennie Fine of five modern two-family houses, at Nos. 38-40, 50-54, 56-58 Stanley avenue, Medford. The assessed valuation is $45,000.

Mr. Roche has resold to Arthur Iannessa, the property numbered 38-40 Stanley avenue, valued at $9,000, and has also resold the property numbered 50-52 Stanley avenue, to Attillio Ianessa. This is assessed at $9,000.

Sylvanus R. Chandler has sold to Charles J. Roche the modern three-family house situated at No. 200 Boston avenue, Medford, assessed for $11,000. John O. P. Ohlund also has conveyed to Charles J. Roche the two-family frame dwelling at No. 94 Alpine street, Somerville, valued at $6,500.

Another transaction in which Mr. Roche figures as the purchaser involves the two-family frame dwelling at No. 83 Sycamore street, Somerville, valued at $9,000. Mildred B. Smith was the purchaser.

WINCHESTER, AUBURNDALE

Charles G. Clapp Company report the sale to Royal C. Hallowell, for Allan E. and Robert C. Boone, of the frame dwelling and garage and 12,000 square feet of land at No. 19 Grove street, Winchester.

Another sale by the Clapp Company is that of the single frame house and 5,100 square feet of land at No. 272 Melrose street, Auburndale. Thomas F. Gleason is the purchaser. The property was formerly owned by Hans L. Nelsen.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

THEFT OF OVERCOAT FROM AUTO CHARGED

Charles Watkins, colored, of Harrison avenue, South End, is under arrest charged with the larceny of an overcoat. The negro took a coat from the auto owned by George F. Healy of No. 15 Monument square, Charlestown, according to the police. Healy's machine had been left standing at Bromfield and Washington streets.

—Give Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

THIEVES STRIP AUTO OF FRAMINGHAM MAN

Pawtucket, R. I., Nov. 27.—Following attendance at the inauguration meeting of the Kiwanis Club, William H. Lowery of Framingham, Mass., found his automobile stripped of expensive robes, rear lamp and other accessories. Police headquarters were notified.

Furnished Rooms

MISCELLANEOUS

Hotel Washington

250 Steam heated rooms and suites. Daily $1 to $2; weekly $6 to $20. Tel. Back Bay 7660.

BACK BAY

BATAVIA ST., 27, Suite 2—Newly furnished rooms; gentlemen preferred.

BROOKLINE

NAPLES ROAD—Large furnished room with private bath, in single house; gentlemen only. Telephone 2137-M.

CAMBRIDGE

NICE large furnished front room, suitable for two. Tel. University 4526-R.

JAMAICA PLAIN

ATTRACTIVE furnished rooms in private family; gentleman only; Jamaica 2135-J.

MILTON

NEAR MATTAPAN SQ.—3 or 2 rooms, business couple, private family. Milton 118-R.

ROXBURY

BEAUTIFUL furnished rooms to let in private family. Roxbury 6442-W.

WARREN AVE., 15—Large furnished steam heated rooms for light housek'p'g.

SOUTH END

COMFORT CHAMBERS

ROOMS, $1 up day; weekly, $4, $5 up. Tel. 1414 Back Bay. Open all night.

KITCHENETTE, all privs., at MOLINO, 12 Thayer St., North Station.

UPTON ST., 35—Front parlor, sc, also room for housekeeping for two; $4 per week.

15 ROOMS steam heat, with board, $7 up. 16c day, men. 150 Dartmouth st.

WEST ROXBURY

FURNISHED ROOM with good family, hot water heat, electric light; very homelike; $4 per week Tel. Park 2519-M.

WINTHROP

16 STURGIS ST.—Offering for the Winter for attractive, single steam-heated rooms; some have bath; near station. Ocean 1151.

2 MIDDLE furnished front rooms, Winthrop Centre, board if desired. Ocean 350-R.

BOARD AND ROOMS

HOME BOARD and rooms for student or young business couple; $11 weekly; family. Tel. Jamaica 2211-M.

ROOM and board; home cooking. MRS. BAGAN, 394 W. Brookline st.

Furnished Rooms Wanted

WANTED—By young man in the Winter Hill section, a large, well furnished room, heated. Call Som. 4648-W.

Male Help Wanted

UPHOLSTERERS WANTED

STEADY work; good pay. ARBEL UPHOLSTERING CO., 315 Mystic av., Somerville.

JOB PRESS FEEDER

ALSO cutter and presser feeder on folding paper boxes, etc. THE ARLEN CO., 213 Broad St., Everett. M. 4.

LABORERS WANTED

STEADY work. Appl. LYON & GIN GRAS, INC., Marginal st., Chelsea.

EXPERIENCED marble workers and tilesmiths for soda fountain work. EMPLOYERS' REF. ASSN., 1 Boylston place.

METAL polisher on steel tools. UNDERHILL & BROS., 40 Broad st., Somerville.

SALESMEN—A new department of LITERARY DIGEST has openings for several men experienced in high class direct selling to the consumer. Apply at once. MR. BRASON, 1131 Little Building.

SALESMEN—If you can earn more than fifty dollars a week THE LITERARY DIGEST has a special proposition. Apply MR. BRASON, 1131 Little Building, at once.

WANTED—Men for general work. Apply 588 Commonwealth ave.

MALE HELP—MISCELLANEOUS

7 AUTO LESSONS $5

FULL CHAUFFEUR'S COURSE, $15. Get C-TA. car; license guaranteed. VINCENT, 4 Auburn st., Auburndale, 271, cor. 095.

CHAUFFEUR'S COURSE, $14; 7 lessons, $5; we also teach Ford driving. 116 Berkeley st. Back Bay 1967 B. L. license guaranteed.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE

PAINTER wants inside work. E. S. SLADE, 345 Shawmut ave., Boston, Mass. Tel. Conty 7434-J.

AGENTS, CANVASSERS, SALESMEN

SALESMEN—Write for list of lists and full particulars; earn $2,500 to $10,000 yearly; big demand for men; inexperienced or experienced, city or traveling. NATL SALES REG'S CO., 1328 Lytton bldg., 326 S. Dearborn, Chicago.

FEMALE HELP MISCELLANEOUS

LADIES, gentlemen, we will earn you for mail, domestic or waterville. Call or write. Enclose stamps. 100 Surprises st., Room 608, Boston.

Male Help Wanted

Piano Workers

Case Makers
Fitters
Regulators
Upright Installers
Tuners
Trimmers

Wanted for steady work.

Chickering Piano Factory
791 Tremont St., Boston

We Are Starting Up More Looms and Need Experienced

WORSTED WEAVERS

APPLY

AETNA MILLS
WATERTOWN, MASS.

Shakespeare once said:

"Our doubts are traitors and make us lose the good we oft might win by fearing to attempt."

If you fear to attempt—you had better give up altogether, the seed of success is not in you. Banish your doubts that are holding you down. Stand up on your own feet and see what a different man you will be. One of Boston's fastest growing concerns wants real men to develop into real salesmen and executives. Are you a real man? Then see Mr. Lord, 294 Washington st., Boston.

Several young men wanted at once to sell well-known magazine proposition in Boston territory; good pay to hustlers. See MR. ROONEY, Room 2, 51 Summer st.

BOYS WANTED

FOR good paying positions with large concern; chance for advancement for right kind of boys. Apply 16 B. SIMONS, rear entrance, 169 Congress st., Boston.

TEAMSTERS

EXCELLENT pay to experienced wood teamsters. Apply PARKER-YOUNG CO., Cabot, Cabot & Forbes Co., corner Canal and Traverse sts., Boston, Mass.

Several Men and Women

TO DO special sales work; opportunity to earn $50 to $100 per week; experience unnecessary. Apply INTERSTATE RUBBER CO., 252 Newbury st.

WANTED—Can earn fifty to seventy dollars weekly representing well LITERARY DIGEST specialties; details apply to MR. BRASON, 1131 Little Building, at once.

WANTED—Truck driver; steady work; must be good on junk and bottles. 46 West Canton st., Boston.

Female Help Wanted

WANTED

All Around Sitchers
Top Stitchers
Lining Stitchers
Outside Stay Stitchers

Steady Work

Rice & Hutchins, Inc.,
Middlesex Factory,
Marlboro, Mass.

Elevator Operators Wanted

We want a number of young colored women for elevator operators.

Apply at once to our Employment Division, 7th Floor Annex.

Jordan Marsh Company

WAITRESSES WANTED

We are in need of a number of women for waitresses in our Restaurant and Soda Fountain.

Apply at once to our Employment Division, 7th Floor Annex.

Jordan Marsh Company

USE
Edward's Shopping Checks
8 Winter St.

OUR shopping checks may be obtained here for any amount, and used as cash to have what you like on credit in the Department Stores of Shopping Section.

PAY US AT THE RATE OF A DOLLAR A WEEK OR YOUR ACCOUNT

Several young ladies wanted at once to sell well-known magazine proposition in Boston territory; good pay to hustlers. See MR. ROONEY, Room 2, 51 Summer st.

SALESLADIES WANTED

FOR high-grade candy proposition; salary and commission. Write stating qualifications to Box L 45 Boston American.

SALESGIRLS—General selling; $15 to $18. HOUGHTON & WARD, 394 Washington st.

For Sale—Miscellaneous

FURS

Manufacturer will sell A Few Beautiful FUR COATS

Consisting of

Muskrat Coats	$75
Raccoon Coats	$150
Seal Coats (Dyed Rabbit)	$65
Real Seal (Dyed Coney)	$95
Alaska Seal	$210

All Wonderful Bargains

FRENCH FUR SHOP

4th Floor 52 Temple Place
Room 402

FUR COATS

Your Credit Is Good
Prices as low as for cash and cash prices as modest with us and enjoy our liberal terms. We carry all styles and latest models. Quality and service guaranteed.

KISSELL FUR COMPANY
41 Winter St., Boston
Open Evenings 'Till 7:30 P. M.

CLOTHING

SUITS and OVERCOATS, $5 Up

NEW AND SECOND HAND clothing in place of high prices and pawnbroker rates. TERMINAL CLOTHING CO., 141 DUDLEY ST., Boston. Look for name and number between cornices from station.

SAM SILVER SLIGHTLY USED CLOTHES 125 ELIOT ST.

PAINTS AND WALL PAPER

100,000 ROLLS

WALL PAPER

HURT be moved, last season's patterns, five cents a roll; for property owners who appreciate value. E. W. HUCKET & CO., 1019 Tremont st., 5 minutes from North Station, Union or Haymarket.

FOR SALE

STANDARD full box oranges, $2.50, f. o. b. Florida, standard full box grapefruit, $2.50 f. o. b. Florida, unlicensed direct from Florida growers. Car quantities, $1, f. o. b. Blackville; flat crate grapefruit, $1. f. o. b. Blackville; cash with order. THE GROCERY SHOP, Blackville, S. C.

FOR SALE—Ladies' coats, 3 new gowns, men's new overcoats; double cowcatcher and pictures; will sell reasonable. Phone Ocean 2095.

PLUMBERS' SUPPLIES

PLUMBING SUPPLIES

Direct to You, Fact's Prices

STATE SUPPLY CO.

19 UNION STREET, BOSTON
Phone Beach 203 2U

Plumbing Supplies Sold Direct
Union Plbg. & Lig. Supply Co.
near No. 19a, 145-7 Portland St.
Hay. 4100.

WIGS—TOUPEES

High Grade Toupee $20
Ladies' and Gentlemen's Wigs
201 TREMONT ST., Boston.
Phone Beach 203

MACHINERY AND TOOLS

FOR SALE—One White & Middleton 17-h. p. gas engine, complete; also two 6-inch machine cutting gears, 84 teeth each, in A-1 condition; for quick sale. INTERSTATE RUBBER CO., 252 Newbury st.

FOR SALE—Set Melville st., Fall River.

SEWING MACHINES

GOING out of business; power good as new, $6. 245A Somerville av., Somerville.

CASH REGISTERS

National Cash Registers

Rebuilt and guaranteed. NATIONAL CASH REGISTER CO., INC., 10 Blackstone st., Richmond 4500.

STORE FIXTURES

For Sale—Complete restaurants. Whitman Co. Sullivan Sq.

MISCELLANEOUS

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES

Resharpened
NATIONAL BLADE SERVICE, Inc., 2 stores—18 State and 241 Friend st.

Travel Guide

NEW YORK $5.19

Via Rail and Boat.
Outside rooms with running water for $5.50 and up. Connecting train from So. Station 8.10 p. m. Steamer leaves Pier 9 at 9 p. m.

COLONIAL LINE Phone Cong. 2726 126 WHARF ST. BOSTON

BAY STATE LINE VIA RAIL & BOAT NEW YORK $4.50

OUTSIDE STATEROOMS $5.50
New Steamship Georgia and Tennessee. Large Privileges. Low Rates. Connections at all points of South States. Reduced Rail and Consolidated Ticket Offices.

Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry

DAY'S HENRY ALSTERLUND

Diamonds, old Gold, Silver, Platinum, Pearls, Gold Teeth. 31 years Free Exchange. 27 SCHOOL ST.

$1 DOWN Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry; WEEK Clothing. Lowest Prices. ESSEX SUPPLY CO., 6 BRIDGE FIELD ST.

$1 WEEK. DIAMONDS and WATCHES $1 DOWN. Large stock. Lowest prices. L. H. BURACK & CO., 5 Bromfield St.

WATCHES, DIAMONDS ON CREDIT. Watches, jewelry, materials. Easy terms. Free catalog. 2. ROUND & CO., 704 Washington st.

Pianos and Musical Instruments

UPRIGHT PIANOS

$25 $50 $65
as low as
$5 down, $1 weekly
$8-note player $175
30 rolls music free

New pianos half price
Best Piano Bargains in Boston

Used Chickering Uprights, $80, $65, $75; Hallet & Davis, Steinway, Vose, Ivers & Pond, Mason & Hamlin, and many others, $75 to $125. Several new pianos $150, $175 and up. Biggest warerooms in New England. A visit to my place will surprise you.

J. P. COLLINS

100 Summer Street, Boston
Largest piano dealer in the world

NORRIS 181 TREMONT ST. AUTOPIANO

CONSIDERED the best player piano made; conservatory model durable; no player needed to wear out and leak, perfect made tracker action; 88 note roll; 20 player piano rolls free; $200; now is the time to make a saving; we are before you decide. CHAS. S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.; all makes to rent. Open evenings; entry, arcade.

KRANICH & BACH, Hallet & Davis, Mehlin, Estey, Wesser Bros., Shubert, grands, uprights and player pianos; see our stock of 200 beautiful new pianos; you will be pleased. CHAS S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st. Small grands our specialty.

HIGH-GRADE PIANOS, player-pianos, music rolls, repairing. We guarantee satisfaction. DURRELL'S, 502 Washington st., Boston. Keller Terminal.

High grade used upright pianos $55, $65, $85, $95, $110, $125, $135, $150, $175, $185, $200. GARRITT & HAYWARD PLACE, 42 Washington st., near Boylston. Beach 1707.

USED PIANOS, standard makes, square grand $50, $75, $100, $150; terms $1 to $2 weekly. Uprights, $125 up. Player pianos, $175 up. Open evenings. 1164 Washington st.

$25 BUYS upright piano, plain style, 161 Worcester st., off Columbus av., Boston.

Automobile Exchange

PARK YOUR FORD

In front of our Open Air Rink—we will trade it for a Reliable any of 35—open or closed cars. Drive in—we'll "size it up"; be good to you, on terms you can afford; the best deal you ever had. THE BOSTON OLDSMOBILE CO., 112 Stuart st., Boston.

LOCOMOBILE

THE QUALITY, condition and appearance of this car cannot be duplicated at any car at the same price.

5-PASS. TOURING 1919 Model

Write K 54, Boston American.

A REAL BARGAIN

$95 buys this model Overland, 4-pass. touring, starter and lights, good tires, good motor. This car is a real buy and will be appreciated. CRAVATH & PARKER, Brookline.

$335—FORD SEDAN—$385

1921—LOOKS and runs like new; owner needs bargain; starter and lights; 1,000 extras; terms. CROSSMAN'S, 60 Stanhope st. Back Bay 1146.

1-TON CHEVROLET TRUCK

1919; CLOSED body; good running condition, 140 Albany st., Cambridge.

1917 MOLINE KNIGHT roadster, first condition, special equipment, motor excellent, cost tires; price for a few days demonstration. Week days, Everett 1846; evenings, Circle 1467-J.

1921 MODEL C-34, OAKLAND coupe, low mileage, looks and runs like new; good condition; 6 new tires; will sell cheap; terms. Inquire 1218 Commonwealth ave., Brighton.

NEW TAIL LIGHTS, postpaid, $1.75. BARCOM'S, 324 Columbus av., Boston.

Lost and Found

LOST—TUESDAY, NOV. 14.

Between Cambridge and Arlington-Tyler Hotel, possibly in subway car, BROOCH, diamond center, with sapphires around. Finder will be rewarded by returning to 23 Brookline st., Cambridge. Univ. 2266-M.

SEAL NECK PIECE

LOST—Last Saturday from automobile, between Andrews st. and Cambridge st., West Roxbury, via Morton, Seward, Parkway. 1245-M.

$100 REWARD

LOST—Between Boston and Medford, Saturday night, diamond ring. MAMALIAN, BOSTON AMERICAN, Boston.

LOST—Black suit case marked Y. C. R., valuable papers, between Summer st. and Boston av. Reward. MRS. ARNOLD, Brook. 441.

Legal and Public Notices

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AL COREY

NOTARY. Always home, 44 Cortes st. Tel. 210 Columbus av. Phone Dewey 8216-J NOW.

Music

SAXOPHONE IN 20 EASY PRIVATE LESSONS
Conqueror, The Master Saxophone. Write for booklet. Wash. St., Brighton.

REAL RAGTIME PIANO IN 10-20 LESSONS
Free Booklet. United School, 30 Huntington Ave.

Misc. Classifications

DERMATOLOGY

NASAL DEFECTS (AN Illustrated Process.

Reveals, Bares & Treats Eyelids, Cheeks, Lips, Nose, Sagging Double Chins, Superfluous Flesh on Neck, Pits, Moles, Warts, Scars, Wrinkles, Pimples, Blackheads, Bleeders, Red Veins, Red Noses, Birthmarks and all Facial Blemishes corrected painlessly and permanently. SPECIAL TREATMENT for the permanent removal of Freckles, Moth, Moles, Scars, Lines, etc. Consultation FREE.

Hours 10 to 6 P. M. Sunday 10 to 2

E. P. REID, M.D.

100 BOYLSTON ST., Room 329

WARNER'S for Better Corsets

Sold by all dry goods stores. If not, send us $1.50 by mail and we will send you a pair, postpaid. Name your size and model when ordering. All registered in Mass. WARNER BROTHERS CO. WALTHAM, MASS.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

PARTNER WANTED — Young Jewish man, experienced meat cutter, to establish American meat market. Address E 61, Boston American.

COMPLETE FACTORY for sale in Rockport; doing good business. Will sell at a very different price. Young man can operate. All registered in Mass. WALTHAM UNIFORM CO. WALTHAM, MASS.

DETECTIVES

"KNOW THE TRUTH"

See Hooter's moment detective. L. OAKES CURRIER, 23 School st., room 44. Congress 0317.

STORAGE

BUB STORAGE WAREHOUSE

149 Washington st. Tel. Beach 6. Rooms $1 a mo. up. Licensed and bonded

Dancing

PROF. LERNER'S New Academy of DANCING 335 Mass. Ave. BACK BAY At Huntington Ave. 3335

Dependable instruction in latest ballroom dancing, correct style, devoid of freakishness. Wonderful results with adult beginners. Private and class lessons daily 9 A. M. to 11 P. M. For adults and children in all forms of dancing. Socials Wednesday and Saturday.

FLORENCE KELLY

161 Huntington Ave., Cor. Mass. Ave. 50c Private lessons, modern ballroom dancing, beginners specialty; wonderful results; class lessons, 25c; practice and tea dance each day in a few lessons; private and class every evening; Saturday, 2 to 5 P. M. Tel. Back Bay 7811. Tel. 1647 Back Bay.

Wm. H. O'Brien Classes Tuesday and Thursday Evenings. Private Anytime. Tel. B. B. 2075. Studio, 178 Tremont st. Wed., Fri. & Sat. Evenings. "ROSELAND"

LOOMIS 93 Mass. Ave. Tel. Back Bay 7334

Classes Monday and Friday evenings. Private lessons in modern or classic at day or eve'g. Beginners and Saturdays.

STAGE DANCING Prof. Leslie Guarnieri
SOFT-SHOE, Eccentric, Buck, Prince. 226 Mass. Ave. B. B. 8323.

MABEL G. HALL 235 Dorr. st. S. B. 0161
Private lesson 75c. Any time. Berkeley.

MODEL SCHOOL, MODERN DANCING—Mrs. Farwell, Miss Hoyt; select; very reasonable; adult beginners especially welcome. 1 Huntington av. (near Norway st.) Tel. B. B. 6155.

REINEMANN House, Boston and Somerville, dancing classes, private lessons, children and adult classes. Circular, 178 Tremont st.

BAY STATE SCHOOL, 1931 Washington st., City—Socials Mon., Wed., Sat.; classes Thurs. Private lessons any time. Circulars.

Lost and Found

LOST—TUESDAY, NOV. 14.

Between Cambridge and Arlington-Tyler Hotel, possibly in subway car, BROOCH, diamond center, with sapphires around. Finder will be rewarded by returning to 23 Brookline st., Cambridge. Univ. 2266-M.

SEAL NECK PIECE

LOST—Last Saturday from automobile, between Andrews st. and Cambridge st., West Roxbury, via Morton, Seward, Parkway. 1245-M.

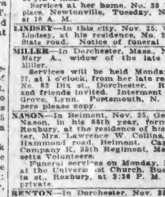
$100 REWARD

LOST—Between Boston and Medford, Saturday night, diamond ring. MAMALIAN, BOSTON AMERICAN, Boston.

LOST—Black suit case marked Y. C. R., valuable papers, between Summer st. and Boston av. Reward. MRS. ARNOLD, Brook. 441.

A WANT AD IN THE EVENING AMERICAN BRINGS SURE RESULTS.

FOR QUICK SERVICE CALL MAIN 5180



BOSTON AMERICAN
Published daily (except Sunday), 80-88 Summer St., Boston, Mass., by HEARST-LAND PUBLISHING COMPANY.
Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Boston, Mass. Also at the Postoffice Department, Canada.
Domestic rates (Subscription by Mail (prepaid) One Month, $0.50; Three Months, $1.50; Six Months, $3.00; One Year, $6.00. Foreign rates, one year, $12.00. Single copies, 2c. Entire payment must be made to the Boston Postal District. Subscriptions payable in advance.

The Boston American assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements, but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately of any error which may occur.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also all

Want-ad Order Blank

Fill Out and Mail to BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
80 SUMMER ST., BOSTON

Rates—35 cents per line one time. Six average words per line. Five cents per line discount on three-time orders and ten cents per line discount on six-time orders. "Furnished Rooms" rates—30 cents per line one time. Five cents per line discount on three or six-time orders.

Name _____ Classification _____

Street _____ Number of Days _____

Post Office _____ Am't Enclosed _____

Write complete ad below, including name, address or phone—Or if blind address is wanted mark X here ( )

Doctors often regard the license to practice medicine as a protection of their personal rights—it is rather protection of the public.—Dr. W. B. Cannon.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Largest Evening Circulation in New England—November 27, 1922

Boston police force comprised December 1, 1921, a force of 1,906, or sixty more than in 1920.

Women as Progressive Force in Public Affairs

A great deal of speculation has been had by masculine writers as to how much and what kind of a force women would prove to be in politics. We wonder how often it has occurred to the masculine mind that politics, as it is practiced today, is quite a different thing from efficient conduct of public affairs.

We venture the thought that whether or not women are ever a force in politics, they will be a tremendous force in public affairs. This thought has been strengthened by an incident that took place at a recent hearing before the Department of Public Utilities against the prices which were charged for gas and electricity in one of our Massachusetts cities.

A large number of women were present and one speaker—a man by the way—was telling how much lower prices of electricity were in Holyoke, where the public owns its own plant, than in his city, where the electric service is furnished by a privately-owned monopoly, and stated that he wished there was a publicly-owned plant in his city.

Thereupon, applause was loud and prolonged, and, as far as observed, unanimous on the part of the women present.

Would an audience of men unanimously applaud such a statement?

Not those who are politicians or in politics, we feel sure. If a straw shows which way the wind blows, women with the vote in their hands will be a tremendous force for progress, and ultimately even the men may come to realize the difference between politics and the efficient conduct of public affairs. When that day comes, and perhaps before, thanks to the women, our public utilities will be publicly owned.

1 Killed 77

Suppose the 77 Had Killed the 1

Copyright, 1922, Star Co.

A Pennsylvania jury holds a mine company responsible for the deaths of seventy-seven men. A gas explosion killed them. Mine management, knowing of the gas, allowed the use of open flame lights and employed too few "fire bosses" to make inspections.

Seventy-seven miners were killed. Some ONE man is responsible.

They were killed because somebody was trying to save money.

If the seventy-seven miners had killed that ONE man in an effort to get more money in the shape of wages, they would be put in jail; some of them, perhaps, hanged.

The one man that killed the seventy-seven in order to make his mine more profitable will not be put in jail and will not be hanged.

If you think that men are as important as money in our glorious republic you make a mistake.

Cosmic Telephone System

Radio Will Furnish It

Copyright, 1922, Star Co.

When you see your small boy working at his radio outfit, you think of several things including this:

Radio is to be the interplanetary telephone system. Just as surely as your eyes read these words, a generation very close to you will talk with the radio through the ether to other planets.

At 186,000 miles per second, a radio message would travel ninety odd millions of miles to the sun, in eight minutes, and in half that time to our older brother, Mars, when fairly near us. Flammarion, the French astronomer, said to this writer some years ago in Paris, "We are not yet on the threshold of knowledge." The power of radio will open the door.

Red Flags Already

Lucky for England She Has Statesmen

Copyright, 1922, Star Co.

Red flags appear on the Thames embankment in London. The Labor men in Parliament are called on to break up an angry march to the Tory headquarters in Downing Street. Trouble didn't wait long before visiting the new "Victorious Tories," who, as Lloyd George points out, represent six million out of fifteen million English voters only.

Young Mountbatten in his modest speech explained why he refused to talk politics. In the first place, he wasn't allowed to, he said, because he is in the navy, and in the second place, the navy is prepared and ready to obey the orders of any government, "Tory, Liberal or Labor government."

That's a strong point in English statesmanship. They have brains enough to know that they are safe as long as they represent a MAJORITY. Some politicians here have that to learn.

Execution of Childers

There is something very sad to the friends of Ireland in the news that the Irish Free State government has executed Erskine Childers. They stood him up in front of a firing squad just as the English stood up before their firing squads other Irishmen.

Childers has had a long and honorable record as an Irish patriot. His life was always in his hands during the struggle against England for Irish liberty.

When the great division among Irishmen came, he took the side for the republic and complete separation. It is said that he made the most complete argument against the Free State made on the Republican side.

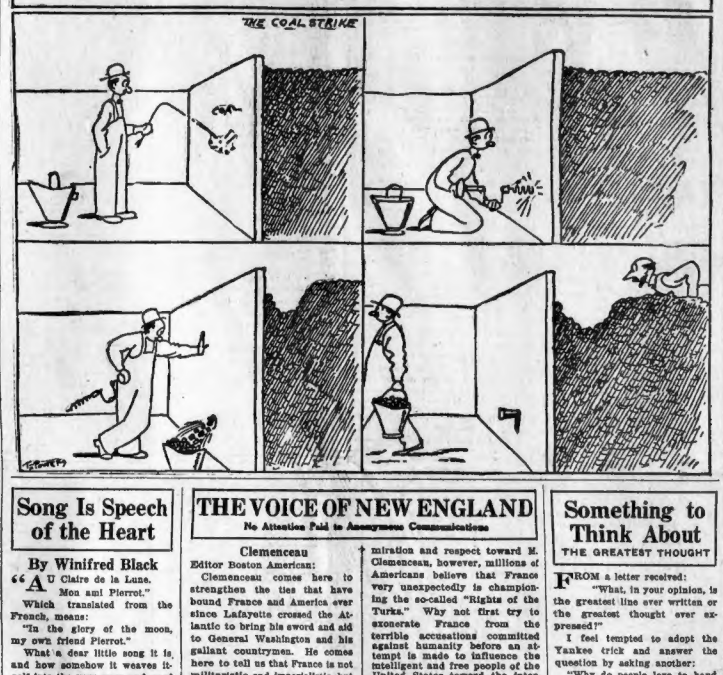
Was it necessary to execute this Irish patriot? No one, not even the military officers who ordered his execution, believe that he was inspired by anything but the highest patriotism, according to his view of it. What justifies the taking of a human life which can never be restored—nothing but its terroristic effects. Everyone knows that the Irish Republicans do not fear death. They no more fear Irish Free State rifles than English rifles. Why then kill them when they are captured? Why embitter the Irish question with blood?

Unwise though Mr. De Valera and his adherents may for the present be, no one doubts their patriotism—so why kill them unnecessarily? Take them and put them where they will be safe. The men who risk their lives for Irish liberty are necessarily the best blood in the Irish race. Why waste it for nothing? The whole thing is a nightmare.

What Is Wrong With This Picture?

By T. E. Powers

Copyright, 1922, Star Co.



Song Is Speech of the Heart

By Winifred Black

"AU Claire de la Lune.
Mon ami Pierrot."

Which translated from the French, means:

"In the glory of the moon, my own friend Pierrot."

What a dear little song it is and how somehow it weaves itself into the very warp and woof of life, like a silver thread in a dull fabric!

I knew a woman who had a handsome husband and she wasn't ugly herself, and she and her husband went to a little party once in a garden.

Such a quaint little party in such a dear garden, dim and far away.

Pepper trees and palms, camphor trees and yellow acacia, and great garlands of white and yellow, and scarlet and pink roses.

And under the pepper trees and just where the curly shadows of the camphor trees fell across the table—there we sat for the party—just a little group of friends, and the handsome husband and his pretty wife were there—newly married, and very deep in love.

And a young fellow with the face of an astonished Cupid, and a delicate little girl who sat near him, lifted up their voices and sang, just because they were so happy they couldn't help it.

"In the glory of the moon, my own friend Pierrot."

And somehow I never see a rose garden without thinking of the little girl and her own friend Pierrot, and how she cried to him in the moonlight:

"Open to me your door—pour l'amour de Dieu!"

And afterward there was trouble between the handsome man and his pretty wife, and she went away from him to live among strangers, and she was sorry and ashamed and proud. Later she wanted to go home to him again, but she did not know what to do to touch the heart of her husband and make him wish for her.

One day she sent him a wire:

"Open to me your door"—she wrote—"pour l'amour de Dieu."

And the telegraph operator didn't spell it right, but he knew what she meant, and he telegraphed back:

"In the glory of the moon," and signed his name, and she packed her trunk and started home.

How much they mean, these songs we sing!

(Copyright, 1922, by King Features Syndicate, Inc., in Great Britain and Canada.)

—Gift Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

THE VOICE OF NEW ENGLAND

No Attention Paid to Anonymous Communications

Clemenceau

Editor Boston American:

Clemenceau comes here to strengthen the ties that have bound France and America ever since Lafayette crossed the Atlantic to bring his sword and aid to General Washington and his gallant countrymen. He comes here to tell us that France is not militaristic and imperialistic, but that liberty and justice, fraternity and equality is her watchword toward humanity and civilization. That is good—but why doesn't he, regarded as the boldest and bravest of all in France, draw his sword in behalf of the allies of France in the World's War—the Christian population of Asia Minor and particularly in behalf of the destitute Greeks and Armenians, who are suffering terribly in the hands of the atrocious Turkish assassins (the new allies of France in the Near East), who are suffering much worse at their hands today than did France and Belgium at the hands of the Germans during the World's War?

While we have the highest admiration and respect toward M. Clemenceau, however, millions of Americans believe that France very unexpectedly is championing the so-called "Rights of the Turks." Why not first try to exonerate France from the terrible accusations committed against humanity before an attempt is made to influence the intelligent and free people of the United States toward the interests of France and European politics in general?

PETER BAKER.

East Braintree.

—Gift Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

Children's Hospital

Editor Boston American:

In closing the appeal so generously responded to by the public for additional annual subscriptions for the support of the Children's Hospital, the board of managers at their meeting on November 20 directed me to write to you to express their very sincere thanks and appreciation for the generous use of your columns for the publicity necessary for carrying on the appeal.

F. MURRAY FORBES,
Secretary.

THE HELPING HAND

Shoes Given Away

Editor Boston American:

Would be very grateful for the shoes, size 5½, to be given away by A. M. Y. M. S.

Ed. Note—The address of A. M. Y. will be sent to M. S.

High Chair

Editor Boston American:

We are a young married couple just starting out for ourselves and need a high chair, but under the circumstances can't afford to buy one and would appreciate the offer of "A Friend."

MRS. L. F. S.

Ed. Note—The address of "A Friend" will be sent Mrs. L. F. S.

Black Kitten

Editor Boston American:

I would appreciate the photograph you offer as I like good music and operatic records very much. I have a dear black and white male kitten I would give to any one who would like to have it.

MRS. A. P.

Ed. Note—The phonograph has been given away, but some other reader may offer one. Her address will be sent a person who wants a black kitten.

Baby Carriage

Editor Boston American:

I have a navy blue, strong, wicker baby carriage, almost new, which I will sell for very little.

H. L. C.

Ed Note—The address of H. L. C. will be sent Mrs. M. C., who applied some time ago.

Coat for Girl

Editor Boston American:

I have a plush coat and some other clothes that would fit a girl of fourteen. I would like to have the address of a needy child of that age. MRS. E. B.

Ed. Note—The address of a worthy family with such a child will be sent her.

Would Give Woman Home

Editor Boston American:

I noticed that Mrs. J. P. C. offers a home to an elderly woman. I know of a very worthy woman who is in great need of help. She has the best of references, but is not able to do laborious work just now. Anyone who needs an assistant in their home will find her very helpful and worthy. Hope you may be able to help her find a place to work and earn a little.

M. M. G.

Ed Note—Mrs. M. M. G. will be sent the address of Mrs. C. M., who seeks such a helpful woman. Other readers have offered homes for women and girls. Who will take them? Mrs. J. P. C. has not sent her address.

—Gift Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

Something to Think About

THE GREATEST THOUGHT

FROM a letter received:

"What, in your opinion, is the greatest line ever written or the greatest thought ever expressed?"

I feel tempted to adopt the Yankee trick and answer the question by asking another:

"Why do people love to hand you a conundrum?"

This correspondent's question embraces the literature of the whole world for several thousand years. He can search me. I haven't read it all. And, even if any man could read it all and weigh it all, why should there be such a thing as the greatest thought?

Which is the greatest kiss that ever was kissed?

But the subject is alluring. It brings to memory immediately so many gems of thought that you grow dizzy trying to compare them.

"And God said, Let there be light, and there was light."

That is a very fine thought. It expresses the transition from chaos to a world fit to live in. Yet how can you compare it with the Golden Rule? That was also a fine thought which expressed in a nut shell the basis of the civilization we have yet to reach.

The Bible is full of great thoughts. So are the works of Shakespeare. And the Divine Comedy of Dante. And Homer. It is worth while to learn Greek to read Homer and to learn Latin to read Horace, in the original, in order to appreciate their fine thoughts.

The "greatest" is a hard thing to determine. It depends largely upon the yardstick by which you do your measuring. A thought that is incentive to ambition may not appeal to a person looking for consolation. It is also a matter of moods. There are times when I think the greatest thought ever expressed was in Bryant's Thanatopsis.

". . . . Yet a few days, and thee
The all-beholding sun shall see no more
In all his course. . . . "

And then again, at other times, I vastly prefer the thought of the maid who announces,

"Dinner is served."

Copyright, 1922, by King Features Syndicate, Inc., in Great Britain and Canada.

—Gift Now to Christmas Basket Fund—

SEEN AND HEARD

AN appeal for coal to JOHN F. SCOTT, fuel administrator of Quincy, counts. A new resident of the city called at the administrator's office to ask an order for coal. The administrator was out, and the stenographer took the consumer's name. The consumer, after leaving, succeeded in placing an order, but was she forgotten by the administrator? No sirree. Next morning he called her on the 'phone to see if he could be of some help.

The two officers in the First Corps Area who have received the largest number of medals and decorations are: COLONEL W. E. HORTON, quartermaster of the First Corps Area, and MAJOR R. JOHN WEST, commanding a battalion of the 12th Infantry. COLONEL HORTON has to his credit eleven medals and decorations, and MAJOR WEST has twelve medals and decorations, with more "at home" if he wanted to wear them. As it is, one side of his uniform is now covered with the honors.

"The Boston flapper is a direct descendant of the Polish Women's Battalion of Death," according to LIEUTENANT H. W. RENFREW, who is now in business on Boylston street and likes Boston more than any other city he has visited. During the World War he was everywhere, but the Women's Battalion took his interest and his admiration.

Massachusetts is soon to have at Rutland a tuberculosis sanitarium where the patient may bring his family and live a normal home life. Land has been bought north of Rutland, where a model village for these recovering from tuberculosis will be built. This will be one of the most unusual communities in the country.

There's one very liberal student at Harvard. He offered a ticket to the Yale-Harvard game to any auto owner who would take a party of students to the game in his car.

Fifty Methodist churches of Greater Boston have subscribed $100,000 to the endowment fund of the Boston University School of Theology. This theological school has the largest number of "theologues" in New England and has graduates in every country of the world. DEAN JAMES A. BEEBE, head of this school, knows how to make effective ministers.

Bestowal of names doesn't always preserve memories. Although the statue of CHARLES SUMNER, Boston liberator, still stands in the Public Garden, the hall bearing his name for many years in East Boston has lately been rechristened New Columbus Hall.

Sign put up beside road by humorous campers at Kittery, Me., reads: "Autoists obeying speed law will be rewarded by town physician with ONE PRESCRIPTION."

GARRETT P. SERVISS ON SCIENCE AND RELIGION

By Garrett P. Serviss

I HAVE over and over asserted, in these articles, that there is no real conflict between science and religion, but that they occupy different fields, and that not only is it not the business of science to investigate religious dogmas, but science is not competent to undertake such investigation for the reason that its functions are necessarily confined to things that can be studied and verified by and through the senses.

Of course I claim no originality for these views, because they are self-evident to any one conversant with the methods of science, and in one form or another they have been expressed by many persons. At the same time I am gratified to see that Charles P. Steinmetz, in an address before the Schenectady Chapter of the Unitarian Laymans' League, has also asserted the separateness of the fields of science and religion, and this without questioning the truth of religious conceptions, which, as he points out, must always rest on belief and not on scientific proof.

There can hardly be anyone who more fully understands what the real aims, methods and limitations of science are than does Dr. Steinmetz. And when a man of his experience in dealing with some of the most abstruse problems of nature and science affirms, as he did in his address, that "the negative answer of science on the question whether there are conceptive entities of infinite character, as infinity in time and space, immortality of the ego, God, etc., is not conclusive, and the question is still as open as it ever was"—when he says that, those who are so fearful that science may upset the foundations of religion ought to feel relieved at finding their fear unjustified.

On the other hand, those who are only too desirous that science should "disprove God and all that sort of thing" ought to take notice that science is neither trying nor going to try anything so futile.

It is often charged that scientific men are apt to be "atheists." I do not believe that that is true. On the other hand I am confident that there are more disbelievers in God outside than inside the scientific fold. The general attitude of the man of science is that he cannot represent God to his mind as he represents a scientific fact of nature. But, aware of the imperfection of his knowledge and the limitations of his intellect, he does not reject the idea of a creative intelligence ruling the universe simply because his strictly sense-limited investigations fail to reveal and prove the existence of God.

He does not oppose religious dogmas unless they insist upon the existence of conditions in the physical world which he knows do not exist; and even then he does not go out of his way to attack religious beliefs. Robert G. Ingersoll was not a scientist, and as far as his celebrated attacks on religion go, he did not exhibit any scientific knowledge. It is very unjust to saddle upon the back of science any responsibility whatever for the assertions and notions of professed, and (as they sometimes show themselves to be) fanatical atheists.

In Dr. Steinmetz's address an exceedingly clear statement is made of the nature of the limitation of science. "Our senses," says he, "can perceive only finite things, but cannot perceive the infinite. No reasoning from any foundation can put anything into the conclusion which is not found in the foundation, and thus, with our sense perceptions as the foundation which we use—that is the entire structure of science—are limited to the finite. All conceptions of the infinite, etc., really means nothing except that we cannot get by reasoning a conclusion which is not contained in the premises with which we started our reasoning."

DANCE, STAY YOUNG, SAYS RUSSIAN STAR

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Dance your way through life and forestall old age.

Lydia Lopokova, premier danseuse of the Russian ballet, gives this advice to all of her sex.

"There is no other way to keep one so young and fit as dancing," the little sparkling dancer said. "It is art and athletics at the same time."

Lydia has gone a long way since her first and last performance in America. Some eight years ago she went to America an unknown ballet dancer with a desire to become a famous actress. She had her first opportunity as an actress with a permanent stock company in Pittsfield, Mass., but her lack of knowledge of the language was a great drawback to her, and she returned to her dancing to win great fame along Broadway. Then she came back to Europe with her American laurels and has steadily pushed forward until today London, at least, accepts her as the greatest ballet dancer in the world, and wherever and whenever she appears the theatre is stormed by those who wish to admire her art.

You ask me if I would advise ballet dancing as a career for girls," Lydia said. "I say yes, providing the girl is well made, has a certain amount of talent and is determined to work hard.

"But few people realize how hard a ballet dancers' life is. She must give all of her time and energy. For years, from the age of nine, if possible, she must go through a long and difficult training.

"If the aspiring dancer does not love dancing for its own sake there are many obstacles to keep her back from perfection and success. There is so much experience and tradition behind it that, in spite of its exhausting activity, it is in no way harmful to the female body."

—Gift Now to Christmas Basket Fund—